LOCAL NEWS

A glove found on King street awaits an owner at the central police station.

This evening members of Division No. 1, A. O. H., held their assembly, in Hibernians Hall.

The police report finding a pair of eyeglasses and a child's mitten on Main street yesterday.

Coroner Berryman, when seen by The Star, said he had investigated the death of Dr. Hannay and decided that an inquest was wholly unnecessary.

A handsome suit of plain black or blue, standard fabric, at 10 per cent. of the regular price. The reduction is genuine. Visit C. B. Pidgeon at the corner of Main and Bridge streets.

The ambulance went to Sand Point at 10 o'clock this morning to convey a man named Hughes to the hospital. Hughes received a bad injury to his spine while working about the premises of British yesterday afternoon.

A special meeting of St. Vincent's Alumnae will be held in St. Vincent's de Paul rooms on Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

There will be a meeting of the St. John Art Club tomorrow evening. A paper will be read by M. G. Padlock and John Miles will exhibit his paintings.

The regular intercollegiate hockey matches may not be played in St. John as has been intended. Captain Charles Jones of the U. N. B. team is making arrangements whereby the Fredericton curling rink will be used for the games.

The work of preparation for the Dominion Fair going on at present is largely of a routine nature. Owing to the absence of some of the members no meetings of the executive are being held this week. The secretary is now busy drumming up exhibitors.

The Mechanics Lien case of Hamilton vs. Seymour and Whitehead was continued in County Court Chambers this morning before Judge Forbes. The case was adjourned at 12.30 and will be continued tomorrow at eleven a.m. A. A. Wilson and S. B. Bustin appear for the plaintiff, and G. H. V. Belyas for the defendant.

Elaborate plans have been made for the annual reunion of St. Peter's Y. M. C. A. which will take place this evening. The Catholic societies of the city will be the guests of President Casey and the members. The St. Peter's orchestra have prepared an excellent programme and several addresses will be made. Each of the visiting societies will contribute four numbers to the programme.

William Murray, of Campbellton, is in the city. Mr. Murray is one of five defendants in a case against the Restigouche Boom Co. Tomorrow H. H. Powell, K. C., and W. H. Wallace, K. C., acting for the plaintiff, will apply before Chief Justice Baskin in the Equity Court for an injunction restraining the defendant from cutting a boom near Tide Head on the Restigouche River.

Rev. Gordon Warman, whose disappearance from near Woodstock last fall caused much uneasiness to his friends, has been definitely located at Fisher River, Selkirk, Manitoba. This information is given by Warman himself in a letter to his father, W. A. Warman, of Moncton. The young man says he has decided to become an agriculturist and is presently located.

The premises on Dock street formerly occupied by N. Barry Smith, the druggist, who recently failed, have been taken over by Charles R. Wasson, the King street druggist. The shop is now in the hands of the carpenter, etc., and will be thoroughly renovated and set up to date in every respect before being reopened. It will be conducted by Mr. Wasson as a branch of his King street store.

Probate Court—Estate of Mary McCarthy, widow of Dennis McCarthy, carpenter. The deceased died intestate on 12th September, 1897, leaving two sons, Dennis and Jeremiah McCarthy, and one daughter, Mary Ann McGrain, wife of James McGrath, butcher. The others renouncing the right to administer in his favor, Dennis McCarthy, of St. John, cabinet maker, is appointed administrator. No real estate property sitsuate on the north side of North street. Mr. Arthur C. Fairweather, K. C., proctor.

The Y. M. C. A. and Portlands will meet tomorrow evening in the senior basketball league. The match will take place in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. This is the first appearance of the Portlands, who last year took the championship from the Algonquins. J. Elliott will replace H. T. Thorne on the line-up. A fast match is looked forward to.

A subscription list to aid the Seamen's Institute management in paying off the $1,500 owed on the contract of the building was launched this morning, and the first person to sign his name was Mr. James F. Robertson of the firm of Manchester, Robertson and Allison. Mr. Robertson showed his appreciation of the good work being done for the sailors by subscribing one hundred dollars to the fund. The subscription lists will be circulated through the city and the institute management expect that the debt of the building will be cleared off in a short time.

A young sailor called at the central police station this morning and complained that another tar had departed from the Elliott Hotel, 7th Germain street this morning and had taken the wrong canvas bag full of clothing. The sailor asked assistance in recovering the clothing taken away from him about $15. He belonged to Nova Scotia and roomed with the other sailor last night. He says that he does not believe that the other sailor meant to be a thief but made a mistake in picking up his luggage. The sailor with the wrong bag of clothes is supposed to have left this morning for Walsford and the police will enquire into the case.

THINKS GERMAIN ST.

HAS BEEN SLIGHTED

Residents Will Ask for Share of Pavements

—Only Part of City Willing to Pay Half.

The residents of Germain street feel that they have a grievance in the fact that their locality has been entirely overlooked in the provisions which have been made for laying permanent pavements.

They state that it was their agitation for better streets which led the aldermen to take up the proposition at all and that when some action was planned their claims should have received some attention. It is felt that their claims are especially strong because of their offer to pay half of the cost, an offer which has not been duplicated by any of the streets which are to benefit by the appropriation to be made this year.

A gentleman who was prominent in the movement when it was first taken up intimated this morning that delegation from the residents of Germain street would ask permission to appear before the Common Council to ask for a grant for their street.

BOY FROM THE COUNTRY

PULLED THE FIRE ALARM

Young Morris Tells How It Happened—

Walter Moore Admits Striking

a Constable.

There was a brief session in the police court this morning. Kenneth Morris, a boy of 12 years, was charged by Sergeant Kilpatrick with ringing in a false alarm from box 221 on the corner of Barker and Somerset streets Sunday last at 11.30 o'clock. The boy said that he saw the glass in the box broken and having recently come from the country did not know anything about the alarm. He ignorantly pulled the hook.

A lad named Albert Connell corroborated the evidence given by Morris. Chief Kerr was in court and said he did not desire to prosecute in view of the circumstances of the case.

The magistrate dismissed Morris with a warning. He thought the boys should have attended court on Saturday, instead of during school hours. Walter Moore, aged 24 years, was charged with assaulting Constable A. M. Sherwood on the Marsh Bridge. The constable gave evidence that on the 24th of December he was arresting a man named Forbes. Quite a number of people gathered about and Moore struck him in the face. Moore pleaded guilty to the offense, saying he was too drunk to account for his action. He was remanded.
