PRISONERS DEALT WITH

Sentences Aggregating Nineteen Years Handed Out by Judge Forbes Yesterday to Four Criminals.

Judge Forbes held a special session of the criminal court yesterday at half past ten and four prisoners elected to be tried under the Speedy Trials Act pleaded guilty to the several charges preferred against them and nineteen years in Dorchester was handed out to the bunch. Hanson got five, Hennessy five, Quinlan five, and Phillips four.

Harry Phillips, committed on four charges of stealing watches, rings, and of obtaining money from Charles Goggin under false pretences, pleaded guilty to all but the charge of stealing watches, the property of L. L. Sharpe. Mr. C. H. Ferguson, who represented the crown, did not press this charge and the accused was given two years on the first count and a year each on the other two, making four in all.

Oscar Hanson, through H. J. Smith, his counsel, pleaded guilty to stealing a cow and two bicycles. He got five years in Dorchester Penitentiary, in passing sentence his honor termed Hanson a "terror in the community." Hanson took his sentence with a smile.

David Hennessy, well known in police circles, through his counsel, Mr. E. S. Ritchie, pleaded guilty to assaulting Samuel Allen, a workman in the employ of the Hassam people, on Main street.

Hennessy hit Allen on the head with a paving block. No motive was given for his action and he was committed on the charge of assault with the intent to do bodily harm.

His honor read Hennessy's record. He got six months in goal in 1903 for cutting and wounding one Dixon with a bottle. In December 1903, he assaulted Ambrose Pelky and served another term in goal. He was convicted of assault in 1904 and in 1907 was sent to goal for threatening the life of his sister. His honor gave Hennessy five years in Dorchester Penitentiary.

Patrick J. Quinlan, charged with stealing had been allowed his liberty on suspended sentence at a special session of the court held in July. Judge Forbes told him then if he ever came before him again he would give him five years. This he did yesterday morning. Quinlan smiled all through the procedure.

The review case of Ganong vs Pickett argued before Judge Forbes in chambers recently, was disposed of yesterday when his honor ordered a verdict to be entered for the plaintiff for fourteen dollars and costs. This case was reviewed from the court of Squire Hennessy, Kingston, Mr. G. H. V. Belyea appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. H. H. Pickett for the defendant.

AUGUST TERM COUNTY COURT

It Opened Yesterday Before Judge Forbes--The Jury List and Docket--Grand Jury and Rodney Wharf Railing.

The August term of the County Court opened yesterday at eleven o'clock in the Court House. His Honor Judge Forbes presided. There was no criminal business as the four prisoners awaiting trial had, earlier in the morning, elected to be tried before his honor without a jury. The grand jury, however, brought in a recommendation that the city authorities place a railing along the side of Rodney wharf where the cars stop.

Attorney General Hazen represented the crown.

His honor in charging the grand jury said that he regretted to see so few present. "It is the duty of every citizen summoned to attend as a juror to obey that summons," said the judge. "I have some very peculiar medical certificates on my desk. One is from a well-known doctor with regard to the condition of Martin McGuire. The certificate, which is dated August 16, nearly ten days ago, informs me that Mr. McGuire cannot attend. No reason whatever is given. Mr. McGuire will be fined."

"I have another with reference to the physical condition of Wm. A. Kahn, it, too, is dated August 16. Mr. Kahn might be better by this time. However, the doctor in this case sets out the cause, so I'll excuse Mr. Kahn."

His honor then pointed out to the jury that it was their privilege to investigate any public building in the city. He suggested that the Hassam pavement might be a good thing to tackle. In concluding his charge, his honor ordered a fine of $10 to be struck against all the delinquents.

The jury then retired and after being out less than fifteen minutes, brought in the following recommendation:

"We the grand jury, having learned that a recommendation of the last grand jury in regard to placing adequate protection on Rodney wharf has not been carried out, again strongly recommend that measures be taken to safeguard the public at this point."

R. T. Hayes, foreman; A. McArthur, secretary; J. D. Hayes, foreman; J. Wilson, secretary; J. Adams, William Campbell, Edwin A. Ellis, Frank R. Fairweather, William H. Arnold, William H. Campbell, Charles H. Peters, Walter H. Bell, Richard Heans, James W. Calhoun, E. G. McCullough, George A. Chamberlain, Martin McGuire and Fred G. Spencer.

His honor promised to lay the matter before the mayor.

The recommendations of the last grand jury referred to was made at the June sittings of the Circuit Court, presided over by Mr. Justice White.

Notice of funeral will be given hereafter.

3000 YEARS AGO THE EGYPTIANS CURED DISEASE WITH FRUIT

TODAY, CANADIANS ARE DOING IT WITH "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

The Famous Fruit Medicine

We are apt to consider the age we live in as the most wonderful age that the world has ever known. It is, in many respects. Yet the ancients surpassed us in some things. Engineers of our 40-story skyscrapers will marvel at the massive pyramids and the sphinx. So, too, the Egyptian physicians of 3,000 years ago, used fruit juices as a medicine for treating blood trouble, liver and kidney disease and stomach weakness. Their method of mixing fruit juice as a medicine, is also one of the lost arts. A well known Canadian physician, however, perfected a method of utilizing fruit juices, which is one of the greatest discoveries of modern medical research.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the natural cure for Chronic Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Torpid Liver, Kidney Disease, Pain in the Back, Bad Complexion, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Headache and Neuralgia.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. At all dealers, or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETIES TO HOLD CONVENTION

Montreal, Que. Aug. 23.— Montreal will, in all probability be the scene of the first annual convention of the various St. George's Societies of the Dominion.

Arrangements are now under way to call the initial congress together in this city during the latter part of September, but as yet no definite date has been set.

Mr. Alfred Griffin, Secretary of the Montreal branch, and president J. C. Anderson, of the St. John N. B. organization are the prime movers of the idea and are doing all in their power to make the convention a success. Invitations to participate have been sent to the different Canadian branches and the number of replies received have been most encouraging, most of the large cities of the Dominion signifying that two or more representatives would be sent to Montreal on the date decided upon.

Love of the Lord is nothing else than committing the precepts of the word to life, the sum of which is to shun evils, because they are hellish and devilish, and to do good because it is Heavenly and divine.—Swedenborg.

AMUSEMENTS

Another New Show at the Nickel Today.

At Nickel Theatre today the fine Edison drama "Sisters" will be the chief feature. This is one of the specially written scenarios for which the Edison Company pays exceptionally high prices to such well known writers as Fox Beach, Roy Norton, Richard Harding Davis and others.

The trip in modern China was such an enjoyable feature in the Monday, Tuesday programme that the Nickel management will today supplement it with "An Excursion into Historic Wales," a scenic film of surpassing beauty and brim full of interesting and educational value. There will be two other pictorial items, both new and entertaining. The Sadie Calhoun Stock Co. will conclude the rendering of that screaming farce "Jane" or "Wanted a Wife," and tomorrow will put on that touching little story, "Cinders." Mr. DeWitt Cairns, whose return was a matter of much pleasure to Nickel patrons, will again be heard on the balcony "Loveland" and tomorrow will sing "When You and I Were Young." Nickel theatre will close Saturday night, the 27th, at 10.30 to remain in the hands of painters, decorators, floor coverers and drapery people until Wednesday evening the 31st, at 6.30 o'clock when it will be re-opened with a flourish.
