JACK JOHNSON RETAINS CHAMPIONSHIP--- BEAT FRANK MORAN IN TWENTY ROUNDS--- HUNDREDS OF WOMEN WITNESS THE FIGHT

MR. JACK JOHNSON

Paris, June 27.—"Jack" Johnson still holds the heavyweight championship of the world. In a hard fought battle at Velodrome d'Hiver here tonight he defeated Frank Moran, of Pittsburg, easily, on points in the twenty round contest. Moran was game and stubborn and stood up to the negro. He did most of the leading and made many friends.

The black man's superior skill and his effective upperscut sent down his opponent and won the match, which at times seemed rather amateurish.

Terrific upperscuts, on which Johnson had relied in many of his previous battles, were again brought in to play on his young adversary, who was unable effectively to block them. They were repeatedly sent to Moran's jaw, when he least expected them, and several times with such force that the Pittsburgher was sent wabbling, but there was not a single knock down, or anything that looked like a finishing blow. At the close Moran's face was bleeding from cuts on the nose and under the left eye; Johnson showed no marks.

Towards the middle of the contest it appeared as if Moran would not go the twenty rounds, but he showed courage and kept driving. Although he landed a number of times on the negro his blows lacked force and were comparatively ineffective. Now and then he tried to land hard on his adversary, and in so doing swung widely through space, Johnson being several feet away.

Moran took his punishment well, and during parts of rounds the negro toyed with him when he saw that he could do so without danger.

Towards the end Johnson had the Pittsburgher absolutely at his mercy. Moran apparently feared that he would be finished and clung to Johnson's body for support, trying at the same time to land, but without success. His manner of fighting and holding in the latter part of the contest was the cause of unfavorable comment, as were the tactics of Johnson on several occasions, which brought a caution from the referee, as well as a storm of jeers from the crowd.

Many of the French spectators, who seemingly did not understand the fine points of boxing, voiced their objection to inflicting but cheered any resounding harmless whacks.

The great amphitheatre presented a wonderful sight, for although there were some empty seats, the tiers were crowded with representatives of every element. The singular spectacle was presented of several hundred women in handsome gowns applauding the women who were those that bore such great names in French society as Baroness Henry De Rothschild, the young Duchess D'Uzes, Countess Mathieu De Noailles, the post Princess De Laing, the Duchess De Rohan, Princess Morosini, and Countess De Prouvaux.

Johnson's white wife occupied a prominent position, wearing as many diamonds as most of the great ladies. She cried out shrilly from time to time: "Hit him daddy," "come along pop," "now then Jack, let him have another."

Gloved hands joined in the applause that rang through the building as the two gladiators sweltered under the heat and struggled for supremacy, as in the days of ancient Rome.

Spencer Eddy, former American minister to Argentina, sat near the ringside. Three feet behind him sat the Duke of Westminster, while not far away the Earl of Sefton, Louis Barthou, former premier of France, the Marquis De Lafayette, the Duke D'Uzes, Marquis De Breteuil, Baron James De Rothschild, and Count Clary.

Here and there dark faces, some of them negroes from Senegal, Dahomey and the West Indies.

It was an amazingly international crowd. Several hundred Americans were in the best seats. They included Mortimer Schiff, of New York; ex-Senator C. W. Watson, of West Virginia; Richard C. Baker, Jr., of Ohio; Mills, Herman B. Duryea, Alfred Vanderbilt, D. A. Reid and E. H. Thomas, all of New York.

After the fight Johnson took occasion to point out that no champion of his age ever defended the title and won (he is 36 years old). He appeared a little the worse for the battle.

They thought I could not last the twenty rounds," he said, "well, didn't I? I am satisfied, I have done nothing for two years except ride fast. In another six weeks I will be ready to box anybody.

"Moran. He has a real hard punch with either hands. I know, because I have been there. If they always landed there fast anybody who could stand up against them. He is a good boy, all right, and I enjoyed the fight. Carpenter is a fine referee."

It was the first time that a French champion had refereed a big match, and Carpenter expressed great pleasure at the experience. He thought it was one of the best fights he had ever seen.

Asked if he would like to take on Johnson, Carpenter said: "Johnson is a little bit too heavy for me at present."

Moran, in his dressing room after the fight said: "At the worst it should have been a draw. I was the aggressor throughout the whole twenty rounds and I was not hurt. The cut over my eye is only an old one reopened. It was received in training. I believe I had the best of practically every round."

The blow that really hurt was one on my nose, and for this Johnson was warned. That stopped my breathing and sent the blood trickling down my throat. That was the only real hurt Johnson gave me. I shall return to my camp and train for another fight. My manager has one in mind."

It was announced that the gate receipts exceeded $40,000.

It is understood Moran gets $5,000 and Johnson $30,000.

R. K. Y. C. MEMBERS' DAY

The Rensselaer Club have postponed their members' day from July 1st until a later date, owing to the big event of members' day being held at the club house of the R. K. Y. C. at Middletown, on Wednesday. The latter is one of the best events of the season for the yachtsmen, who with their guests will number in the vicinity of 300, and the day will be spent in a most enjoyable manner. There will be five events in the regatta to be held during the afternoon. At three o'clock the arbitrary Handicap Race for the Gregory Cup, and articles of equipment will take place. The course for this race will be in the vicinity of 300, and the day will be held in a most enjoyable manner. At five o'clock the motor boat race, open to all comers, for the Trask Cup will be held, and this race will be held over a special course. The two other events to be held during the afternoon will be motor races, viz, "Efficiency Race" and the "Bang and Go Back Race." An orchestra will be present, and in the evening the yachtsmen and their friends will enjoy a programme of dances. The club house and the yards will be brilliantly illuminated in the night, and "Members' Day" promises to be a most enjoyable one.

and generous size

HAVE you noticed that about Ben Beys—that they're bigger, as well as better, than most cigars that sell for fifteen cents? This generous size—at ten cents—means more than it measures. It means tobacco so well-cured, so smoothly blended, and so well rolled, that a long smoke of it is all good.

Some cigars are good enough for the first couple of inches. Then you begin to get that "dark brown" taste.

Not so Ben Beys. Full of flavor—satisfying aroma—but no rankness, burn or bite. That means they won't hurt your nerves.

*Says Ben Bey—
Your time is your own, but even a clock works.*
