SHIPS ARE DELAYED WAITING FOR A CHANCE TO BERTH. Shipping men are complaining somewhat about the delay that ships have at the present time to undergo before they are able to berth at the Long wharf. The Bengore Head which has been at anchor in the harbor for a few days was only yesterday afternoon able to berth at the wharf. The Long wharf where she can receive cargo from the L. C. R. cars and freight shed. There are only two berths at the wharf at present during the first of the week when there were no less than eleven steamships in port at the one time there was a scarcity of dock room to the L. C. R. pier and the ships that had cargo to take in there were somewhat delayed awaiting their turn. The steamship Wakarusa has been anchored at the wharf for a couple of days waiting a chance to get a berth at the L. C. R. and it is most probable that she will get one of the berths today when the steamer Yola sails for South Africa. The L. C. R. elevator is full of grain and there are hundreds of cars waiting to be emptied into the wharf bins for shipment to the old country.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin. Take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or uneasy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or lumbago gripping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.
