

Loggieville

Loggieville, N. B., March 8.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Catherine Harrington, whose death occurred at the home of her son, George Harrington, last week, took place on Saturday; interment being made in St. Michael's Cemetery, Chatham.

The deceased had resided in town for many years, and had many friends who loved her quiet, unassuming manner. Sympathy is extended to the home from which she was taken.

The death of Mrs. Harrington was a great loss to the family. The late Mrs. Harrington was a devoted wife and mother. She was a member of the Loggieville Baptist Church, and was a very active worker in the church. She was also a member of the Loggieville Baptist Women's Society, and was a very active worker in that organization. She was a very kind and generous person, and was loved by all who knew her.

The funeral was held on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of friends. The Rev. J. H. Smith, of the Loggieville Baptist Church, officiated at the service. The burial took place in St. Michael's Cemetery, Chatham.

Miss Quennie Manderson has gone to Moncton to engage in work there. Miss Blanche O'Hearn arrived here from Moncton on Saturday, owing to the illness of her sister, Mrs. A. D. Gillis.

Miss George McKay of Black River, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. William Archer and Mrs. James McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son in their home.

Miss O'Leary of Chatham, was a recent guest of Miss Annie Fraser.

Mrs. Allen McKenna and little son of Nelson, are guests at the home of Mrs. Russell, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Loggie have gone to England where they will spend the next two months.

Herbert McDonald has gone to Moncton to enter the employ of the C. N. Ry.

Mrs. Ken Greave is visiting Burnt Church relatives.

Mrs. Dempsey, who has resided here for the past six years, has gone to Tabusac, where she will spend a couple of months, previous to moving to Moncton, where she will in future reside.

A few evenings previous to her departure from this place, a number of her friends gathered at the home of her brother, Will Herlihy, and presented her with a beautiful leather travelling bag. During the evening refreshments were served and several hours spent pleasantly with games and music.

On Monday evening of last week about twenty-five friends of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Noble met at their home to celebrate with them their marriage anniversary. The time was pleasantly spent in various amusements, and about midnight dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Edwards and little son, Arthur, have moved into the Dempsey house.

Mrs. Kelly, who spent the winter with relatives in town, has returned to her home in Edgartown, Mass.

Fred Hersey has gone to Lynn, Mass., to engage in work there. His trip was very successful.

Miss Florence Harvey is very ill at her home here.

Penobscot

Penobscot, March 10.—The Women's Institute of this place met last week at the home of Mrs. Byron McLeod. The roll call was answered by a current event and business of much interest was put through. Tonight (Tuesday) the institute are holding a unique pie and basket social. The baskets instead of being stuffed off as is usually the case, are drawn for by the men and having found the owner they proceed to have her weighed and as many pounds as she weighs they pay in cents to the treasurer. Besides the main attraction there are three side shows, viz: a fortune teller, a candy table and a tub of novelties for the children. Financially and otherwise the social was very successful.

Owing to the illness of the teacher, Miss Robinson, there has been no school in the advanced department of the school for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Moore (nee Birdie Osbourne) are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, March 2nd.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral of the late Albert Scott were: Messrs. George Freeze, Hampton; Moody DeMille, Rexton; J. B. Gibson, St. John; J. L. Cameron, Moncton; A. G. Parkin, Petitcodiac; Mrs. S. Taylor, Salisbury; and the Misses Ada and Jennie Grosset, St. John.

Miss Ella Freeze spent a few days of last week here. Miss Freeze spent the winter in Boston and is now in St. John.

Ralph Weldon spent part of last week in Moncton.

Morris Branscombe, Corn Hill, was a week-end guest of friends here.

The Misses Rita Morton and Ella Hall spent Sunday with friends in Corn Hill.

Mrs. Gunning of Sussex, spent a few days of last week here, the guest of Mrs. Albert McLeod.

Miss Marie Branscombe who has spent the past few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Charles Hunt, Annapolis Ridge, has returned home.

Messrs. Duncan McLeod and Charles Branscombe spent Sunday in Corn Hill.

Mrs. James Robinson was taken to Sussex last week to undergo an operation.

Probably never before has there been so much lumber cut in one winter in this place, as is being cut this winter. Every stream has several rows of logs along them, besides there are two cuts for portable mills.

Hampton

Hampton, March 12.—Mrs. E. V. Wetmore entertained the United Baptist Missionary Aid Society at her home on Wednesday last. There was a large attendance and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, the President presided. Refreshments were served.

Miss Ethel Jone of Apohaqui was a guest this week of Mrs. Fenton Kelstead.

Mr. Jan Smith of Norton was here on Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jan Smith.

J. J. Ryan Jr. has returned to Augusta, Maine, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Myles McCready.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce of St. John, spent Saturday here.

Miss Julia Lawlor of St. John, spent last Friday, the funeral of Mrs. Thos. Conway.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Campbell have returned home after a visit with friends in Moncton.

Major Ralph March returned home from England on Monday last after an absence of five years overseas.

Major March landed in St. John on the S. S. "Empress of France" early Monday morning, and accompanied by Mrs. March who went to St. John on Saturday, arrived in Hampton on the noon suburban Monday. He is receiving a warm welcome from many friends.

On Friday evening, the pupils and teachers of the High School were entertained by a sleigh drive, after which refreshments were served at the school house by a committee.

Mrs. Geo. Hatfield who has been visiting friends here, returned to Boston on Wednesday.

Mr. E. A. Schofield and Master Donald Schofield were visitors to Hampton on Saturday last.

Mr. Frank McMillan who has been spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Fenton Kelstead has returned to his home, Quebec City.

Moncton

Moncton, March 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Magee of Port Elgin, were recent guests at the Brunswick Hotel.

Miss Alice Hanson, daughter of Capt. Hanson of Sackville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. S. Colpitts, Main street, West.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hunter of Amherst, are spending a few days in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Doyle.

Mrs. George D. Barnes of Hampton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. A. MacGowan. She is accompanied by her niece, Miss Marjorie Sayre of Tacoma, Washington, who has been spending some time in New York.

Mr. E. P. Paturel of Shediac, was in Moncton this week enroute home from Montreal.

Miss Edna Humphreys spent the weekend at her home in Campbellton. Lieut.-Col. S. Boyd Anderson, C. M. G., D. S. O., was a recent visitor to St. John.

Capt. D. B. Weldon, M. C., was among outside officers attending the banquet to Capt. Reg. Major, M. C., at St. John Saturday evening.

Mr. Matthew Lodge has returned from Montreal, where he spent a week C. N. R. Special Agent, A. J. Tingley and Inspector Lawson and Tremblay, left this week on a trip to Toronto on official business.

Hon. C. W. Robinson left on Wednesday for Fredericton to attend the Legislature, which opened on Thursday.

Mr. Roy Whelpley of Grand Falls, is spending some time in the city, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whelpley.

Mr. R. M. Ross, sporting editor of the Amherst Daily News, was in the city last week, accompanying the Amherst Girls' Hockey Team.

Lieut. Col. S. Boyd Anderson, M. C., of St. John, are spending a few weeks at Mrs. Heine's former home here.

Miss Emma McLaughlin of Rexton, left here this week on a two month's trip to Boston and New York and will visit Montreal and Quebec on her return.

Woodstock

Woodstock, March 10.—His Lordship Bishop Richardson will institute Rev. H. P. Rigby into the rectory on Sunday. He will also preach at the eleven and seven o'clock services in St. Luke's.

Mrs. F. G. Purinton of Richmond, was a visitor in town last week.

Mr. Finley Boston of Quebec, is now teller at the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Rev. Frank Baird attended the meeting of the Home Mission Board in Halifax this week.

Mr. Hugh Dalving has bought the John Grey house on Orange street, and will take possession of it the first of May.

Harry Belyes, who has been confined to his home for a week, was able to attend to his business on Monday.

Miss Mary Wright, who has been spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Harry Bridges, returned to her home in St. John on Monday.

Miss Joseph McNeil, who has been spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Harry Bridges, returned to her home in St. John on Monday.

Miss Marion W. Stevens, R. N., returned to her home in Hartland on Friday from Presque Isle, where she has been attending Miss Kate Phillips, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever. Miss Phillips is still critically ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deming are rejoicing over the birth on Friday of a daughter.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell, February 29th.

Mrs. E. R. Reed entertained very delightfully at the tea hour on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Reed was assisted in serving by Mrs. George E. Balmait, Miss Lingley and Miss Elizabeth Ketchum.

Douglas Hayden, Walter Hayden and Charles Hayden gave a very jolly snowshoe tramp and dance on Wednesday evening for their young friends.

Miss Laura Balmait was the hostess of a very enjoyable bridge of eight tables on Friday evening. Miss Balmait was assisted in serving by Mrs. Geo. E. Balmait, Mrs. E. R. Reed, Mrs. E. B. Manzer, Miss Vira McAfee and Miss Louise Manzer. Miss Alexie Corbett won the first prize, Mrs. F. C. Squires the second, and Mrs. P. Foster Thorne, the third.

Mr. B. W. Turnbull, Montreal, was the guest of Dr. W. D. Rankin and Mrs. Rankin last week.

Mr. J. M. Fox of Queensdown, Queens County, is the guest of Mrs. T. A. McLean.

Miss Beatrice Tompkins of Hartland, has returned to her studies at the Vocational School.

Dr. A. Ross Currie has received a certificate of qualification from the Dominion Dental Council of Canada.

Mr. Harry Bayley of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff, has been transferred to Bath, N. B.

Miss Thelma Stokes, R. N., of Newport, Mass., who has been spending several weeks here, returned to Newport on Wednesday.

Mr. W. P. Hartman of Pittsburg, Pa., was here last week in connection with the starting of a potato flour mill at Woodstock this summer.

Mrs. Herbert Porter, Master John Porter and Miss Kathleen Atterton of Bangor, Me., were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Atherton, Connel street.

Mrs. Charles Culbert and son Francis, have returned from pleasant trip to Boston, Worcester, Lowell, Lewiston, South Paris and Bangor, Me.

Rev. John Rees-Jones, who with Mrs. Rees-Jones and son Franklyn, have spent the winter in Moore Jaw, is expected at Centreville soon and will immediately resume his duties.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Barton of Hartland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susie H. to Mr. A. Herman Morrissey, the marriage to take place in a few weeks.

Mr. H. Stevens of Boston, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stevens of Woodstock, and his wife, Mrs. Arthur Stevens are touring Florida, in charge of the Colpitts-Beckman touring party.

A telegram was received here on Sunday announcing the death of Mrs. Thomas Neales, widow of the late Ven. Archdeacon Neales, at the residence of her son in South Lawrence, Mass.

Mrs. Neales is survived by her son, Dr. S. C. Neales and two daughters, Mrs. Douglas Haviland of

"77" FOR COLDS

After the Grip

After the Grip, Influenza, or any serious illness there is nothing better to give tone to the system, and a rapid recovery of strength, than Humphreys' Tonic Tablets.

TONIC TABLETS

Price $1.00, at all Drug Stores or sent by Parcel Post, C. O. D. if your dealer does not keep them.

Humphreys' Homeo, Medicine Co., 156 William Street, New York.

Woodstock, and Mrs. Baker, wife of Judge Baker of Newport, R. I. The remains were brought to Woodstock for interment.

Mr. S. L. Lynott arrived home on Tuesday evening from St. John.

Rev. Frank Baird arrived home on Thursday from Halifax.

Dr. Stanley Neales accompanied the remains of his mother, the late Mrs. Thomas Neales from Lawrence, Mass.

Mr. Chester A. MacDonald, manager of the Royal Bank, has received notification of his transfer to Halifax, and with Mrs. MacDonald will leave in about two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald's removal will be sincerely regretted by a large circle of friends to whom they have endeared themselves.

They were both finished musicians, and were always ready to assist in every good cause with their music. They will be missed in the church where both have taken an active interest, and in the town generally.

Mr. L. A. Moore, successor to the late Mr. F. B. Meagher as school inspector, made his first official visit to Centreville on Thursday last. Mr. Moore had charge of the Superior School there in 1912.

Mr. A. D. Holyoke has sold his handsome residence on Chapel street to Dr. Brown.

Mrs. W. D. Rankin entertained at a snowshoe tramp and dance for her son, John, Thursday evening. Thirty-five young people were present. Mrs. Rankin was assisted by Miss Rankin, Miss Birmingham, Miss Plummer and Miss Hanson.

St. Andrews

St. Andrews, March 11.—Mrs. H. E. Wiley of Grand Falls, has been in town, called here by the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Isaac Johnston.

Mr. R. D. Rigby is home from Montreal.

The Rev. Father McCarthy spent a few days with his father, Mr. Timothy McCarthy this week.

Mr. Edgar Barnes of Moncton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Malloch.

Miss Winifred Everett of Fredericton, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. Stewart Everett.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Hawthorne have returned home.

Mrs. Herbert Everett and Miss Nellie Mowatt were in St. Stephen this week.

Mr. Arthur Turner and Mr. Arthur Dobson have returned from Montreal. Judge Byron was in St. Stephen this week.

Messrs. Harold Glen and Fred McDowell have returned from Montreal.

Mr. Allan MacDonald spent the week-end the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gove. Mr. MacDonald is leaving for the West, where he will engage in fruit raising.

Miss Marie Douglas has returned from St. Stephen.

Mrs. Dorelle Pendleton entertained at a bridge party her daughter, Gladys on Monday afternoon.

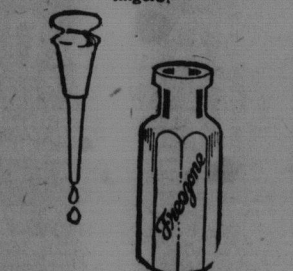

On Wednesday evening the congregation of the Methodist church held a delightful social in Paul's Hall.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rigley entertained at bridge

OUCH! CORNS!
LIFT CORNS OFF

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift that sore, touchy corn off with fingers.

Drops of magic! Apply a little Freestone on that bothersome corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it off with the fingers. No pain at all! Try it! Why wait? Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of Freestone for a few cents, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and calluses, without soreness at all.

for Mr. Allan MacDonald. The prize winners were Mrs. Fred Worrell, Miss Carol Hibbard and Mr. G. J. Marr. Miss Nellie Gardner, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gardner, has returned to Montreal. Mrs. George McCoubrey and son, Donald, have returned from a visit to Boston.

Mr. Oscar Rigby was in Moncton last week to attend the meeting of the new Fishery Inspectors.

Mrs. Hanford Thibault has gone to Portland, Me.

Miss Amelia Kennedy entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Worrell who have been spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. R. D. Rigby, have returned to their own home.

Miss Margery Babbitt has returned from a trip to Halifax and St. John.

Chipman

Chipman, March 11.—Mr. Philip McNeil spent a few days in Moncton last night.

There were no services held in the Presbyterian and Catholic churches on Sunday, owing to the recent storm.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Perley Jewelling on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. King, Miss Vera King and their guest, Mr. Chas. Norving, of St. John, left on Tuesday by C. N. R. via Moncton and St. John for Fredericton where they will attend the opening of the Provincial Legislature.

Mr. Robert McCollum went to Harcourt on Tuesday.

Mr. Stephen Dunn and Mr. Wethers of Harcourt were in town on Wednesday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of the President, Mrs. Adam Armstrong, on Monday evening.

The Social Service Society met in the hall Monday evening when arrangements were made for fire protection in the form of ladders and buckets, which are to be distributed throughout the place. The Women's Institute has offered to purchase the buckets. Plans are also being made for the formation of a band in the near future.

Mrs. Samuel Dale is quite ill; also Mr. James Stevens.

The N. B. Coal and Railway trains were all cancelled on Monday, but on Tuesday morning a train with snow plough left for Norton, reaching there about 3 a.m. Wednesday. On Wednesday the trains commenced running as usual.

Doctors Give Up His Case of Eczema

Wonderful recovery of a very sick man

This is one of the many striking stories we are publishing of what the D. D. D. prescription is accomplishing among Canadian sufferers. Cases from your own neighborhood will be sent on application.

"I was laid up all winter with weeping eczema. I tried every doctor in reach. Both hands, arms and legs to my knees were a sight. I have used several bottles of D. D. D. and am well of the terrible disease. D. D. D. is certainly cheap after the doctors."—Peter Macer, Ft. Burwell, Ont.

The first drop of D. D. D. and the tick is gone. Your money back if the first bottle does not cure you. $1.00 a bottle. Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

D. D. D.
The Lotion for Skin Disease

Mr. Arthur Turner and Mr. Arthur Dobson have returned from Montreal. Judge Byron was in St. Stephen this week.

Messrs. Harold Glen and Fred McDowell have returned from Montreal.

Mr. Allan MacDonald spent the week-end the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gove. Mr. MacDonald is leaving for the West, where he will engage in fruit raising.

Miss Marie Douglas has returned from St. Stephen.

Mrs. Dorelle Pendleton entertained at a bridge party her daughter, Gladys on Monday afternoon.

On Wednesday evening the congregation of the Methodist church held a delightful social in Paul's Hall.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rigley entertained at bridge

Any time of day
BAKER'S COCOA is welcome.

Do not make the mistake of thinking that cocoa is only an occasional drink. It is so valuable a food beverage, so rich in the elements of nutrition, so delicious in flavor, and so wholesome that it should be used regularly and often.

Booklet of Choice Recipes sent free.
WALTER BAKER & CO. LIMITED
ESTABLISHED 1870
MONTREAL, CANADA DORCHESTER, MASS.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED
"BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

The name "Bayer" stamped on tablets positively identifies the only genuine Aspirin—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years and now made in Canada. Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which also sell larger "Bayer" packages. There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer". Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoclonalizers of Berlin, Prussia. It is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross".

KNOX HATS for WOMEN

KNOX Women's Sailors and Sport Hats for Spring have been produced in a splendid variety of straw braids which are exclusively Knox.

They are shown in natural, henna, jade, Copenhagen blue, bluebird blue, orange and other brilliant shades so much in vogue. Many are trimmed with imported jaggaree bands.

D. Magee's Sons, Limited
Fine Hatters
Since 1850
In St. John

cy n with

95 ls offering unusual silk and wool em-

types of trimmings
are dresses of Serge, picotene, All-Wool
als.

qualities to match
e will be found such otham. Holeproof
the look for.

complete unless monize. Our glove this season—what-e, in quality and in on can quite readily men's Shop.

OS., LTD.
REET

Apparel

or the d Miss

SMART SPRING MISSSES

and feast your eyes mediate wear.

by their beauty of richness of color
uch disappointed.

have the finest lot d their prices are

OP"

Head of King St.