

THE WORLD FACING AN OIL SHORTAGE

British Expert Deals With Situation Which Prevails in World Today.

BRITAIN NOT AFTER MONOPOLY OF SUPPLY

Opening up of Mesopotamian Fields Quickest Way to Relieve Present Shortage.

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.)

Special to The Standard.
London, Aug. 14.—In spite of the present increase in output the world faces a general shortage of petroleum. Sir John Cadman, British Oil Controller, who advised the peace conference during the Mesopotamian negotiations, declared in an interview here today.

"There is a world shortage in oil," he said. "The present increased output of 70,000,000 tons compared with the pre-war output of 60,000,000 tons does not equal the present world demand. The signing of the Turkish treaty means a rapid development of the Mesopotamian resources and Turkey's pre-war concessions to Britishers in Mesopotamia and to Americans in Palestine are not likely to be rescinded."

"The organization of industry in Mesopotamia means a stable government which will draw its revenues in oil royalties. Oil will be placed on the world market, but the United States, with its own supplies, will not need it. British companies are endeavoring to secure concessions in various parts of the world without government assistance."

Sir John's reference to pre-war concessions is intended as a reply to the American criticism that Britain was using the fruits of the war to mobilize the world's oil supply.

LARGE FUNERAL

St. George, N. B., Aug. 13.—The funeral of Miss Marion Baldwin, who lost her life by drowning on Tuesday, was held on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended. The day being stormy, the most of the service was held within the church and was conducted very impressively by the Rev. F. J. Le Roy. The floral decorations were many and beautiful, the casket being literally banked with flowers. The pallbearers were James Lawrence, Taylor Craig, Raymond Thorne, Stanley Maxwell, Gilbert Irish and Hugh Meating, school mates of the deceased.

TWO COURTS PLAYED IN TRURO SATURDAY

Truro, N. S., Aug. 14.—The sun tried hard to keep out today, but did not stay long enough to dry the four tennis courts, but put two courts in condition for play. A large gallery was present and enjoyed the games. The Truro players, Halliday and Armstrong, defeating Wiswell and Kirkpatrick, Halifax, sprung a surprise. Halliday played exceptionally well.

The most exciting match was in the ladies' singles, when Miss McHutcheon, South End, Halifax, just managed to defeat Miss E. Name, Wausville, when it seemed almost a hopeless task for the South End representative.

The Wolfville players met with the first setback today, having lost all the events.

Dover, England, Aug. 15.—The American swimmer, Henry Sullivan, who is here to make another attempt to swim across to Calais has been carrying on some long training swims in the Channel. On Sullivan's last attempt to swim across the Channel from Dover in 1913, when he was 21 years of age, he had not to within six miles of the French coast in 16 hours when rough seas which had developed during the swim, made it necessary to abandon the attempt.

Since then Sullivan has carried out some very long swims in America and has beaten Sam Richards, the previous holder of the long distance championship of America in a swim in Massachusetts Bay, in which he covered 34 miles along the United States coast in just over twenty hours swimming.

Sullivan is in the pink of condition, and those who have seen him on his long practice swims in the Channel in the last few days consider his prospects of accomplishing the Dover to Calais swim are excellent. He is an exceedingly powerful swimmer, and of ideal build for long-distance work.

Olympic Games Run On Saturday

Antwerp, Aug. 15.—(By Canadian Associated Press.)—In his heat of the hundred metres at the Olympic games today, Penton ran second to Abrahams of England. The Canadian ran a strong race. The time was eleven seconds. Coates failed to do better than third in his heat which was won in ten and four-fifths seconds.

In the eight hundred metres race, Penton was unplaced. He made a strong effort for five hundred metres and was then beaten off. This was a classic contest and was won by Rudd of South Africa. Hill, of England, was second, and Abby, America, third.

King Albert, accompanied by the Queen and Royal Family, opened the Olympiad on Saturday. The ceremony was elaborate, and the parade of athletes a magnificent one. A crowd of ten thousand spectators greeted their Majesties, rising as a token of respect and loyalty, to receive the rulers. King George, in a message to the delegations of athletes from the British Empire at the Olympiad, expressed his best wishes for their success, expressing himself as knowing that, whether victorious or defeated, they would exercise an inspiring influence in promoting a chivalrous spirit in the competitions, and that their progress would be followed with keenness and interest.

SAYS MEIGHEN GOVT IS USURPING RIGHTS

Having No Knowledge of Consistencies Forgets There is Something Greater Than Law and Order.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—Hon. William Mackenzie King and other Liberals, including Hon. Dr. Bell, delivered addresses at a big Liberal picnic held at Toronto Island Saturday afternoon. "We have in Ottawa, as we had in this province, a government which has undertaken to perpetuate itself in office without any reference whatever as to the wishes of the people, or without permitting any expression of the popular will," said the Liberal leader.

"We have neither a representative nor a responsible government. It is usurping authority, exercising political control, regardless alike of constitutional procedure and the first principles of government in free and self-governing country."

"With the past six weeks the people of Canada have witnessed the formation of a new government with a new Prime Minister. They have heard from the Atlantic to the Pacific an all-name of a political party with a new political platform. Not only one of two things is possible, either we have in office a new government which has made no appeal and has received no approval on the part of the Canadian people, or we have continuing in office a government so completely discredited that it is self-ashamed of its own name and seeks to perpetuate itself in office under countless disguises, aliases and subterfuges. Which alternative we take, there is nothing to justify the usurpation of the rights of the people of Canada in the matter of government by the Meighen administration. "Premier Meighen was welcome to seek a monopoly of the term law and order," he said. "I would tell the new Prime Minister, however, that there is something more necessary than law and order in any country, and that is that upon which law and order itself is founded, namely, constitutionalism and procedure. It is this which Mr. Meighen has overlooked. It is this which he and his ministers who continue in office are prepared not only to ignore, but to defy; it is this which the Liberal party seeks to establish and maintain as it has sought to do in the earliest beginning of its recorded history."
