REV. C. BURNETT

Preaches an Eloquent Sermon on Bereavement and Compensation.

Rev. Christopher Burnett, of Leinster street, Baptist church yesterday morning preached a very eloquent sermon on Bereavement and Compensation. The dis-course was based on Matt. xix.—12: "And they took up the body and buried it and went and told Jesus."

The preacher first dwelt on the fas nation which the strong, rugged character of John the Baptist had for those disciples who followed him. This alle otherwise by the declaration of Christ that "Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist." Magnanimity, however, was a strong feature in the greater than he. Some of them, however, chose to still follow him, and these wer condemned to the bitter sorrow of seein Their affection was mis placed, they failed to appreciate the tem-porary nature of his mission. ple.

In this case, however, there was compensation, as indeed there is in all cases. God never takes away anything but He gives something infinitely more precious in its place. "They went and told Jesus," and transferred their allegiance to Him, thus gaining infinitely more than if their master had still been alive.

want and distress than never to go at all.
If God has given us the faculty of loving He has also given us the opportunity of exercising that faculty; but in the midst of our earthly loves let us remember they are only means to an end, that end the complete and perfect life. Human sorrow nust speak and we have reason to thank. God that this is so. Out of the firey trial hearts come forth strengthened and made purer. "Poets learn in suffering what they teach in song." Abraham was asked to sond Jehranal away Jut in his what they teach in song. Abruham was asked to send Ishmael away, but in his place was left Isaac, the child of promise, and the heart chastened by sorrow will always find ample compensation for Judge Landry's Suggestion.

Judge Landry writes to Le Monitem Acadian of Shediac stating that the or ganizers of the Champlain festival at St ohn propose to erect a memorial to the illustrious French personages, De Montand Champlain. He thinks it would be fitting for the Acadians to join in paying honor to the memory of their ancestor and invites them to forward him their contributions not later than next Monday so that he may forward the amount. Judge Landry ventures to hope that the Acadians will accept his suggestion and have their share in the honorable recognition of the intrepid explorers who came in the name of France to plant the cross in these regions three hundred years ago.

DANIET MULLIN, K. C., FOR COUNTY NOMINATION

Announces Change of Political Faith, and That He Will Seek Liberal Nomination.

Daniel Mullin, K. C., told a Telegraph reporter who interviewed him last even ing that he had changed his politica views, and would be a candidate for the Liberal nomination in St. John county at the next federal election. Mr. Mullin has been a forceful platform speaker and energetic worker for the Conservative party in former campaigns. The New Freeman of Saturday said:—

"Daniel Mullin, K. C., of this city, has nounced to some of his friends that he has become a convert to Liberal principle and will be an aspirant for the federal county of St. John in the coming campaign. The New Freeman has no desire paign. The New Freeman has no desire to anticipate Mr. Mullin's explanation of his change of heart politically. It has no doubt, however, that such an explanation will be made at an early day, and that it will be read with interest by Mr. Mullin's friends and the public generally. With Mr. Mullin mentioned in connection with the county nomination and Richard O'Brien again in the running for the city nomination, it looks as though at least nomination, it looks as though at least one of the two Liberal candidates for the city and county will be a Catholic." Mr. Mullin, when shown this para graph, said it was correct but he had n further statement at present except that in offering for the county nomination he
