

WANT PROBE WHOLESALE PRICES OF PRODUCE IN ST. JOHN MARKETS

The local markets have all been affected much during the last week, many of the changes being due indirectly to the war. On the whole there is nothing noteworthy. In many instances, such as in the case of flour and grain, there has been a slight increase, but then again in other instances, such as lamb and pork, there have been declines.

In the country markets, the seasons supplies are plentiful. The grocers' supplies are normal, prices are in every branch of the markets, excepting flour and grain, the quotations are normal. The wholesale prices yesterday afternoon are as follows:

COUNTRY MARKET table with columns for item and price. Items include New potatoes, Beef, Mutton, Pork, etc.

GRAIN table with columns for item and price. Items include Choice seeded rye, Fancy do, Currants, etc.

CANNED GOODS table with columns for item and price. Items include Mr. Salmon, Salmon, Finnan haddies, etc.

Now is the Time to Plan for the Summer

We will not give a summer vacation this year as a number of students from King's College would be inconvenienced thereby. Then, our summer is so delightfully quiet that St. John is a harbor of refuge for the hot season, and study just as pleasant as at any other time. Students can therefore enter at any time.

DO YOU WANT TO SEE REGIMENTS HERE IN ACTION

Refers to Fact That St. John Sent One-Fourth of Maritime Province Volunteers at Valcartier

SOME REMINISCENCES

Royal Governor General Complimented Artillery at Partridge Island on Battery Drill and Also Spoke Highly of Appearance of 62nd Detachment.

Wednesday, Sept. 2. His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, governor-general, visited St. John for a short, busy time yesterday while en route from Halifax to Ottawa.

The special train arrived just before 10 o'clock and his royal highness left again at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. As commander-in-chief of the Canadian forces he inspected the whole of the arrangements that have in the last few eventful weeks been made for the defence of this port and inquired minutely into the raising of St. John's contribution to the national defensive forces and the no less needful efforts to aid those families whose breadwinners have volunteered for service.

His highness, accompanied by his aide de camp, was met at the railway station by Mayor Friel, Lieut.-Col. B. R. Armstrong, Col. H. H. McLean, Capt. W. A. Harrison, Judge Armstrong and Edward Sears. He expressed to the mayor his appreciation of the progress of the patriotic fund and suggested that the provincial and local funds were amalgamated into one Canadian fund.

He also conversed with others where the regiment were formed with his staff. In a few minutes to ringing cheers he left to be driven round the city to visit respectively the fortifications, the barracks, the hospital, the park, Fort Dufferin and then to Red Head Pier crossing to Partridge Island in the "E. Ryder" motor boat.

At the island his royal highness was received with a royal salute by the assembled artillerymen and the officers of the regiment were presented. The battery of the 47 guns was inspected and the men were then put through a battery drill, all with the exception of the 12 guns which were in the hands of the patriots. They had shown in turning out yesterday morning, in the nature of an official salute.

Everybody with whom his royal highness came in contact was struck by his affability and the utter lack of what is known as "standing" ceremony. This was especially noticed at the island where he was presented, Major W. H. Harrison, in command of the battery, Surgeon-Major S. S. K. L. McDonald, Lieut. R. A. Ring, C. Mackay, H. A. Chandler and F. D. Pidgeon. Captain W. A. Harrison, commanding the regiment, Lieut. Col. Armstrong, being previously presented.

Pleased With Arrangements. After seeing all that was necessary to the completeness of his official inspection, his highness said that he was impressed with the troops that had been made by the officers—high praise indeed for the young men who were so promptly and so promptly in the possibility of attack from the sea was first recalled.

At 1 o'clock the duke mentioned that he had had forty-seven years' military service in the course of which he had been on duty in all parts of the empire, and he gave interesting reminiscences of his previous visit to Canada and did not forget to say that he distinctly recalled his first visit to St. John in 1898. He added that it always gave him pleasure to think of his other visits to the loyal city whose history he seemed to know so well.

He was further informed that the young men were so promptly and so promptly in the possibility of attack from the sea was first recalled. He added that it always gave him pleasure to think of his other visits to the loyal city whose history he seemed to know so well.

CONDENSED NEWS, LOCAL AND GENERAL

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fowler, of 53 Church Ave., Fairville, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. George W. Fowler, of West St. John, the marriage will take place on Sept. 30.

The postmaster of St. John states that the postal division has been instructed to resume the money order business with England at once limited only to amounts below $100 with rates of commission which may be obtained at the office.

The Nineteenth Dominion Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which was to have been held in Winnipeg on September 24-27 next, has been indefinitely postponed by the action of the Dominion Council and the convention committee.

The many friends of Gay L. Belyea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Belyea, of Glawson, will be very glad to learn that his health has so far improved as to enable him to be around again and he and his parents wish to thank those in attendance, also their many friends who were so kind to him during his severe illness.

Friends of Robert Elliott, brakeman with the I. C. R., will regret to learn that he had one of his feet amputated Sunday in the Moncton hospital, while running on a freight train to St. John on Saturday night the foot became entangled in the machinery of a freight car. The accident happened near Ponce Junction. He was taken to Moncton, where it was found necessary to amputate.

No trace has yet been found of the ruffians who marauded the home of Benjamin Howe, a clergyman, on Saturday night, and gagged two children and ransacked the house. The authorities at Fairville have become impatient with the matter and every effort is being made to locate the ruffians. It has been reported that many foreigners are sleeping in the barns about the Managowan Road and it is probable that it was two of these who invaded the peaceful home.

Four lives were nearly wiped out at Glenwood Wednesday morning when the home of John D. Theriault, a blind man, was totally destroyed by fire. The cause of the fire was a gas leak. Mr. Theriault, his wife and little child escaped from the burning building just in time. His only child, a young girl, was severely injured. The fire was caused by a gas leak in the kitchen. The fire was extinguished by the fire department. The damage was estimated at $10,000.

On Thursday evening of last week at the home of Miss M. A. Raymond, Upper Cape (N. B.), a very enjoyable evening was spent by a large number of friends. The evening was spent in a variety of ways. The evening was spent in a variety of ways. The evening was spent in a variety of ways.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Frank McNeil. Norton, Aug. 26—The death of Mrs. Frank McNeil took place at her home here yesterday morning after a short illness. Mrs. McNeil was only ill a few days and everything that medical aid and skillful nursing could do was done. There is left to mourn a husband, two sons, William and Thomas, of Amherst; and three daughters, Miss Annie, at home; Miss Emma, wife of N. Huggard, of Norton; and Miss Mary, Bank (Alta), Mrs. McNeil was a kind and loving wife and mother, and general sympathy goes out to the bereaved.

Miss Mabel Peters. Tuesday, Sept. 1. A pioneer in the playground and other good movements in St. John, Miss Mabel Peters died at Boston yesterday, where she had been ill for a long time. While she was never strong her illness lasted for over a year before it terminated here. Orders were sent out today for funeral and to be held at the residence of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Peters, who conducted the Clifton House for many years, and after her father's death she and her sister, Miss Evelyn Peters, were on the business for some time. Since then they have spent their summers in their beautiful cottage near Lingby, but have usually spent their winters in Detroit, with occasional visits to Florida, California or some other sunny clime. During the last year they have lived in Roxbury (Mass.) where Miss Peters and her sister, Mrs. A. N. Peters, were two other sisters, Mrs. Clara B. Arthur, of Detroit, and Miss Sarah Peters, both of whom have been in Roxbury during the serious illness of Miss Mabel Peters.

The late Miss Peters was the first chairman of the playgrounds committee of the Women's Council of Canada. She had been working at the problem for a long time and it was through her instrumentality with the aid of David Russell, then proprietor of The Telegraph and Times, that the idea first found a solid foothold in St. John. The committee got the school board to give the use of the playgrounds and winter street playgrounds at the beginning and then the movement grew.

Miss Peters took up the work of organizing a Canadian Playground Association, but failing health compelled her to leave that task to other hands. She was also a strong advocate of a women's suffrage, which she had seen carried on with such wonderful success in Detroit and other American cities. She was, moreover, very strongly in favor of the establishment of social centres, and of every movement to promote social welfare. Woman suffrage found in her a strong supporter.

She had a wide circle of friends in this city to whom the news of her death comes with a keen sense of personal loss, and their sympathy goes out to her, and who strengthened her so greatly in her work for the public good. Her death, moreover, is a loss to Canada and the value of the good work she has done for the children will be more and more appreciated as the playgrounds and social centre movements gain in popular favor.

Mrs. W. F. Mahon. Wednesday, Sept. 2. Many friends heard with sincere regret of the death early yesterday of Mrs. Mahon, wife of W. F. Mahon, manager of the Eastern Securities Company. During the summer Mrs. Mahon had been living at Duck Cove. Following the birth a few days ago of an infant, it was seen that Mrs. Mahon's condition was very serious. She died at her home at 2:30 o'clock. She was 62 years of age. She was a devoted wife and mother, and was survived by her husband, four children, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Roop, of New Glasgow, and her two sisters, Miss Pearl Roop at home, and Mrs. T. J. Meagher, Halifax, and three brothers. The funeral will be at 2:30 o'clock at St. Andrew's church, Rev. Gordon Dickie officiating. The body will be taken to the city at midday. During the summer Mrs. Mahon had been living at Duck Cove.
