

Will the British Premier Resign?

A PHOTOGRAPH of the Right Honorable H. H. Asquith, the British Premier. At the present moment there is an undoubted movement against Mr. Asquith within the ranks of the Liberal-Labor party in the English House of Commons. His resignation, owing to differences with his colleagues on Home Rule and Suffrage, is said to be imminent. Mr. Lloyd George and Sir Edward Grey are being talked about as probable candidates for the Premiership.
