

REMNANTS.

"Let us learn French, Goslin. What do you say?" "Cawn't do it, Dolly; 'tisn't English, you know."

"I'm afraid of these ocean greyhounds. I think I'll take one of the old boats." "You prefer to go down with the ship than up with the boiler?"

Dolley. "I am going to the post-office, Miss Susie. Shall I ask for you?" Miss Susie. "Why, Mr. Dolley, this is very sudden! Of course you may if you like; but I don't think you will find papa there."

Among the pains and aches cured with marvellous rapidity by Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are especially subject.

"The maple is my favourite tree," said Mr. Honeymoon. "Yes, George," replied Mrs. H., "it is very beautiful in its warmth of colour in the autumn, but for winter I prefer the fir."

Fagged Out.—None but those who have become fagged out, know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there is nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

"I see," said Cynicus, "that a new manuscript by Wagner has been discovered." "Oh dear!" quoth Witticus; "haven't we enough noise in the world without this added one?"

"Who was the wisest man in the world?" asked the teacher. "Solomon," replied a little girl. "Yes, Solomon was the wisest man. But there is one wiser than Solomon; there is one who knows everything that has been, or is, or ever will be, who knows everything. Who is that?" And the tall, good boy at the head of the class thought a moment and said, "The London Correspondent of a New York paper." He got three blue tickets.

"The editor of the Daily Grabber is a brute." "What's the matter now?" "Why, I sent him a story, and asked him, in case of its return not to fold, but to return it flat; and he wrote that it would be impossible to return such a story as mine in any other way."
