

MESSENGERS.

I.

RESOLVED, That the mode of appointing Messengers, shall be first to determine the number they shall consist of, then each Member naming one, which shall be written down by the Clerk, those who have most voices shall be taken successively, until that the number determined for the message be completed; and if any difficulty should arise by two or more having an equal number of votes, the sense of the House shall be taken as to the preference; but it shall be always understood, that the Member who moves for the Message shall of right be one of the number of Messengers, without being named by the House;
