

such as: $2.50 per week, or forty cents per day. A registry undertakes the placing of immigrants if they desire it. This Society is in communication with the Local Councils of Women in Canada, who kindly undertake to assist immigrants going to other towns in the Dominion. Average number per year passing through the Home is two hundred,—mainly domestic servants, with a small percentage belonging to the upper and lower middle class.

The National Council of Women of Canada has local Immigration Committees attached to many of its Local Councils.

Society of Colonization and Repatriation for the Province of Quebec. Office, 1546 Notre Dame Street, Montreal. In connection with the Department of Colonization and Mines, Province of Quebec. Object: To open up and make known to intending immigrants those districts of the Province most advantageous to settlers; and to encourage the return of Canadians who have emigrated to the manufacturing towns of the United States.

Lake of St. John Repatriation and Colonization Society, Lake of St. John Railway office, St. Andrew Street, Quebec. Subsidized by the Province of Quebec and Dominion Governments. Object: To settle the Lake St. John district. Number of settlers in 1898 was one thousand, three hundred and twenty-two, from other parts of Canada and the United States.

Colonization and Repatriation Society, Edmonton, Alberta. Office, Père Blois, Cathedral Street, Montreal. Object: The settlement of this district by French Canadians drawn from the United States and the Eastern parts of Canada. Number in 1899, six hundred and twenty families; total number, two thousand four hundred and seventy-nine souls.

Scandinavian Immigration. Office and Agent, C. O. Swanson, Waterville, Quebec. Object: To bring Scandinavian settlers to the North-West from the United States and Norway and Sweden. Special attention is given to the immigration of servant girls, who come out on prepaid tickets from Norway and Sweden; the passage money being a loan from their employers.

Andrew's Home, Belmont Park, Montreal. House established by the Bishop of Montreal for the object of assisting and guiding employment of English emigrants. It is managed by a House Committee under the direction of a corporation composed of gentlemen of the city. Home is for both sexes.

Girls' Home of Welcome, Winnipeg, Assiniboine Avenue. Founded by Miss O. L. Fowler, 1897, and supported by her with the help of Government grant and subscriptions. The Home is managed by a Board of Directors, consisting of thirty-six ladies, and aided by an