

An Act to amend the Law respecting the Agricultural Association for Upper Canada.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the law regulating the appointment of the places for holding the meetings and exhibitions of the Agricultural Association for that section of the Province known as Upper Canada, and to substitute other provisions in lieu thereof: Therefore Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows: Preamble.

I. From and after the passing of this Act so much of the Act passed in the twentieth year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter 32, intituled "An Act to repeal a certain Act therein mentioned and make better provision for the encouragement of Agriculture, and also to provide for the promotion of mechanical science," as enacts that the Directors of the Agricultural Association for Upper Canada shall at their annual meeting during the week of the annual exhibition, appoint the place for holding the next meeting and exhibition of the Association, shall be and the same is hereby repealed. Part of sec. 33, of 20 V. c. 32, repealed.

II. From and after the passing of this Act, the Agricultural Association for Upper Canada shall hold its annual fair or exhibition and its annual meetings during the week of the annual exhibition at the places hereinafter named, at the time to be determined and fixed upon by the Directors of the said Association at such annual meetings, that is to say: At the City of Kingston, in the County of Frontenac, in 1859; at the City of London, in the County of Middlesex, in 1860; and at the City of Toronto, in the County of York, in 1861, and so on in consecutive future years at the same cities in the order and turn in which the said cities are respectively hereinbefore named and placed, subject nevertheless to the provisions hereinafter contained. Annual fair of Agricultural Association to be held in rotation in Kingston, Toronto, and London.

III. Each of the said Cities of Kingston, London and Toronto shall, through their local governing bodies or otherwise, provide ample and suitable ground and buildings adapted for the holding of such annual fair or exhibition thereat, to be first approved of by the Directors of the said Agricultural Association; And such provision of ground and buildings by such cities respectively for the said fair or exhibition shall be a condition precedent to the holding of such fair or exhibition thereat; And the omission, neglect or refusal of either of the said cities to make such provision of ground and buildings, shall disentitle the city wherein or whereat such omission, neglect or refusal shall be made to its turn for the holding of the said fair or exhibition thereat, and such fair or exhibition shall not be held thereat, but shall in such case be held at the city having the next turn for the holding of the said fair or exhibition in the order previously mentioned, and the city so losing its turn or order as But such cities must provide suitable accommodation. In default they forfeit their turn.