

Q. Where? A. Around town.

Q. You mean met people on the street? A. Yes.

Q. What would you have been doing if you had not got this job; would you have been at home or on the street? A. I would have been on the street, I suppose, any way.

Q. And I suppose if you had been on the street you would have been talking to these people you met anyway? A. I would have been doing just the same; I would have been talking anyway; if I came down town and stayed long I would have to get in election.

Q. Everybody was talking of it? A. Yes.

Q. Then you think in that way you talked of election five or six days? Did you ever present an account? Did you talk to Mr. Flint about it? A. I never presented any account. I met Mr. Flint one day on the street and asked him about some money, and he said he could not pay me any; he said the account was all exhausted. That was two or three days before the election.

Q. But Mr. Campbell is a rich man, isn't he? A. I do not know anything about Mr. Campbell being rich.

Q. Mr. Flint is rich enough to pay you that, isn't he? A. I do not know how rich he is; I am only telling you what he did not do.

Q. Did you ever get any money at all? A. I never get any money for my work.

Q. Did you get any money at all? A. I did not.

Q. Not during the election? A. I think one time—no, I did not get any money. Reeves got some money to go out into the country; I did not get any.

Q. Reeves did? A. He got some money to pay expenses going out into the country.

Q. Were you by? A. I did not see him get it, but he said he got some to go out in the country; I do not know whether it was his own or whose.

Q. Do you say you did not get any? A. I did not get any.

Q. Was any left with you; dropped in your hand or dropped on the floor. A. Wouldn't I have got it if it had been dropped in my hand? I did not get none; I got the promise.

Q. Did you ever go to Shrewsbury? A. I did.

Q. Did you get any money before you went to Shrewsbury? A. I told you Reeves got some money to go out there.

Q. Did you get any? A. I do not remember getting any.

Q. You have forgotten about that? A. I won't say anything about going to Shrewsbury, because I was not in good memory when I started.

Q. What was the matter when you started? A. I was a little off when I started.

Q. Did you get a little off before you started? A. Yes.

Q. Where did you get the money to get a little off with before you went out? A. I fell in with the opposite side, and they wanted to get me to work for them, and they heated me up.

Q. Did they get you up to about the right temperature? A. They got me a little up, and then I went to Reeves.

Q. And did you and Reeves take anything out with you to get the temperature up out at Shrewsbury? A. I did not see any.

Q. Did you take anything out to stimulate the boys at Shrewsbury? A. No.

Q. Did you get five dollars from Mr. Flint before you started for Shrewsbury? A. I won't say anything about that, because I am not sure; I told you I was in bad circumstances when I got in the buggy; I only remember when I got out there.

Q. Did you find five dollars when you got out there? A. I did not find a cent in my pocket; I had to stand a man off to get something to eat.

Q. What did you take Reeves out for? A. Reeves was the orator; he was going to speak then.
