

ing of this Act, the Court of Appeal shall consist of three Judges, who shall be appointed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Person administering the Government for the time being, and also of all the other Judges of the said Civil Superior and Inferior Courts established by virtue of this Act, and of the Provincial Judge of Three-Rivers.

Authority of the said Court of Appeal.

LIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Judges of the said Court of Appeal, or any three of them, shall exercise all the authority and jurisdiction, and shall, in the Terms which shall be hereby fixed and established, have all the powers with which the Court of Appeal, existing in this Province was vested, and which it was and now is entitled to exercise, by virtue and under the authority of the said Act of the Provincial Parliament, of the 34th year of the Reign of His late Majesty Geo. III. cap. 6.

No Judge to sit in appeal on any case appealed from his own tribunal.

LX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that no Judge of the said Civil Courts, shall in the said Court of Appeal, sit or exercise any Jurisdiction, directly or indirectly, in any cause appealed from the Tribunal of the Civil Superior or Inferior Courts, of which he is a Member.

What Judges shall sit in Appeal.

LXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that at least two of the said Judges, so appointed Members of the Court of Appeal, and one or more of the Judges of each of the said Civil Superior Courts, or the Provincial Judge of Three-Rivers, shall sit in Term in the said Courts of Appeal, and hold the sittings thereof, at the places and in the Terms fixed by this Act, as the same shall be and is hereby regulated.

Judges in Appeal shall also be Judges.

LXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the three Judges to be appointed Members of the said Court of Appeals, shall respectively be Judges of the Courts of Criminal Jurisdiction, concurrently with the Judges of the Civil Courts of the said Districts of Quebec, Montreal and Three-Rivers, respectively.

Court of Appeals to be held alternately in Quebec and Montreal.

LXIII. And whereas serious inconveniences arise from the remoteness of the Court for the District of Montreal, for the place at which the sittings of the Court of Appeal have hitherto been holden; be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Judges of the Court of Appeal shall hold sittings of the said Court alternately in the cities of Quebec and Montreal, in the Terms herein after affixed and established by this Act.
