

the denominations without Universities are represented, the response was quite in harmony with returns from the individual heads.

The result of this plan has been, so far, satisfactory and gratifying. Each interest has been consulted, and no difference of opinion discovered but such as, with a spirit of accommodation (and in view of the substantial benefits to be secured to our general educational interest), may be easily adjusted.

The Commissioners, therefore, suggest the basis of a system of affiliation, chiefly drawn from the replies referred to above, which they believe will satisfy the country generally, and most effectually promote the cause of higher education.

SUGGESTIONS.

SENATE.
