RIVAL TOBY LEADERS.

LORD RANDOLPH CHURCHILL'S SUD- DEN ELEVATION.

Now the Old-Time Tories View II Lord Harrington's Relations to the Liberal Party - A Suggestion for a General Conference on the Whole Question of Home Rule. New York, Aug. 3.-Edmund Yates in a despatch to the World from London says: There has been much heart-burning and friction over the formation of the new government. Lord Salisbury has found himself easily hampered by personal influences, and rival ambitions. Lord Randolph Churchill, who had the old lot to be of great value to the government, has been designated as the chief secretary to the Home Office. The result is a sort of compromise. The noble lord agreed to allow most of the old men to come back again. They on the other hand consented to accept him as their leader in the House of Commons. It was a hard struggle with Sir Michael Hicks-Beach. The right honorable gentleman is not so illu-minated as to the change in his position. He does not suppose for a moment that he has been made Irish chief secretary because that office is just now, next to the premiership, the most important post in the government. He knows quite well that he has been deposed from the leadership in order to make way for Lord Randolph Churchill. It is impossible that he could have been so deposed from the leadership if he had not been deposed from the leadership in order to make way for Lord Randolph Churchill. It is impossible that he could have been so deposed from the leadership if he had not been deposed from the leadership in order to make way for Lord Randolph Churchill.
