Canadian University Press

Drinking As Spectator Sport

LONDON (CUP)—Rowdy behavior and the use of foul and abusive language have moved the Students' council of the University of Western Ontario to declare an all-out offensive against students drinking at university football games.

In a statement issued last week the council said it has instructed the chief of police and members of his staff to refuse to admit to football games chief of police and members of his staff to refuse to admit to football games students carrying beer, liquor, wine or any other alcoholic beverage.

According to the statement, bottles were dropped through the seats on unsuspecting fans below during an Oct. 3 football game in London. Drinks were thrown at and spilled on spectators. Abusive language was common throughout the student section in the stands and a general lack of self-restraint was exhibited by a great many members of the student body.

The council said drunkeness swearing and general rowdyism cannot and

The council said drunkeness, swearing and general rowdyism cannot and will not be tolerated.

In the future, student police will stop students carrying bulging paper bags, brief cases or purses into games. If the student refuses to reveal the contents of the bag, case or purse, admission to the game will be re-

Students caught with an alcoholic beverage will be asked to dispose of it before being admitted to the stands. Students caught drinking in the stands will be arrested by city police and charged under the provincial liquor regulations.

The council said city police can and will conduct personal searches if

Sign Non-Discrimination Pledge

NEW YORK (CUP-CPS)—Sixteen fraternity chapters at Columbia University have signed non-discriminatory practice oaths in accordance with a university regulation. One house had to disaffiliate from its national organization to do so.

The local chapter of Sigma Chi fraternity found it necessary to resign from the Sigma Chi national organization.

The non-discrimination regulation was originally stated as university policy in 1953 to be effective Oct. 1, 1960. The effective date was later postponed to Oct. 1, 1964.

The university said that after Oct. 1 "no fraternity, social organization or other group will be allowed to function on the university campus if it is compelled by its constitution, ritual or government to deny membership to any person because of race, creed, color or national origin."

The university has also required alumni organizations with local chapters and the national organizations of fraternities to join in the nondiscrimination pledges.

Expect French-English Clash

LENNOXVILLE (CUP)—Students at Bishop's University and the University of Sherbrooke will hold a bilingual provincial model parliament Nov. 4 and 5 on the Sherbrooke campus.

Each university will have 25 seats in the model legislature. Elections have been held on both campuses to distribute seats among each of the Communist, Creditiste, Quebec Socialist, Liberal, Rassemblement pour l'Independence de Québec and Union Nationale parties.

A clash is expected between traditionally conservative English-speaking Bishers' and a vigorous conservit clarent from Franch creaking

ing Bishops' and a vigorous separatist element from French-speaking

The two universities will sit opposite one another during the legislature's two-day sitting. Simultaneous translation will be provided.

The first of its kind in Canada, the meeting of the two student groups is expected to draw considerable attention in Quebec. A number of members of the Quebec legislature are scheduled to attend.

Baby Has Booming Welcome At UVIC

VICTORIA (CUP)—Students at the University of Victoria spared neither expense nor effort to welcome the campus's latest arrival last week. A twenty-one gun salute was fired on the campus Oct. 14 to mark the birth of Douglas Howard Killaly Barr, son of Mrs. Olivia Barr, president of the university's students' council.

of the university's students' council.

The salute was fired in front of the students' union building from a brass cannon on loan from the Island Tug and Barge Co. The ancient firing piece had been borrowed a week before in anticipation of the event.

Under a front-page headine "Baby Barr Receives Booming Welcome", The Martlet, student newspaper at the University of Victoria, commented proudly, "This is the first time an AMS president has given birth to a child while in office."

It was a real family event for the university. Decides Heavend Killely.

It was a real family event for the university. Douglas Howard Killaly Barr's father is on the staff of the university library.

Scratch Our Back And We'll . . .

REGINA (CUP)—The Carillon, student newspaper at the University of Saskatchewan, Regina, has called on students to boycott local merchants who refuse to advertise in the paper.

In an editorial last week, the paper said it needs about $2,000 in adverthis year. Advertisements are placed in the paper by should receive student support.

It continued, "There are several businesses in Regina that take student money and refused to advertise, or reinvest. We ask you to boycott them."

The editorial began, "Most students are probably wondering how we managed to get so much advertising for the Carillon . . ."

Group Picture Planned for 16,000

VANCOUVER—A photographer with the Ubyssey, student newspaper at the University of British Columbia, has plans for a group picture to end

Don Hume recently announced he wants to take a group picture UBC's 16,000 students on the university's football field.

Says Hume, "The last group picture of the university was taken in 1923 and its time we had another."

Asked how he would get complete attendance for the picture Hume quipped, "Oh, that's no problem. People like to see themselves in pictures. But, I don't mind if there are a few people missing. Six or seven thousand wouldn't make any difference."

Dr. George Lundberg Criticizes Pseudo-Science In Humanities

The humanities should not attempt to become scientific women of virtue—rather they should retain their more alluring role of creativity, says a visiting social scientist.

Dr. George Lundberg, Professor Emeritus of Sociology, University of Washington, addressed the first meeting of the Humanities Association of Canada and the Philosophical Society of U of A on "The Arts, Humanities and Spiritual Life in a Scientific Age.

Dr. Lundberg criticized what he termed pseudo-scientism in the Arts and Humanities and suggested a re-classification of thought into Art and

The vision of Utopia arises from the experiences of the people and is Foundation. expressed through the media of Art, but it is Science that is qualified to present alternative courses of social action and predict the consequences of a given social policy.

"Literature should not consider itself an authorative spokesman on psychology, sociology, economics and foreign policy, rather concerning itself with the creation of, and conformity to, artistic standards," said Dr. Lundberg.

"It will always be a privilege of the poet to smash the world to bits and rebuild it to his heart's desire.

"But only by scientific evaluation of the artist's vision can we avoid the frustration and neurosis which are the result of vain hopes, unfounded beliefs, fantastic aspirations and the pursuit of mutually exclusive goals. "We live in troubled times, but I Science only, with restricted ranges of thought for each discipline.

"The purpose of Art is to symbolize scientific truth, communicate man's experiences and conjure up a vision of 'the good life'," said Dr.

"We live in troubled times, but I am optimistic about our future, especially if science is applied to human relations," he said.

Dr. Lundberg praised the Arts and Humanities as sources of recreation and lauded the movement in the U.S. to form a National Humanitie

"Humanistic truth is not valid rigid criteria are used to defin truth," he later told The Gateway.

Dr. Lundberg is author of "Foundations of Sociology," "Can Science Save Us?" and other works on socio-

North Region Development Advocated

Vigirous northern development "can completely re-shape Canada's Pacific Northwest," Yukon MP Erik Neilsen told a Progressive Conserva tive student meeting in Dinwoodie Lounge Tuesday.

Mr. Neilsen said world markets will develop if the Canadian government opens access to the wealth of "The world's last storehouse of min-

Without access-roads railways pipelines, etc.—market opportunitie will go elsewhere, and Canada's development will be delayed, he said

Neilsen charged the Liberal gov ernment has critically slowed the pace of northern growth: "The Deif enbaker government put roads, money and faith in the North, but since the Liberals took office there has not been one single northern de velopment project initiated in either the Yukon or the Northwest Terri

The Yukon MP emphasized that this northern real estate belongs to all Canadians, and its vigorous development will benefit everyone, not just those who live North."

The meeting was one of a series to be sponsored this year by the PC student organization.

New SUB Predicted The Best On North American Continent

Upon completion, the newthe final revised facilities list will be Students' Union Building will produced and all planning for the be the best building of its kind on the North American Contin-

These are the words of Frank Noffke, planning consultant for the project.

Mr. Noffke, who is director of student affairs at Long Beach College, Long Beach, California, arrived in Edmonton Friday for meetings with members of the planning commisnew building will be finished.

Referring to the two planning commissions and the Board of Inquiry which have worked on this project, Mr. Noffke said "students should be proud of the thorough and complete examination given the pro-posed new Students' Union Build-

He also added that as college union buildings usually cost $3 million to $6 million, this university is getting an outstanding building while ion. keeping within the middle range Before he leaves sometime today,

SAVING THEIR STRENGTH-Golden Bear rooters spend Saturday afternoon huddled in McMahon Stadium waiting for Saturday night, while their football heroes romp over the Dinosaurs. Behind them sit the UAC's waiting in vain for something to gronk about.