Saved by the pill

(RNR/CUP) — American researchers are looking into claims that the Russians have developed a pill that can cure alcoholism in just 30 days.

The pill was first reported in the Soviet Labor Journal, Trud, which said it had already cured thousands of alcoholics, some as young as 10 years old. The Chief chemist who worked on the pill, calls it "one of the greatest scientific achievements of mankind."

U.S. researchers are more skeptical, although the National Institute on Alcoholism and Alcohol Abuse is not taking it lightly. Said a spokesperson, "We had heard that President Brezhnev had ordered scientists to find a cure for alcoholism, but we haven't heard much more about it."

Lady Godiva

by Ken Lenz

"Show your tits, show your tits," shouted a boisterous crowd — predominately engineers — in Quad last Friday at 3:30.

The event was a topless Lady Godiva riding through the crowd on a horse.

The buxom blond was pursued by a squadron of engineers chanting "We are, we are, we are, we are./We are the engineers./We can, we can, we can, we can./We can drink forty beers./etc."

After a leisurely ride through quad, the gregarious female made a somewhat hurried exit away from the rambunctious crowd.

Escort service

by Mark Roppel

Every year assaults take place on campus, but have no fear, Campus Security is here.

No longer do you have to walk across campus alone late at night in fear for your life, just call 432-5252 and have a friendly Campus Security Officer escort you to your car.

"If people feel they are threatened or there is some danger, we will walk them across campus at night-time," says Gordon Perry, Director of Security.

"If someone is studying late at night they can call us up and say 'I'm studying in Humanities' and we'll send a man around to check on them."

"In extreme cases we will take people home," says Perry, "but we're not a taxi service."

Perry denies that there is any major problem with assaults on campus. "It's just a service...this doesn't only apply to girls."
