Thomas Davis, again spoke.

Brother. You have said in this presence, finding our small number here, & we understand from you, that at any convenient time you will meet us all again, we can then give you a full answer. We do not deny what the paper says.

Brother. You know very well, I was the next to Capt. Grant. Answered by the Dep. Supt. General.

I have repeatedly called you together to hear what you had to say against me, having been informed of what you had said behind my back, but never could effect my intention, once only when Aaron came drunk.

Minutes of a Council held with the Six Nation Indians at Hamilton, at the Head of Lake Ontario on Tuesday the 6th of December 1818 —

After the usual ceremonies, the following questions were put to the Dep. Supt. Gen^l 423.
Are the Five Nations entitled to the Grand River Lands? Or, are the Upper Mohawks exclusively so?
Answer. The questions are easily answered. The Instrument from Sir Frederick Halliburton gives the Lands on
