My dear Miss Gould:

I thank you for the expression of sympathy contained in your letter just received. It will be a pleasure to me to convey to Lady Laurier the kindly feeling you have expressed.

I am sorry I have not a program of the funeral service to send you. If I can secure a copy anywhere, I shall gladly forward it; but it may be difficult at this time, seeing that there is certain to have been so great a demand for them. Meanwhile, I enclose, just as a souvenir of the service, one of the special admission cards issued by the Government.

I am glad that you and Mrs. Sims met at Jacksons Point. She is a very old friend of mind, and was a very close friend of my sister's. I hope your sister is well, and that you also are very well.

With kindest remembrances, Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
