My dear General Clark:

Have just received your telegram this morning. Sincerely hope it will be possible to have Trusteeship arranged as indicated in telegram from Mr. Walkem.

I did not quite understand Mr. Walkem being down on the matter, as I felt you were in charge of it, and advised certain of my colleagues that I thought we should still recognize you alone as representing Vancouver interests herein.

However, from your telegram I gather there is no conflict of interest between yourself and Mr. Walkem, and will be very glad to advance the matter any way I can when down this week. I expect to leave Wednesday evening.

I came to the conclusion last summer, from the facts laid before me by you, that it was undoubtedly in the public interest to take hold of this situation at once.

Yours very truly,

General J. A. Clark,
425 Howe Street,
Vancouver, B. C.
