Sir,

I have to request that careful interest be kept up in the future, of ex-pupils of the industrial institutions, and that you will instruct the Principals of Industrial Schools in British Columbia to furnish, with their annual reports, in future a similar statement, respecting their ex-pupils, to that of the Rev. Mr. Ashton, of the Mechanics Institute, as given on page 114, part I of the Annual Report of this Department, for 1890.

The statement should show what has become of the pupils who may have left the school during the year.

A. W. Vowell Esq

Visiting Ind. Superintendent.

Victoria, B.C.
