

INDEX

- ADDISON, scantiness of dress, 141
 Angelico, Fra, painting by, at Florence, 101
 Anglo-Saxon super-tunic, 76; embroidery, 76; Chronicle, treasures of King Malcolm of Scotland, 100
 BARBERS, introduction of in Rome, 239; charter granted by Henry VIII., 247
 Barber-Surgeons, 247-249
 Beard, formality of Assyrian and Greek, 237; dyeing and powdering, 238; ceremonies and customs relating to, 238; Peter Lombard's dislike of, 245; edict by Henry I. for suppression of, 245; various shapes of, 246; vow of Henry VIII. relating to, 246
 Beaumont and Fletcher, quotation from, 140
 Bloet, Robert, Bishop of Lincoln, mantle presented by to Henry I., 90
 Boadicea, tunic of, 68
 Bodice, rigidity of, 144
 Boots, shoes, and other foot coverings, 281-301
 — short, 288; top, 288, 297, 298; Wellington, 298
 Buckles, 296
 Buskins, 284-286
 Byzantine women, dress of, 72
 CALASH, introduction of, 230
 Cap, flat, of Tudor period, 218-220; fool's, 209
 Carlyle, T., 18, 26, 110
 Charlemagne, dress of, 68; letter to King John of Gascony, 89; mantle of, 90
 Charles I., costume of, 126
 Chaucer, quotations from, 52, 46, 78, 82, 98, 118, 242, 275
 Chopine, 292
 Chlamys, 85
 Cloak, Spanish, 102; Puritan, 102
 Clothes, index as to character, 22; climatic influence on, 22; uses of, 20; their symbolism, 26
 Coif-caps, 258
 Collar, Gurth's, 181
 Collars and cuffs, 181-201
 Cotton MS. caricature of winged devil, 42
 "Couleur Isabella," 188
 Coverley, Sir Roger de, remarks on hooped petticoat, 164
 Cravat, origin of, 182; general use of, 195; art of tying the, 195-201
 Crestine or net-caul, 211
 Crinoletta, 260; "disfigurans," 177; echo of earlier prototype, 178
 Crinoline, rise and fall of, 159-178; invention of, 162
 Crispin, St., 281
 Cross gartering, 114, 286
 Cut-purse, 78
 DICKENS, quotation from "Pickwick," 280
 Doublet and hose, 111-132
 Dowglas, monk of Glastonbury, extravagances of dress of reign of Edward III., 37
 Dress: should be one of the decorative arts, 53; conditions of beautiful, 106; floral patternings of, 146; modes of, 1773, 148; fashionable, 1782, 149
 ELIZABETH, QUEEN, short cloak, 101
 Embroidery, a conspicuous element in Anglo-Saxon dress, 76
 Empire gown, 152
 FABRICS: cloth of gold, 43; silk, 44; ciclatoun, cendal, taffetas, sarce-net, 46; patternings of, 48; satin, 46; velvet, 46; Sicilian brocades, 49-51
 Farthingale, 162; great wheel, 164
 Fashion, genuine woman of, 153
 French Revolution, influence on dress, 150; disappearance of three-cornered hat, 227
 Froissart, Harleian Library, caricature of pig walking upon stilts, 42
 GARTER, mantle of, 52, 94; vestments of, 94; jewel of, 95; embroiderings of, 94; as at present worn, 96
 General survey, 19-57