

is inju-
general
unless
l from
as de-
amount
which Engi-

egree,
he em-
might
ted it.
prece-

334.
from
back-
You
taking
oad."

eer.

could
t grie-
bottom
d-pan
land
em in
s, and
erated
which Engi-
willing
nfined
Engi-
We
laims
blic a-
hem ;
l did,
actors

are induced to believe that this knowledge of theirs has had some influence, when they finally dismissed the said Engineer.

The Contractors having thus confined themselves simply to facts, and supported by the many documents, affidavits, Commissioner's reports, &c. as before recited, leave the reader to draw such conclusions as circumstances warrant, and the Contractors have no doubt to what result a candid investigation will bring them.

FINIS.