

The same Bible Class which dealt with the question, "Is the Bible a Myth?" thought it not inopportune to take up for consideration the question, "Why and How the Lord's Day Should be Observed." The following answers are given, as the result of such enquiry. The members of the class thought it well that the answers should be collated and printed, and accordingly this is done.

Toronto, June, 1896