

placed and kept by them on deposit in such chartered bank agency in this city as they may select and arrange with to that effect, subject only to their joint order, given under the seal of the Encampment, and all dividends or other income accruing therefrom shall be by them duly demanded and received, and the amount forthwith paid over to the Financial Scribe for delivery to the Treasurer.

SEC. 3. All moneys of the Encampment not invested as aforesaid shall be placed by the Treasurer forthwith after he shall have received the same, on deposit, in the name of the Encampment, with one of the bank agencies of this city, to bear such rate of interest as he may be able to obtain thereon from the said bank agency; and his responsibility and that of his securities shall extend, so far as the said moneys are concerned, only to their punctual deposit and to the correctness of his cheques drawn thereon.

SEC. 4. No motion in any way relating to the investment of the funds of the Encampment, as by this section provided for, shall be put to the vote at any meeting, whether regular or special, unless two weeks notice of such motion shall have been given by the mover.

SEC. 5. All motions for the appropriation of moneys belonging to this Encampment other than for the general purposes of the Encampment, and for the relief of members of distant Encampments, shall only be put at a regular meeting of this Encampment, and then only after one month's notice of such motion shall have been given by the mover, and written or printed notices of such motion have been sent to each member of the Encampment.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1. A motion to alter, amend, suspend or annul these By-laws, or any part of them, shall be submitted in writing only at a regular session, and
