REALTY AGENT MAY NOT SERVE BUYER AS WELL AS VENDOR

VOL. XXIX No. 220

Not Solely an Intermediary Like the Broker, Says Mr. Justice Lafontaine, in Dismissing Suit of E. R. Gareau.

That an agent cannot at the one and the same time connection with one and the same deal, serve two days. sters, was made manifest in a case just dealt with by Mr. Justice Lafontaine. The suit centered about a realty deal, on the completion of which E. Rosario Gareau, claimed a commission from Zoel S. Aubut.

Gareau was the agent of one, Lacroix, who had lots Gareau was the agent sell. Gareau advertised the lots in the press, and sell. coming across the ad. had an interview with reau, with the result that the lots were bought by him. Garcau then claimed a commission from Aubus the deal, but the latter denied plaintiff's right to isk for such commission, as said defendant, Gareau. dvertising the lots and in arranging for the deal, was acting as the agent and in the interests of Laoix alone, and had absolutely no mandate from deant to act for him. Mr. Justice Lafontaine, scanning the proof, upheld this contention.

contract of representation and one who had a mandate from one party, could not accept another from nother party whose interests were contrary or directly opposed to the first. It was an error to nat the real estate agent charged to buy or to sell ty was, like the broker, only an intermediary
