

By request—that beautiful SERVICE OF SACRED SONG, the "PILGRIM'S PROGRESS," rendered by a choir of sixty, selected from CHARLES STREET SABBATH SCHOOL ON TUESDAY evening last, will be repeated at CHARLES STREET CHURCH ON THURSDAY evening, Feb. 24th, to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Tick: 15 cents or two for 25.

RECEIPTS for WESLEYAN will be acknowledged next week.

THE RICHMOND Y. M. C. A. is to have a course of Lectures. The first to be delivered on Tuesday evening, next, by J. T. Mellish, Esq., M.A.—SUBJECT: "My visit to Scotland."

NOTES. Our readers will miss the Condensed News this week; but we have made up for it by variety from all sources. It will be resumed next week.

MONEY is needed in the Book Room. If any spare Dollars are staring our friends in the face, pleading for employment, we can turn them to good account.

A SUBSCRIBER writes us, that he would like a little time to pay his Subscription, as times are hard, and asks if we will oblige him? Of course we will. It is a pleasure to oblige Gentlemen or Ladies who wish to see a Paper honestly treated. The trouble with a few is that they take the paper, and let someone else feel anxious.

The Santa Barbara "Press" of the 19th ult., contains an unanswerable sermon against Spiritualism, preached on the preceding Sunday evening, in the Methodist Church in that place, by Rev. Stephen Bowers. He asks: "What grand opportunity Spiritualism has had to prove itself true. Capt. Hall, of the Polar was dead a year before the world knew it; why did the spirits keep the fact from their servants? Why don't they inform us of the wherabouts of the murderer of Nathan, the banker? Where is Charley Ross? Why not reveal one thing that would be of some advantage to the world? In all the years of its existence it has not done it." But just here Spiritualism appears most ridiculous. While pretending to be able to tell almost anything, not a single fact known only to the dead has ever been brought to light through its agency! Mr. Bowers says: "Its first communication proved to be a falsehood. It was to the effect that a peddler had been murdered, and buried in a cellar at Hydesville. This proving false, it was then revealed that he had been murdered by a certain man and thrown into the river. The man indicated was arrested and put in jail, and the river dredged; but while this process was going forward the peddler made his appearance, alive and well."

Teachers of Music who have given Clarke's New Method for the Piano Forte an examination, unhesitatingly pronounce it the best. The work is meeting with a deservedly large sale. Sent by mail for $3.75. Published by Lee & Walker, Philadelphia.

EXTRACT.—For persons suffering from exhaustion of the powers of the brain and nervous system, from long continued study or teaching, or in those cases of exhaustion from which so many young men suffer, I know of no better medicine for restoration to health than Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. Edmund Clay, M. D. Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

OBITUARY.

ERNEST H. CHAMBERS, AGED 21 YEARS. The quiet village of Avondale was suddenly plunged in sorrow on Saturday last by the intelligence of the death of Ernest H., the beloved son of Capt. Nelson Chambers of this place. This melancholy event took place at Huanillos on the 9th of December last. He was a kind, dutiful son, and his parents looked to him with much hopefulness. This is a heavy stroke, but they feel their chief comfort is in knowing that although thus snatched away there is good hope in his death. His evenings' on board ship were generally spent in reading his Bible with his father, and singing the songs taught in the Sabbath school.

VEGETABLE PULMONARY PALSAM.

THIS standard remedy for coughs and colds and other pulmonary and bronchial ailments, was first introduced to the public in 1826 and ever since then, a period of half a century it has maintained and increased its reputation. In the meantime, probably thousands of the so-called cough remedies, under every conceivable name, have appeared, been purged, had their day and most have sunk into the oblivion from which they never should have emerged to cheat invalids with false hopes of cure.

1. On many cases of cough it exerts an almost specific remedial influence, and the cases are very few which it quite fails to benefit. Long standing cases and those of aged persons are almost always greatly relieved.

2. Its action is speedy and pleasant; its taste is not disagreeable; and its dose is small. The last point is sure to be appreciated by the invalid.

3. It has received medical sanction, and has been frequently prescribed by some of our leading physicians.
