CHRISTIANITY BETWEEN SUNDAYS

By Rev. GEORGE HODGES, D.D., Calvary Church, Pittsburg. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

"It is piquant and fresh. The sentences are clear, short and striking, and are turned off with such grace and ease that the reader is captivated. And in point of matter the sermons are admirable."—The Golden Rule.

"Characterized by a vigorous simplicity of diction."—N. Y. Observer.

Aids to the Devout Study of Criticism.

By T. K. CHEYNE, D.D. 8vo, cloth, $2.50.

Dr. Cheyne is at home with this subject and shows once more he is an earnest, industrious and conscientious critic.

Early Bibles of America. A book for Collectors.

By the Rev. JOHN WRIGHT, D.D. Illustrated with fac-similes of title pages. 12mo, cloth, $1.50 net. Large paper edition, $2.00 net.

"To the student, as to the general reader, this comprehensive and concise information will be welcome."—The Christian Advocate.

The Voice from Sinai; or, the Eternal Basis of the Moral Law. Sermons on the Ten Commandments.

By FREDERICK W. FARRAR, D.D. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

"He has produced a work which will take a foremost place among the best expositions of the moral law. The literary style, like that of all his writings, is most fascinating. The eloquence is not that of words only, but also that of thought."—Utica Herald.

Musings on Mother, Home and Heaven.

By GEO. EDWARD JELF, M.A. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

"A remarkable book. Remarkable for its faithful and touching delineation of a mother's character—of her tender and sacred relation to the earthly home and the manifold and blessed influence which she exerts upon those who go forth from under her care. It cannot fail to awaken deep emotions in all who read it. There is not a home on earth where its teachings would not be a hallowed influence, and an inspiration toward a higher and better life."—The Parish Visitor.

on uniform lessons. They will not be dated, and thus can be used at any time and in any year. The Manuals are of a convenient size to be carried in the pocket. The treatment of the lessons is different from the usual question and answer plan, and aims to encourage in the pupils the habit of reading the Scriptures and comparing Scripture with Scripture. These Manuals will be published in Quarterly parts and will be supplied at 5 cents per copy in any number. Specimen copies free.

A WORD AS TO SUNDAY-SCHOOL INSTRUCTION.

We have mailed to every clergyman of the Church sample copies of the Quarterlies edited by the Rev. GEORGE W. SHINN, D.D. These Lessons have for sixteen years followed the uniform scheme of the Joint Committees, whose lessons are now studied regularly by over two hundred thousand children of the Church, and have the hearty endorsement of nearly every Bishop and Rector. The theme for lessons from Advent, 1892, to Trinity, 1893, is on "The King and His Kingdom," with instructions and catechisms on the Catechism. It is one of the most interesting series of lessons yet devised by the Committee. The three publications edited by Dr. Shinn are as follows:

The Picture Lessons (for Primary and Junior). 12 cents per year.

The Lesson Book (for Middle and Senior Grades). 12 cents per year.

The Teachers' Assistant. 25 cents per year. These quarterlies have a larger circulation than all other similar publications combined, and having been issued under the one editor and one publisher for sixteen years, subscribers can depend upon a ripe and experienced editorship, and promptness in publication and delivery.

BIBLE CLASS MANUALS.

With the view of meeting the growing demand for something different from the ordinary lesson paper and instruction books, to be used by Chapters of St. Andrew's Brotherhood and advanced classes in schools, the undersigned will issue a series of Manuals upon an entirely different plan, but following the topics of the Joint Committee on uniform lessons. They will not be dated, and thus can be used at any time and in any year. The Manuals are of a convenient size to be carried in the pocket. The treatment of the lessons is different from the usual question and answer plan, and aims to encourage in the pupils the habit of reading the Scriptures and comparing Scripture with Scripture. These Manuals will be published in Quarterly parts and will be supplied at 5 cents per copy in any number. Specimen copies free.

NEW BOOKS ON THE CHURCH.

The Episcopal Church Its Doctrine, its Ministry, its Discipline, its Worship and its Sacraments. By Rev. GEO. HODGES, D.D., Rector of Calvary Church, Pittsburg. 12mo, paper, 25 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

A brochure that is brilliant, pungent, and full of good sense. It has many features uncommon to tracts of its kind. The argument is well and happily put, and it is altogether uncommonly thorough-going and satisfactory.

A Manual of Information Concerning the Episcopal Church.

By Rev. GEORGE W. SHINN, D.D. 18mo, boards, 25 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

All of Dr. Shinn's manuals are popular in style and exceedingly useful in parish work. This new one will be found exceptionally useful. It is a veritable pocket cyclopedia respecting the history, doctrine and usages of the Church.

Tenth Edition now ready.

The Prayer-Book Reason Why.

A Book of Questions and Answers on the Doctrines, Usages, and History of the Church as suggested by the Liturgy. For Parochial and Sunday-school uses. By Rev. NELSON R. BOSS, M.A. 16mo, paper covers, 20 cents; boards, 30 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

To thousands of adult members of the Church, if the book could only be placed in their hands, it would be a valuable help to clear and sound thinking on the very important subjects of which it treats.—Bishop Littlejohn.
