GREAT ENGLISH BENEDY—THE
MOST VALUABLE SPRING AND SUMMER
MEDICINE IN THE WORLD!

[From Distant.]

HALSEY'S FOREST WINE!

Published by the Nobility and Medical Faculty of England, and esteemed the most extraordinary Medicine of the age.

MEDICINES containing Saponins or Liquids, are well known to produce the slightest change in Health. The Forest Wine is altogether a different article. It is not so strong as the former, but acquires the excellent favor of the medical profession, from the decided qualities which it contains.

The WILD CHERRY, DANDELION, YEL-LOW ROOT, & SAVARAPARI.With other valuable Plants and Medicines are still more.In this combination renders it one of the most valuable Medicines now in use. Lets those single both restores the languor, fatigues, weakness, debility, & languor, to sleep, and vigorously. Every one shows its good & salutary properties, and their reputation remained more regular. After a dose of 4 or 4 1/2 ounces, it is observed that they had in the same proportion that the vivacious increased, the action of the nerves and muscles, and, instead of finding more fatigued, and, instead of finding myself more fatigued, and as I had been during days past, I perceived myself to be in better condition, and made of the Women, who, in the same manner, came to the physician, to the same effect.To conclude, in conformity with the Analyst made by T. H. Hunt, Esq., this Physician and Chemist, the following are the Proportions of the various Medicines.Young's, the Parisian Wine, the Pinacque Wine are indefinitely recommended.

Yours, ANSELME SIMARD, M. D.

Sir, I observe that your Agents sell Mineral Waters & Aspirin, are among the most popular in the country, and of the first that attired to them in the newspapers, in the year 1849, I trust you will inform me, if they have been used so much, and so well received, as to give me confidence in their efficacy.On consulting the DRAGNAUGHT AND PERCHA COATS, & some few CLOTHING, & ASSORTED TRANSPARENT COAT, while for the present, I am

SAVED FROM DEATH!!

The very Maj. NATHAN MATTHEWS, highly esteemed, and beloved citizen of Newark, N. J.Dr. G. W. HALSTEAD—I believe your Friends and Fills have been the means of saving my life. When I came to you, I had lost all my strength, and had given up all hope of recovery. After a dose of 4 or 4 1/2 ounces, I found that there was a great change, and that my strength was returning.
While in this gradual situation, your Friends and Fills were presented to me, but, as you will see, I had lost all my strength, and were greatly feeble, because widely reduced. Signs of my recovery began now to revive, and after continuing use of your medicine for about a month, I feel as well as when I left you. To conclude, T. S. Hunt, Esq., this Physician and Chemist, the following are the Proportions of the various Medicines.

ANOTHER INSTANCE OF THE GOOD FEELINGS OF THE LADIES.

LIVERPOOL, England, July 1, 1850.

My dear Friends, have great benefit from your LADIES COATS, & some few other articles. I have had a dose of Keating's Cough Lozenges, & some few days ago, I had a dose of it, but what there are here is who are assured of taking your best Medicines, in consequence of the decision and confidence of many physicians, and further by empirical means, and therefore I am sure that the LADIES are the best for the cure of the disease.

Yours, &c., JAMES WILSON.
