LIEUT. BECKER TO GET A NEW TRIAL.

The Convictions of the Four Gunmen were all Affirmed. WILL BE EXECUTED. But the Police Officer will be Tried Again.

Albany, N.Y., Mar. 2.—The conviction of Charles Becker, a former New York Police Lieutenant, for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, has been reversed, and the convictions of the four gunmen for the same crime affirmed by the Court of Appeals.

Justice Goff, the court held, erred in many of his rulings at Becker's trial and appeared to be prejudicial in his attitude toward the defendant. The reversal was based solely on these grounds.

All of the seven members of the court except Judge Werner, who acted as presiding judge when the appeal was argued, concurred in the prevailing Becker opinion, which was written by Judge Hiscock. In a dissenting opinion Judge Werner said that the main contentions of the State had been amply proven to warrant conviction.

The much mooted question as to the status of Sam Schepps, whom the jury in the Becker case decided was not an accomplice to the crime, still is unsettled. The prevailing opinion merely said that there was doubt in the minds of some of the court as to the propriety of excluding Schepps as an accomplice.

The decision in the case of the four gunmen "Gyp the Blood," "Whitey" Lewis, "Dago" Frank, and Lefty Louie, was unanimous. They had averred that the evidence against them was insufficient to warrant conviction, and also that the court had erred in handling their cases, but these contentions were held by the court to be groundless.

GIRL IS FORBIDDEN TO SEE TANGO PICTURES

Because of the Ban Placed on the Dance by the Church. SHE VISITED THE SHOW Mother Met Her Returning and Beat Her to Death.

Rome, Mar. 2.—The movies and the tango were indirectly responsible for the murder of a girl by her mother at Tivoli.

The mother had forbidden her 17-year-old daughter from seeing a film of the tango because of the ban placed on the dance by the Roman Catholic Church. The daughter defied the mother and attended the show.

Her mother met the girl when she was returning home and beat her furiously with a stick. The girl's skull was injured and her collarbone broken and she died two days afterwards.

The mother has been arrested.

Polyglot Press Of New York.

There is no city that produces news papers in so many different languages as New York. The publication of a Chinese daily paper reminds us of this fact. For, in addition to thirty-nine daily papers that are published in English, there are ten Italian papers, seven German, seven Jewish, three Greek, three Hungarian, two French, two Bohemian, two Croatian, and one Spanish, Serbian, and Syrian papers.

In addition, there are a great number of foreign weekly papers.

This list gives some idea of the various races that make up New York, and from it we gather that the Italian and German immigrants are most numerous.

A WOMAN'S HAT LED TO FATAL FIGHT.

Husband Upbraided Her For Making Extravagant Purchase. WIFE APPEALED TO BROTHER. Latter Challenged Husband and was Killed at First Shot.

Budapest, Mar. 2.—A woman's hat led to a fatal duel here. A lawyer named Babocsay quarrelled with his wife about a new hat she had purchased. The wife appealed to her brother, an aviator named Lieut. Madin, to take her part.

The brother did so, and was insulted by Babocsay. The lieutenant thereupon challenged Babocsay to fight a duel, and the lawyer accepted. Babocsay is not a duelist, but happened to hit his brother-in-law, and killed him at the first shot.

Twice since the duel Mme. Babocsay tried to commit suicide, but was prevented in the nick of time. She is completely demented and has now been placed in an asylum.

LIVING IN 1870.

Some men are only a habit. New ideas hurt some minds as new shoes hurt some feet. Why suggest to these folk that modern methods would help them? The most conservative office man cannot fail to grasp the benefit of reforming a faulty filing outfit by such an economical and effective system as is afforded by the Globe-Wernicke Co. in the safeguard equipment, introduced by them to the trade. Mr. Percie Johnson has this method ready for demonstration in his office and will be glad to send you the catalogue "Filing and Finding" that will be sure to interest you.

SPREAD OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE

The English language is the richest, most virile and most powerful of all the languages now to be found among men. The men who conceived and made good this nation were Englishmen, and of course they spoke the only language they knew anything about, the language of their ancestors, the English language. The great Dr. Dollinger said of this language that "to it is assigned in the coming age the intellectual supremacy that in ancient times belonged to the Greeks and afterwards to the Romans." In 1700 English was the language of 9,000,000 people. To-day it is the language of 175,000,000, and by the end of the century it will be the language of 800,000,000 people.
