TELLARAPHIC SUMMAYR.

Big Bear has ed from Big Bear has Mountain Feniteritary Trains are now run and on time on the Canadian Pacific Western Division. The new double of Kar Canadian Pacific in Montreal is to be erected on Windsor street, near Dominion Square.

Candidatés for positions as Dominion and Surveyors will be examined in Ottawa and Surveyors will be examined in Ottawa by the Board of Examiners on the 15th

The Quarterly Board of the Elm Street Methodist Church, Toronto, decided last night to invite Rev. D. G. Sutherland, of ondon, to be pastor of the church

The annual meeting of St. George's Society, Toronto, was held last night, nost satisfactory reports were pre-Mr. George Beardmore was elected

James Peatt, an employee in Scoone's auction room, Winnipeg, was found dead yesterday morning near Manitoba College. He had been drinking, and lay down and was frozen to death.

Was frozen to death. Wm. Kingston, an employee of the bepartment of Agriculture, at Ottawa, died on Thursday, aged 78 years. The deceased was for several years one of the staff of professors at Victoria College.

All talk as to the possible successor o ol. Miller as commandant of the Queen' Own Rifles is set at rest by the announce ment that Major D. H. Allan has been pro moted to the vacancy.

Thomas Newman, living on the fifth concession of Romney, felled a tree yester-day, which in falling struck a limb of another tree standing by, and the limb fell on his head, killing him instantly.

Mr. Acton Burrows has resigned the position of Deputy Minister of Agricultur He will, however, stil taryship of the Board of Manitoba. took him to the depot. There he opened the bag. In it were two old newspapers and about a pound of hard coal. retain the secretaryship of the Board of Agriculture. It is said Captain Clarke will Agriculture. It is said Capta be appointed to the vacancy.

The survey of the route for the Central ntario Railway to North Bay has been completed, and the surveying party have returned to Belleville. They report the land fairly level and well timbered. Canadian capitalists will apply at the next session of Parliament for power to build a line of railway, about 35 miles long, from Goderich to Wingham or some other point which will give the Canadian Pacific n cutlet on Lake Huron. York County Council at yesterday' meeting took the initiative towards the abolition of toll-gates by deciding that after the expiration of the present leases four of them shall not be renewed, and that the remainder shall only be leased for one year. It is understood that the application of certain regiments of Canadian voluntee for permission to go to England next summer to take part in the Queen's Jubilee cel-bration, has been referred to the Gov-ernment by the Militia Department, and that no decision has been made yet.

Lieut.-Colonel Henry R. Smith, Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Com-mons, has been appointed by the Governor-General as honorary A. D. C. on his staff. This is the first appointment of a Canalian officer to the position. 'Lieut.-Colone Smith is universally popular and will pro an invaluable aide

The Pope has decided to recall the pre-sent Nuncio at Paris and to appoint in his place Mgr. Ferrata, who is now Nuncio at Bungache

The Marchioness of Londonderry held a drawing room last evening in Dublin, whe 1,300 persons were presented to her. The attendance was the best seen at the Vice-

for 10 years

eph Chamberlain writes to a Unionist: ¹ ¹ believe that the time is favorable for an unprejudiced consideration of the Irish question, and I hope no personal feeling will interfere with such insideration.

consideration." A service in Lambeth Palace Chapel, London, to commediorate the consecration therein in F787 of the first Bishop, of the Episcopal Church in America was held sesterday. Among those who took part were the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishops of London and Winchester, and Bishops of London and Winchester, and Bishops Potter and Lyman, of America. The Dean of Windsor performed the service. Instead of a sermon, Bishop Potter delivered an eloquent address, eketching the history of the Church in America and its connection with the English Church. The Archbishop of Canterbury celebrated the communion. Minister Phelps and many other Americans Canterbury celebrated the communion Minister Phelps and many other American Included by the police. In reading McCoy out of the church Father Lawler denounced him and the marriage, and ttended the service.

Sophia Congdon, of Willimantic, Conn.

$127 FOR A POUND OF COAL. Canadian Farmer's Adventure With New York Confidence Men.

A despatch from New York says: A tall The Terrible ountryman carrying a gripsack went into hief Drummond's office, in the Post-office Chief Drummond's office, in the Fost-office building, yesterday, and said that he had come here from Canada, and that he had been swindled by a young man from whom he had bought counterfeit money and who had palmed off on him a bag containing

"I'm sorry he didn't give the counter-feits to you," Chief Drummond answered consolingly, "for then I might have locked you up for having them in your possession." At this the Canadian hurried away with-out one talling his name. It was learned SIXTY PEOPLE BURNED TO DEATH Heartrending Incidents and Horrible Death

e gave the man $127.

at this the Canadian hurried away with out even telling his name. It was learned ater, however, that he is Henry C. Hill whose home is near Stratford, Ontario A last Saturday night's White River Junction (Vt.) despatch says: At half-past 2 o'clock this morning the Montreal night express on the Vermont Central Rail-road went through the bridge at Wood-stock, some five miles north of here, and fell 70 feet into the White River, causing a terrible loss of life, the disaster being the most annulling that has commend in the lanada. In summer he is a farmer, bu Canada. In summer he is a farmer, but sells jewellery in the winter. Not long ago he got the regulation letter from the "green goods" man offering to let him have some beautiful counterfeits for almost nothing. He answered it, and got a second letter directing him to come to this city and put up at the International Hotel. He came on the West Shore road. At the ferry a man dressed as a policeman asked him where he wanted to go, and when he terrible loss of life, the disaster being the most appalling that has occurred in the history of New England, and rivalling the famous disaster at Ashtabula, which it resembled in many respects. The train consisted of an engine, baggage, postal and smoker, two ordinary passenger coaches, and two Pullman sleepers, the "Pilgrim" and "St. Albans." The train, with the exception of the last Pullman, left Boston at 7 p. m., its usual time, arriving him where he wanted to go, and when he said the International Hotel took him into a side street and pointed out a saloon, over which was a lodging house. Hill was met in the office by two men, who took from him the two letters, and put him in a cab, which took the whole methe Boston at 7 p. m., its usual time, arriving here at 12.30 a. m., when it was connected which took the whole party to another saloon. There Hill thought he saw one of them put $500 in greenbacks into a small hand satchel. When it was handed to him with the sleeper "St. Albans" from Springfield, containing passengers from New York and the West who had come to Springfield via the Boston & Albany, and the New York, New Haven & Hartford he gave the man $127. "The best thing you can do," the "green goods" man said, " is to drive to the depot and get off for home, and don't open the bag until you get there." They bundled Hill into the cab, which full new fork, new fayin a future road. The Boston sleeper "Pilgrim " was full, as the night was cold, and those passengers who could afford it preferred a bed with covers to the chilly passenger cars. The Springfield sleeper was about three-quarters full, and the whole train ontained some NINETY TO ONE HUNDRED PASSENGERS. A YOUNG MONARCH'S 5,000 SLAVES In the passenger coaches were most of

DASHED TO DEATH

Vermont.

Scenes.

Railway Holocaust

In the passenger coaches were most of the local passengers, while in the sleepers were the through people for St. Albans and Montreal, most of the latter being enroute for the coming ice carnival. The train reached here on time, but was delayed waiting for the Springfield car, and it was exactly 2.10 a. m. when, it pulled out of the depot. It had to pass a freight at South Royalton, twenty miles north of here, and so ran ahead of schedule speed to make up for lost time. At what is north of here, and so ran ahead of schedule speed to make up for lost time. At what is known as Woodstock, an old abandoned station, the high bridge, a Howe deck structure some 200 feet long by 50 to 70 high; was reached, and here by some means the cars left the track while on the bridge. All that portion of the train behind the postal car plunged into the ziver, two cars breaking through the income deingenetically. breaking through the ice and being partially submerged. The forward part of the train passed over in safety. The forward coach left the rails first and dragged the others after it, the shock of striking the bare 'tis after it, the shock of striking the bare ties breaking the coupling between the postal and the coach. George Parker, a rear brakeman, was going from one Pullman to another, when he heard a great crash and the cars trembled. He jumped to the step, and giving a glance ahead saw the coach going down through the bridge. Without waiting he learned off striking the frozen and giving a glance ahead saw the coach going down through the bridge. Without waiting he leaped off, striking the frozen snow and rolling 30 feet down an embank-ment. He was terribly bruised, for he says the train was going 40 miles an hour. One side of his face was badly torn and his right arm broken. When he got to his feet he says met his eyes. The cars all mixed up, som on their tops and others on their sides were lying on the ice, while a bright flame was leaping up from different parts of the wreck. The cries were terrible, but not minding them, and knowing that the engine could not recross the shattered bridge, he ran to a farm-house some rods removed from the bridge and kicking at the removed from the orange and around the door awoke the owner, Thomas Pingree, and told of the accident. Pingree got him a team and, wounded as he was, Parker facts in a case which illustrates the rigid rules of the Catholic Church concerning divorced pcople have been made public here. Michael McCoy, a grocer of this city, has been excommunicated from St. Patrick's Catholic Church owing to his marriage with a Mice Emire Large the Patrick's Catholic Church owing to his marriage with a Miss Emma Long after having secured a divorce from his wife. Miss Long lived next door to the McCoy family, and Michael became infatuated with her, so much so that he is accused by his neighbors of having mistreated his wife in order to compel her to secure a legal separation from him. On the night of his nuptials with Miss Long his neighbors and his former church associates surrounded former church associates surrounded he house and threatened him with violence a team and, wounded as he was, Parker drove at breakneck speed through the dark all the way here and gave the alarm. The station agent found Dr. Ira Chase, of Bristol, at the Depot Hotel, and with a number of citizens with linen and brandy started in a box car for the scene. Before they had left the depot a bright light in the northern sky too plainly told the horrible scene that was being enacted at the fatal bridge. The relief party reached the scene one hour and fifteen minutes after the accident, and by that time the bridge was one mass of flames, and nothing was left of the cars but glowing frames and redhot iron braces Stretched out upon the ice were a number of scalp wound; J. C. Hutchinson, Mont-gomery, Vt., spinal column injured; Joseph E. Jacques, Fitchburg, Mass., contusion over the eyes, and hips and legs bruised; Henry Mott, a hay dealer from New York State; Andrew A. Wheeler, Fitchburg, Mass., cut over the eyes and face burned; Mrs. John Graham, Medford, Mass., ankle sprained and spinal column injured; James Kiley, Burke, N. Y., left arm fractured and head bruised; C. M. Hosmer, Lowell, Mass., legs. and body bruised; Joseph Maig-net, Three Rivers, Que., body wounds. THE SLIGHTLY INMERD

THE SLIGHTLY INJURED

THE SLIGHTLY INJURED are: George Parker, brakeman, St. Albans; Fred. A. Fisher and, Howard F. Smith, Gloucester, Mass.; Miss Maria Sadler, Ormstown, Que.; Polly Aril, Chicopee, Mass.; Herbert Cushing, Middleboro', Mass.; Andrew A. Wheeler, Fitchburg, Mass.; Napoleon Rosseau, of Les Trappenrs Club, Montreal; Edward Bangs, brake-man, West Lebanon; S. S. Westcott, Dardie West, Coches Wills, Inversio man, West Lebanon; S. S. Westcott, Burlington, Vt.; Cephas Mills, Iroquois, Ont.; Charles Kastner, Boston, contusions of back and limbs, and Lee, of Burlington, Vt.

PERISHED IN THE FLAMES Besides those who died it is known that the following perished in the flames: The two colored porters of the sleepers; W. E. Adams, of St. Albans, Vt.; Euclid Chagnon, of Manchester; Charles W. Sandford, Boston ; Drummer Bousiequet, of Attawagan Conn., with his sister, his wife Mary and of the two children; Conductor Burgess, of the sleeping car, and B. Atkinson, of Lowell, Mass. All the bodies recovered were burned beyond recognition, and it was past mid-day before they could be identified. Sc far what are supposed to be the remains of forty individuals have been brought here nd laid out. The debris of the burne and laid out. The debris of the burned cars is full of pieces of bones and charred flesh, which is being carefully picked out and assorted. The two forward cars have broken through the ice, and it is supposed that some of those there were drowned and have been washed out by the water. If so, they may be carried down the Connecticut River under the ice and never recovered. The death of the man Bousiequet was PARTICULARLY SAD.

He had gone to the rear of the car to get a drink, when the crash came, and was separated from his family who, being in the gaze on the horrible picture of his brothen being consumed under his eyes and within separated from his family who, being in the forward part of the car, must have been killed instantly. He was pinned down by a seat, but managed to get his head through a window, when he shrieked at the top of his voice, "Mary," for fully five minutes. Mr. Lee, one of the survivors, tried to rescue him, but he only asked where his wife was. Before any answer could be given the fire reached him, and crying out "dead," he deliberately threw himself on the reach of his hands Type out where, the deliberately three whiself on the floor into the fire. Those who were able to speak from experience say that it was simply an inferno. Frank Winch, a New York drummer, who was on the postal and escaped, was seen en route for Boston this site prove the out to see the out to see the out to see the out to be set to or the burning wreck was "Hell." During for the burning wreck was "Hell." During the day great crowds of people arrived on the scene, coming from all sections by trains and sleighs. They all were willing to help and many were put into service. All who were on the sleepers agreed that those in the upper berths perished by the beds closing up when the cars turned over and holding the occupants fast. Mr. Charles Hosmer, of Lowell, had his friend and travelling companion burned to death before his eyes by being in an upper berth. When the two entered the car at Lowell they travel up for the berth and Mr. Hos. When the two entered the car at Lowell they tossed up for the berth and Mr. Hos-mer won the lower one. Mr. Hosmer says that out of five ladies in his car only one escaped.

LOOKING FOR THE DEAD.

Early this afternoon Walter H. Wes Early this afternoon Walter H. Wesson and his son, accompanied by Rev. Dr. Eustis and an' undertaker, reached the scene looking for young Wesson's body. Miss Lovell insisted, ill as she was, in help-ing. They at length decided that a terribly disfigured mass of flesh, minus head or arms, was that of the unfortunate man and took it away. Miss Nancy Dunbar, of Somerville, is supposed to have been lost in the accident. She was in the sleeper. Her brother is looking for her remains. Ed. Brocklebank, a brakeman, is also among the dead. The accident and burning of the bridge have blocked all traffic, and trains have to be run around by the way of Well River. The ice on the White River is three feet thick, which prevented the rescuers getting water when the wreck took fire, and the flames had it all their own way. There is a great difference of opinio as to the cause of the disaster, many con tending that it is many con tending that it was a broken rail, and others that it was due to the iron framework of the bridge contracting by the intense cold, the temperature bei

Co., of this city, who had a miraculous es-cape. She was in the last Pullman car near the front end. She was awakened from sleep by a crashing sound, and found her-self pinned down and almost suffocated. She had presence of mind enough to husband her strength until she heard parties out-side. She then freed one arm and by knock-ing with her hand, on which were her income ing with her hand, on which were her rings she attracted attention from outsiders, who chopped a hole through the roof of the car. When they attempted to move her she found abe was bermend in, and with more her she found When they attempted to move her she found she was hemmed in, and with remarkable presence of mind she asked them for a pen-knife, with which she cut her clothes free from around her body and was pulled out. She was wrapped in a blanket and laid in the snow, whence she was removed three times to get her out of reach of the flames. She says the whole four cars were burned we inside of twenty minutes and when she times to get her out of reach of the flames. She says the whole four cars were burned up inside of twenty minutes, and when she was already in flames. She was saturated with coal oil from a lamp that had burst. She was removed to a farm house.

PLACED AMONG DEAD AND DVING

She says the scene was an indescribably pathetic one. A poor little boy, who could not speak a word of English, was alone, having lost both father and mother. Mrs. Bryden says most of the people seemed to be French Canadians coming to Bryden says most of the people seemed to be French Canadians coming to friends in this city. The whole thing happened so quickly that there was no time to do anything, although one old farmer living near did some heroic work. Mrs. Bryden herself seems to have but slight injuries to her back. The ther-mometer was at zero when she lay on the ice with nothing but a Pullman blanket around her, and she burrowed a hole in the show and keet herself fairly comfortable. while Mrs. Bryden lay on the floor several persons died in the room, among whom was Mr. Wesson, of Smith & Wesson. Mrs. Bryden's pluck and presence of mind saved her life.

CONSUMED BEFORE HIS BROTHER'S EYES. CONSUMED BEFORE HIS BROTHER S FYES. Mr. Mills arrived here to-day. He was travelling with his brother, who was in the next berth. After getting out he worked away frantically to rescue his brother, and was just getting him out when the flames rushed on him, and he had to retreat and gaze on the horrible picture of his brother fowels and Spectacles Help to Carry Contagion. To mention a few of the modes of con-agion I have to speak, in the first place, of towels, especially of that abominable institution known as the roller towel, which has been used so much in asylums, where forty, fifty or more children use the same towel, whether they have granular lids or not. True, in a great many of these cases the existence of granular lide was or known but employed. lids was not known, but even in cases in which the existence of the disease was evi-dent, the ignorance or carelessness of the persons in charge has allowed transp by means of towels to be one of the more frequent sources of contagion. As a carrier of contagion the horse-fly plays an important role, especially in case of youn children who are not able to protect them Attracted by the sweetish odor of the dis-charge, it will settle upon the eyes of children affected with the disease, especially infants, and carry the con-tagion in its claws to the other eye or the eyes of sleeping infants. Spectacles may be the carrier of the con-tagion. I remember the case of a young selves against the visits of this little an Spectacles may be the carrier of the con-tagion. I remember the case of a young lady who could not explain satisfactorily how she came to have granular lids. Upon her return to school she mentioned that she had granular lids, where upon one of her olassmates said : "Why that is the disease which I have been suffer from the last six months." This classmate was near-sighted and used glasses. My patient was also near-sighted, but had not used glasses, and whenever she wanted to see was also near-signted, but had not used glasses, and whenever she wanted to see anything at a distance she was in the habit of borrowing the spectacles of her friend, and there is no doubt.in my mind that this was the means of carrying the poison from the classmate's eye to my patient's eye. Children with granular lids are very apt to rub the eyes, because the secretion, as it begins to dry on the edge of the lids, causes begins to dry on the edge of the has, causes an irritating, itching sensation. They will now play with other children, and from their hands transfer the poison to the hands of the other children, and these latter, rubbing their eyes, contract the disease. Handling objects which have been used by persons with granular lids may be the means of carrying the contagion. A young lady who olunteered to tea dren with granular lids that had been isolated from other children in a certain institution was warned to be extremely careful with regard to using handkerchiefs, towels, or anything belong-ing to the children. She was well aware of the danger and promised to be very care-ful. She handled nothing whatever, she said, that belonged to the children, left her cloaks outside, and in the class room kept away from the children a distance of fiv r six feet. But upon examination of her eyes 14 days after she had taken office, it was found that she began to suffer from or six feet. was found that she began to suffer from granular lids. Upon inquiry I found that she had been taking the copybooks and slates of the children for correction, and in all probability she got the poison from the slates and books on her hands and hen conveyed it to her eves. A teacher of nother section in the same institution wa more careful; she simply walked into the class room, did not touch anything belongclass room, did not touch anything belong-ing to the children, and for two or three onths during the duration of the epidemi she was not affected by the disease. The atmosphere had evidently not been the carrier of the contagion in the first case. Medical and Surgical Reporter.

HOW EVE DISEASES SPREAD.

A NOVEL INDICATOR. Married Men Can Avoid Dom Storn

The latest genius who has applied for a patent is the man who has invented what is known as "the married man's indica-tor." It is a wonderful sensitive arrangeis known as "the married man's indica-tor." It is a wonderful sensitive arrange-ment of the ordinary thermometer in con-venient pocket size, and is graded to a scale of cabalistic marks which show the exact state of the domestic atmosphere at any hour of the night. The hard-worked and belated husband arrives home, say, about midnight. He takes out the indicator, thrusts it in the keyhole and lets it remain there a few seconds. Pulling it out quickly, thrusts it in the kakes out the indicator, thrusts it in the keyhole and lets it remain there a few seconds. Pulling it out quickly, he scans the dial by the moonlight's fitful gloaming. If it marks "S. A." (sound asleep) the poor husband pulls off his boots noiselessly, uses the night key with bated breath, gives the door a quick pull to keep it from creaking, steals trembling to bed, and when his dear wife wakes up about two seconds afterward and wants to know how long he has been home he is sound asleep. If the indicator scores "A. A. C., B. D. N. K. W. T." (awake, awful cross, but does not know what time it is), the husband puts a few more grains of coffee in his mouth, opens the door boldly and walks in with a slam-bang air, hits his boots inten-tionally against the chair, wants fo know tionally against the chair, wants to know why the devil chairs don't keep out of the why the devil chairs don't keep out of the way, gets desperately mad on general prin-ciples, scares his wife clean out of her crossness and curtain lectures, refuses to let her get up and strike a match-never did like a light at night anyhow, remarks gruffly in response to a timid query that "it's about twenty minutes after 10," and then turns into bed with such an apprecent then turns into bed with such an apparent wful state of mind that the wife of his osom is afraid to speak to him, at which e is very sad, of course. There are other marks on the indicator.

There are other marks on the indicator, showing just where it will do to play the "lodge dodge," or the "sick friend," or, "been standing on the corner talking to so and so for more than an hour," or "Gene-ral or honorable this or that, from you know where, was in town, and had to away in the 2 o'clock train, and he insis away in the 2 o'clock train, and ne insisted so strongly that the whole party stayed up to see him off, although he was a great bore, and we only did it through courtesy." But the most awful of all cabalistic signs is the one on the top, about two marks above boiling point. When the weary husband comes home

When the weary nussand comes nome about 4 a. m. from the direction of the butcher shop, with a roll of meat held high in the air, so that every one who passes cannot fail to see it, and sticks the indi-cator in the keyhole, he is almost too weak to down it out. With heli on end he wead to draw it out. With hair on end he reads it by the faint light streaming in upon him from over the eastern hills, and sweat breaks out upon his noble brow in drops as large as walnuts as he sees the bub of the indicator jammed smack up against "R. H. S. W. F. Y. I. T. D." (red hot, still waiting for you inside the door). The in-ventor of the instrument says that when a man has this terrible misfortune to over-tale him to fold the misfortune to overake him he feels there is nothing left life worth living for. He slings the meat into the yard and braces himself for the coming fray, but says nothing, for nothing can be said. Be e ever so gifted a liar his accomplishing he ever so gitted a har his accomplishment is more than valueless. No dodge, no sick friend, no talking on the corner, no sitting up to see the general off, no swearing that he will never do it again—in fact, nothing will prevail. It is an indefensible case.

will prevail. It is an indefensible case. He is caught. Even the ghastly gayety with which two hours previously he had said to the boys he guessed he would see it out—" might as well be killed for a sheep as a lamb"—had all vanished. The indi-cator having told him the exact state of things, he knows exactly what to do, and that is nothing but get in bed at once and wrap the drapery of his couch about him, pull the pillow over his cars and wait for pull the pillow over his ears and wait fo pull the pillow over his ears and wait for his wife's breath to give out. It's awful while it lasts, but it has its use in relieving the unfortunate husband of his great load of anxiety. The indicator is a great inven-tion.—London Exchange.

Some Odd Things in Life.

A Brooklyn burglar was recently captured by the police while attired in three suits of clothes and two overcoats. Alphonso King, of Buffalo, is preparin to walk across the Niagara River I falls on a pair of "winged shoes."

A 10-year-old boy living near Marion nd., has been rendered insane, it is said. by the use of tobacco, he having taken the weed when under 5 years of age.

In a history of thimbles it is related that the cult of the thimble reached its height when, in 1586, a firm of rich Nurnberg tailors presented a magnificent silver prese a magnificent silver drinking-vessel in the shape of a thimble to the tailors' guild of that town. Sometime the top of the thimble was ornamented with a hollow lid filled with perfume. An ingenious smuggling system has just been discovered in San Francisco. Opium, which the incoming Chinese steamers

THEIR MNDA How a Would-be Robber Found a Friend in His Intended Victim. John Reamer, of the firm of Kern &

Reamer, poultry dealers, is a strong, active, and wiry young man, whose right hand was amputated at the wrist, writes a Toledo COvraemedicat at the wrist, writes a Toledo was amputated at the writes, writes a 2000 correspondent of the St. Louis Globe Demo-vat. In place of the original member he carries a heavy iron hand, which stood him carries a heavy iron hand, which stood him in good turn recently, preventing his robbery and probably murder, and, as the sequel shows, causing him to turn philan-thropist under peculiar circumstances. There has been but a brief reference to the matter in the Toledo dailies, which have neglected an opportunity to give particulars of a very interesting case. The night was dark as Mr. Reamer walked down Cherry street on his way to his home in West Toledo, with a consider-able sum of money on his person. When he reached a lonely spot in the woods near the Mrtopolitan Park he was halted by a man who demanded his money or his life. Mr. Reamer instinctively dropped a small basket which he carried on his left arm, so as to make resistance, when the highway. as to make resistance, when the highway man drew a knife and thrust it at him man drew a knife and thrust it at this, grazing his body and passing it under the arm and partly through his intervening clothes. Mr. Reamer struck his assailant a terrific blow in the face with his iron hand, felling him to the ground, and followed this up by pounding his prostrate antagonist with all his and followed this up by pounding his prostrate antagonist with all his might and main, until he finally groaned and cried for mercy. Presently he left the man leaning up against a fence, and with the remark, "I wasn't fixed for you this the next time L will be " started out time, but next time I will be," started out on the road. But before he had gone far he felt the blood trickling down his left side, and the thought that after all he might be seriously if not fatally wounded so enraged him that he started back to

might be seriously if not fatally wounded so enraged him that he started back to further wreak his vengeance on the would-be-road agent. The latter saw him coming and, making a desperate effort, succeeded in getting away into the woods and dis-appearing in the darkness. Some days after the encounter Mr Reamer chanced to hear through a physician about a man being very sick in the vicinity of Tremainsville. His suspicions being aroused, he went to see the man, and found him dangerously ill in a hovel. Two persons lay on a wretched couch—a man and wife—both very low, the attendant told him. As soon as the sick man saw Mr. Reamer he tried at first to hide his features from him by turning away, but his visitor thought he recognized the face of the patient, swollen, disfigured and black-and-blue as it was. The sick man, with great emotion, said: "I see you know me—I will have to confess" He then and black-and-blue as it was. The sick man, with great emotion, said: "I see you know me—I will have to confess." He then told Mr. Reamer how he had seen him dis-play a roll of bills on the eventful night, and that he heard him tell someone that he and that he heard him tell someonethat he could not get back from a certain place until late that night. He added: "My wife was sick, my children hungry, and I out of money, and I determined to take this chance of making a raise. How I have been punished, God knows. You certainly will punished, God knows. You certainly will not inform on me, will you?" Mr. Reamer was deeply affected. Subse-quent inquiries convinced him that the man was driven to the deed of desperation by poverty and sickness, and he decided to help him. From intended prosecutor he turned friend, and is now helping the miscrable family daily iserable family daily

A BISHOP IN HIS COFFIN.

After Lying Dead 700 Years, an Old Churchman's Body is Found.

After Lying Dead 700 Years, an Old Churchman's Body is Found. An interesting account is given in some German papers of the discovery a little-time ago, in the Cathedral of Worms, of the body of a mediaval bishop, who has been identified as Corrad de Sternberg, who died in 1154, being a contemporary of our Henry II.; and of the great German Emperor, Frederick Barbarossa, says the London Times. During the progress of some restora-tions which are being carried out in the cathedral, a stone coffin was found deep ander the floor of the choir. It was closely cemented, and on its being opened in the presence of a special commission the body was found in perfect preservation, and arrayed in vestments denoting episcopal rank. On the head is a low miter, the low border of which is formed by a band of thick gold embroidery, of a lozenge-shaped pattern; the fillets of the miter are composed of the same sort of work, with deep, heavy gold fringes. The peaks of the miter have their edges adorned by similar embroidery. The alb and amice are made of thin line, very openly woven. The chasuble, of the old bell shape, is made of very thick twilled silk, and falls in long folds around the body. (forming a sort made of very thick twilled silk, and falls in long folds are and the body, forming a sort long folds around the body, forming a sor of pad round the neck. In the usual way a richly embroidered band runs perpendicu larly down the front; it has no special design. The edges of the chasuble are simply hemmed. The tunics under the chasuble are also of silk. The upper one is a thight of the second second second second second second the second of lighter texture ; it shows a pattern con sisting of lozenges connected by rays. under tunic shows a very fine interlacing pattern of geometrical design. The stole is pattern of geometrical design. The stole is worn crossed on the breast, the lower por-tions being broader than the upper. Its ornamentation is a pattern of scale-like design, which shows alternately figures of lions and birds set in a pattern of fine-traced leaves. The girdle is of silk, but only long, untwisted strands remain. The feet and leave up the line are are are feet and legs up to the knees are covered with silk stockings, which seem to be of a fine network texture. Three broad paral-leled bands and as many smaller ones are wound round in spiral fashion and fasten them. The shoes, which comes up above the ankle and have two deep slits, are made of gold brocade; they are ornamented by ircular embroideries, sewed on. The soles f the shoes are of leather. The pastoral staff of the shoes are of leather. The pastoral staff lies in the arms, from the right shoulder to the left foot. It is of soft wood, ending with a ferule and spike: at top there is a spherical ball and hammered bronze, out of which issues a crook of soft wood, which ends in a bronze lily set in a socket. At the feet stands the chalice, also of soft wood, very finely turned; the cup is a hem-isphere, and on it rests the patina.

individuals is alone called upon to fill posts which everywhere else are usually given to men. Their business is to keep sharp watch over the Emperor's harem, an institution of no great service for the-time being, since His Majesty is yet a minor, but in view of its becoming service able some day, and to pay meet homage to the rites of religion. The Empress selects the young beauties admitted into this Chin.

the young beauties admitted into this Chin ese seraglio, and she has to renew the ne some every three years. These young girls are recruited among the families of the Mandchou officers, who look upon the honor of having the prettiest of their daughters in the Imperial harem as a means of attaining high rank. These young ladies make their debut at the age of 14, and remain inside the harem until they are 25 years old. If in the interval they give birth to offersing them have indet here birth to offspring the by rights become 'daughters of the imperial blood,'' and remain bound with the fate of the child, or he may become a "son of heaven," and sovereign heir to 10,000 kingdoms. If, on the other hand, the young lady reaches the age of 25 without yielding increase to the imperial household, she is sent home to her llustrious parents, and honestly weds a nandarin of the place. NO MORE USE FOR HIM. Disorced Catholic Excommunicated i Louisville, Kentucky. A Louisville, Ky., despatch says :

A FEARFUL SIGHT

The Host Which Guards the Harem the Chinese Emperor. I have been told that there are about I have been told that there are about 5,000 slaves in the Chinese Emperor's Pal-ace, a figure which it is, of course, very difficult to control, says the Pekin corres-pondent of a Paris paper. The number, however, must be large, since that class of individuals is alone called upon to fill posts which everywhere else are usually diven

During a tremendous hail stor Oliver, a small town fifteen miles w Terre Haute, Ind., on Tuesday afternoon, an aerolite descended and exploded near the ground. The earth was torn, windows shattered and a large tree demolished The explosion was heard six miles away.

The railroad companies having head marters in Milwaukee have recently mad quarters in sinvankee have recently made out, by request of the .War Department, a list of their rolling stock and statement of their ability to convey troops to points on The statements were sent to the War Department.

Treasurer Jordan admitted to-day that Secretary Manning is to be President, and that he (Mr. Jordan) is to be Vice-President, of the Western'. National Bank of the city of New York. The resignations of both officials are in the hands of the President, and will be accepted in due time.

Charles Ogden Ferris, alias Sir Roge Tichborne, convicted in the United State Tichborne, convicted in the United States. Circait Court recently for frandulently ob-taining a pension from the Government upon a faise claim that he had been wounded in the army, was yesterday sen-tenced to five years in Erie penitentiary. Mrs. Mark Donaldson, of Lymea, N.H

Mrs. Mark Donaldson, of Lymea, N.H., aged 'holut 50 years, was shot and instantly killed at her home yesterday by Stephen Lamphir, who immediately after killed himself with the same weapon. Lamphir was about 60 years old, and had boarded with the Donaldsons for two years. He had been considered slightly fusane, and this is the only known cause for his act.

oticed ? American Wife-The man drinks liquo A Canadian poet recently fought at his meals. At the other end. English Wife -- I wish duel, but, an avenging Nemesis being tem-porarily overworked, it was the other fellow that got hurt.

A doctor at Ignace, Mich., is, also ar rtaker undertaker. Musair or Moxinotox, widow of the celebrated Count Charles Tristan de Man-thoion, who accompanied the first Napo-leon to St. Helena, has just died at Bordeaux She was '85 years old. Her husband helped Napoleon in most of his bold strokes of business, such as that of the Eighteenth Brumaire and the return from Elba. The Comte de Montholon also aided the late Emperor Louis Napoleon in his famous Boilogue escapade, and was imhis famous Boilogne escapade, and was im-prisoned with him at Ham. M. de Mon-tholon had received about $400,000 from prisoned with him at Ham. M de Mon-tholon had received about $400,000 from the first Napoleon, who made him a Count and an Imperial Chamberlain after the battle, of Wagram; but most of this sum was wasted in bad speculations after the Count had retired into private life. THE France publishes some statistics relative to the number of Germans in Paris. It exers there are 16.000 in the circ among table. The third piece is a fragment relative to the number of Germans in Paris. It says there are 45.000 in the city, among whom there are between 9.000 and 10.000 belonging to the German army. The German colony there is, the France aftirms. composed chiefly of young men. On the other hand, according to this journal, there are not more than 1.900 Frenchmen in the whole German empire.

and 7 months. Her age is vouched for by his services though he were upon his dying her family and the records are said to prove it.

		recognize McCoy.
vest o
rnoor	n,	WHAT ALEXANDER	MAY	BECOME

Prince Alexander's Different Prospectiv

Positions of Honor and Trust cannot be described. The wounded, most A London cable says: Owing to the friendly reception accorded to Prince Alexander, late of Bulgaria, while here, of whom were suffering from horrible burns, were writhing and twisting upon their beds, while shriek after shriek would be given out by what seemed but a bundle of half burned rags. Every few moments some tortured victim, while being assisted up the bank, would break away from the helpers and rush screaming, half-naked, across the frozen snow. One young nome of the continental papers contain the vildest rumors. One journal announce is impending appointment by the Queen s viceroy of Her Majesty's Provinces of the Oriental Indies, while another that Prince Alexander is to be appointed that Prince Alexander by the English hat Prince Alexander is to be appointed iovernor-General of Egypt by the English iovernment in the place of the Khedive, cho is to be deposed. A well-known Mos-ow paper informs Russia that the Bat-enberg Prince will shortly become the voman, scarcely 18, who lives near Quebee and who was said by a trainman to have entered the train wearing a magnificent fur robe to keep her warm, stood crying on the ice with nothing on but a pair of stockings emberg Prince will shortly become the usband of Queen Victoria, while several erman papers predict his union with Her and a chemise. She refused to budge when assistance was offered, and she had to be carried by force to Pingree's house. The smoking ruins of the burnt cars gave forth a sickening

Majesty's widowed daughter-in-law, the Duchess of Albany. The real fact is that Trince Alexander has gone south for the enefit of his health, which has suffered ODOR OF BURNT FLESH oth physically and mentally by the events which made the small band of helpers ill and faint. It was a remarkable feature of of the last six months. He contemplated visit to the United States in the autumn the accident that not one of the passenger the accident that not one of the passengers who went over the bridge escaped scot free. All were injured, and, to show how fast the flames spread, only those survive who were got out of the cars ten minutes after the first crash came. Most of the fortunate ones were taken from the sleepers, all those on the two forward cars, with few excep-tions, having been killed outright at the outset by the heavy sleepers falling upon them and grinding them to pieces. The rescued number 30 all told, and deducting American Wife (in palace car)-I supposed that nice looking couple at the other them and grinding them to pieces. The rescued number 30 all told, and deduction this from the low estimated number of 90 on the train, leaves 60 victims who met a

THOSE WHO SURVIVE

we could make the acquaintance of the two at the further end of the carriage. Ireadful death. m sure they are English. English Husband—No, they are Ameri THE FATALLY WOUNDED were: F. L. Wesson, of Springfield, son of the famous arms manufacturer; E. F. Dillon, of Dartmouth College; Henry

• How did you ascertain?" • • The man drinks between meals. • aha World. Tewkesbury, of Randolph, Vermont, and

Unvarying Trade-Marks.

ad of the car were Americans, but I se ow they are English. American Husband-What have yo

A Stuttgart inventor has perfected a nachine for deadening the sound of piano. He will rank high among th wreck. philanthropists of this generati are: J. H. Cushing, of Middleboro', Mass, back injured ; A L Abouef, of Lynn, Mass, In clearing away behind the Temple legs broken ; Miss Lovell, of Montreal, siste in law to Mr. Wesson, back injured and dangerously ill through nervous prostra-tion; O. Boisvert, Angelina, Que., internally injured : L. Combremont, New York, his and back bruised; Mitchel Lacaillaide Lawrence, Mass., head, chest and back; Moses Paulet, Quebec, right leg broken and head wounded; Mrs. W. S. Bryden, Mon-treal, contusions on back; George Gennett, BLACKENED, BLEEDING FIGURES 20° below zero when the disaster occurred. A broken rail some little distance back from the bridge is given as the real cause of the train leaving the track, and it is supposed that the jarring of the wheels over the bridge ties started the under sup-ports and caused them to give way. Of those collected twenty-five are minus head or limbs and it is chosed increasible covered up with what could be snatched from the broken cars, and, assisted by some dozen country people, the trainmen were carrying the wounded to the house of Pinree and the postal car, which was bein extemporized as a hospital. Your corre-spondent was one of the relief party, and can say that the sickening, terrible sights head or limbs, and it is almost impossible to distinguish the sexes. The company to distinguish the sexes. The company will open the baggage in the baggage car and learn, if possible, the names of those who were on the train. The wounded are being brought to this place as rapidly a being brought to this place as rapidly as possible, and are doing quite well. Some ten of those who are under physicians' hands are not expected to live. The rail-road people are thankful that the accident did not occur to night, which, being Satur-day, the traffic would have been twice as heavy. The railway does not consider itself accountable for the disaster but itsel teavy. The railway does not consider the disaster, but its officials are very uneasy over the probable magnitude of the damage suits growing out of the affair, especially as the financial affairs of the company are not the best just at present.

HORRIBLE INCIDENT OF THE WRECK.

One of the first passengers to escap from the burning wreck was Joseph Maig net, a French-Canadian boy. He was vibe of the observation of the second He was dozing in his seat when he felt th car shiver. This motion was kept up for a few seconds and then the car dashed over the bridge upon the ice. By hard work the boy succeeded in getting out of one of the vindows. He at once went in search his father, and discovered him by the light of the burning wreck just above him, pinned down by a part of the top of the car, which had fallen directly across his chest and legs. The old man was as firmly held as i in a vise Joseph was the only one scaped from the car, as he says.

HE RUSHED TO HIS FATHER'S ASSISTANCE. and spoke words of encouragement to him. The father was very cool, and told his son to help him out as soon as possible. The boy seized his father, and struggled with all his strength to extricate him, but in Smith Sturtevant, the conductor, who was taken from a burning car half roasted. All these died soon after being taken from he vain. The flames were approaching rapidly "Joseph," said the father, " run and get a either. "Pull me out then," said the father, "even if you have to break my legs to do it.' o do it." Joseph tugged away with all his night, but could not stir his father an inch With wonderful coolness the father then gave himself up to his fate. 2: It's no use, my boy," he said, "there is no hope for me. Remember the dying words of your father: Always be a good boy. Farewell, my son, I will meet you in the other world." The flames were then so close that the boy could remain no longer. He left his father and got out of reach of the flames, and watched his father slowly burn to death in the flaming during the flaming debris. MRS. BRYDEN'S ACCOUNT OF HER ESCAPE.

Syracuse, N. Y., head cut open and back wounded; Horace Juean, East Pepperell, Mass., face, back and legs bruised; Anna Murphy, 116 Prince street, Boston, right cheek badly cut open and back bruised; Mrs. Charles Kaster, Boston, contusion on A Montreal despatch says Your corres-pondent has just seen Mrs. W. S. Bryden, wife of Mr. Bryden, of Pillow, Hersey & Mrs. Charles Kaster, Boston, contusion on back and limbs; Katy Kahl, Boston, severe

Frightful Ravages of Cholera

Though the cholera has subsided at Buenos Ayres, it would seem to be making frightful havoc in the interior provinces of the River Plate country, though for some reason or other the cable has said little or reason or other the cable has said little or tothing about it. The Buenos Ayres Standard of the 17th ult. has a column of lespatches on the subject, of which the fol lowing is an example : MENDOZA, Friday 17.—Half the houses of the city are vacant, the immates having perished miserably or fled under the infuence of the prevalent panic. So numer ous are the cases, fresh and fatal, that even the most zealous activity on the Govern ment cannot tender the necessary assist ance, medical or otherwise, to the victims The inhabitants of the suburban district and environs have been decimated Af and environs have been decimated. All frighted, the survivors fly over the plains, abandoning children and wives. Dead children, dead women, dead men, arefound scattered over the plains and fields, over taken in their flights by the terrible ent, the munic

Why Baby is so Small.

"Why don't baby grow faster, love?" asked a young father of the partner of his, joys. "It seems to me she isn't nearly so joys. "It seems to me she isn't nearly so big as Smith's baby, and that is two months ounger.

Doctor says Birdie is a fine, healthy child, and what more do, you want ?" "That may be, but she is small. Do you give her enough to eat ?" "That's it, Harry ! We feed her on condensed milk. Of course she'd be small -Chicago Ledger.

Bill Arp says: "More than one-fifth of our white population in Georgia are illiterate, and yet Massachusetts, with all her education and refinement, has fourteen mes as many criminals in proportion to population brought over, was arranged in metallic cases, and, as the steamer approached the coast, these were dropped overboard and immediately sunk. After the lapse of a few hours the cases would rise to the surface, and then could be picked up by small boats off the coast.

Gen. Middleton Wounded.

An Ottawa despatch says : Whilst spirited contest was in progress last night at an exhibition of the fencing club, the foil of one of the competitors snapped and a bit of the steel flew across the room, grazing the chin of Major General Fred Middleton in no gentle manner. The cut bled freely and a little excitement followed until the exact extent of the wound was learned and the bleeding stopped. Sir Frederick sa out the entertainment.

Not to Be Accounted For.

De Baggs-Bagley, I want to ask you a elicate question. What was my condition delicate question. What was my condition when we parted last night ? Bagley—You were largely loaded. my friend

Sure of that ? Quite. Why do you ask?

Because my wife never mentioned it smorning. I thought perhaps I might e gone home sober by mistake."this morning. have gone home Philadelphia Call.

The public debt of the United States was ecreased $9,750,000 during January.

A new and excellent soap advertisem A new and excellent soap advertisement appears in the Chicago newspapers. It is the picture of a very dirty and disreputable tramp sitting at a table writing. On the table and wall are portraits of Patti Langtry, Beecher and other well-known soap puffers. The tramp is writing: "I need your soap two years ago and have not soap puffers. The tramp is writing : " used your soap two years ago and have no used any other since.

It is said since the opening of the Cana dian Pacific Railway salmon are desertin the Fraser River. Formerly the salmon in the spawning season ascended the river by the million, and they could be scooped out of the water by the barrelful with any kind of a vessel large enough. The noise of the engine and 'the vibration imparted to the water by the trains running along the banks are supposed to have scared them, and therefore caused their departure.

York market has come to be a recognized industry. There is a large frog arm in the neighborhood of Waterloo and several in Canada, and still waterloo and several in Canada, and still the demand is greater than the supply

She Thinks Prayer Saved Her.

An Adrian (Mich.) despatch says : Mrs. Walter S. Mead, aged 29 years, has suffered two years with an abscess in her suffered two years with an abscess in her side; and for the past few weeks has been confined to her bed. On Sunday she was very low, and up to Monday night doubts were entertained whether she would live. Yesterday the physician found his patient dressed, sitting up and eating with fair relish. She said last night the Lord, in response to her prayers, healed and restored her strength. A reporter who called later found the woman firm in the faith that she was cured. Medical men are faith that she was cured. Medical me

At Prof. Proctor's dancing academy in Washington, seven of the girls displeased several of the boys by occasionally refusing to dance with them. Thereupon a boycott was laid, and at the next meeting of the class the seven offending girls were horrified to find that not a single young fellow asked them to dance, and they sat the whole evening out without dancing and without partners.

THE fact has been satisfactorily estab-lished by various scientific researches that many substances absorb luminous rays during the day, and at night emit these A tract of land on the western shore of Cayuga Lake, near Canoga, has been leased to Rochester parties for the cultivation of vatory at Prague.

scourge. And the Government, the pality, the yery doctors are helpless