This week an important business change has taken place on Main street west, the blacksmithing business of Mr. 8. H. McBratney passing into the possession of Messrs M. Milroy and J. R. Tye. The business is new to Mr. Tye but Mr. Milroy has a reputation for first-class work that should bring trade to the firm. Both are industri ous, reliable men, and should make a auccess of the enterprise. Mr. Mc-Bratney purposes spending the sum-mer in Manitoba and the Territories.

The outfit for the town baseball olub arrived last week and a large number of enthusiasts congregate at the diamond at the race track and engage in a spirited practice game each evening. The field has been thoroughly graded and rolled, and when it has on in use for a while will be in excellent condition for playing. As yet the boys are a little green, but there is plenty of material, which, if good hard practic s he indulged in, can be developed into a strong team.

MATERIAL FOR CEMENT

The Kingston News says: "It is claimed the supply of marl near Kep lar and on the shores of Loughbore" Lake is practically unlimited. This comises well for the cement manufacturing plant that will be started either in or near the city. The ever growing demand for cement makes at proposal to start manufacturing have a fairly hopeful appearance."

Athens has a large bed of pur-white calcareous marl within its cor-porate limits, and finding some use for it has occupied considerable time in days gone by, but it remains unexploited. Perhaps some cement manufacturer might be interested in this deposit.

Paris, May 2.—King Edward arrived here at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was accorded a magnificent reception by republican France.

Paris, May 4.—The picturesque features of King Edward's visit to Paris are practically over. The incidents of yesterday were comparatively quiet, but they were still expressive of the renewal of the Anglo-French good will.

His Majesty, in the morning, took a short stroll on his way to the English chapel. He seemed to enjoy mingling in the throng of churchgoers, who were clad in bright spring attire. King Edward were a dark gray morping suit and a high hat. He carried a cane in his left hand and walked briskly with Sir Edmund K. Mason, the British Ambansador. Crowds of people gathered at the British Embassy and along the theroughfares where his Majesty passed and gave mild demonstrations of good will.

ter Deleases gave a breakfast at the Foreign Office to his Majesty. Among the hundred, guests present were many notable figures in official and diplomatic life, as well as persons famous in the salons. The papal nuncio and Count Ven Wolkenstein, the Austrian Ambassador, who is deen of the diplomatic corps, were present. The breakfast gave occasion for further expressions of the firmer friendship between France and Great Britain, which the visit of King Edward has brought out. In the afternoon King Edward planted a chestnut tree in the garden of the British Embassy in commemoration of his visit, and received the orphaned pensioners of the British institution, the cornerstone of which he laid when he was Prince of Wales. Last night a gala dinner was given at the British Embassy to President Loubet. This was followed by a concert by the leading artists of the opera. The decoration of a number of French officials by King Edward is announced. The members of the King's party have received the decoration of the Order of the Legion of Honor.

Rumer of King's Assassantien.

Rumer of King's Assa London, May 4.—A rumor that King Edward had been assassinated gained circulation here yesterday? It caused a feeling of uneasiness until it was learned that the rumor was absolutely unfounded and that the Sunday program of the royal visit was being carried out in Paris without a hitch.

THE GAMEY ENQUIRY.

Provincial Secretary Stratton Will Tell His Story of Gamey-Pagsibilities of the Enquiry Freely Discussed. Toronto, May 4.-Provincial Secretary Stratton will take the witness stand to-day. It is thought that the Minister's examination and crossthe Minister's examination and cross-examination will consume at least two days. It is possible it may be even as long as Gamey's. When this is concluded the investigation will be practically concluded. There are to be a few witnesses, however, to be called in rebuttal. Altogether, the arguments are not expected to commence before this day week.

They will consume the better part of the week. Therefore, two more weeks will probably be devoted to the trial, and the decision of the commission is not expected for another week at the least. Their Lordships have to examine a mass of testi-mony, notes and various features of the trial. Therefore it is not anticipated that a report can be made to the House much before the close of May.

Criminal Prosecutiors. The possibilities of prosecutions a criminal character growing out of the affair are being very freely dis-cussed. It was stated at the opening by Gamey that he would not insist on the Sullivans being brought to book on any charge growing out of the affair. However, prosecutions for perjury are quite likely, but just who will be the accused is as yet meertain. Since so many persons must have committed permission, so prosecutions on arise out of the evidence of any witness for perjury or on a charge that does not have to be substantiated by evidence given by the person accused during the investigation.

Ex-Senator Carm.chael Dead.

Ottawa, May 2.—A despatch from New Glasgow, N. S., states that ex-Senator Carmichael died there at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been well and was out the day before as usual. ing Note of Warning.

Neighbering Towns-Tewn Deserted.

Winnipeg, Man., May 4.—A special despatch from Frank, N.W.T., says that Chief Engineer McHenry has, through Fremier Haultain, given warning that further slides of rock may occur at any moment. From observations made by him he fears that the remaining portion of the little place may be overwhelmed with a rush similar to that which has already caused so much destruction. The town is now deserted, the Fremier having advised the residents to leave, and a special train was secured to take them to neighboring towns, where accommodation might be had. There is no excitament, and general quiet prevails.

Frank was practically depopulated yesterday, and last evening the place was almost deserted. At early morning the exodus began. It commenced when on their return from a climb of inspection made to the top of the mountain from the Blairmere, Mining Inspector Smith, Superintendent McCarthy and Prospector Byron announced that danger lurked in the picturesque background. The announcement was officially communicated to the Board of Trade at a subsequent meeting. Steps were immediately taken to notify the villagers who had not already gone that no time should be lost in getting away. This move, however, had been anticipated.

There was no confusion, no panic; but there was despair, and it appeared on the faces of the townspeople. Not much was said; there was no time for parley.

A Fisure Discovered.

The report made by the party who visited the peak of the mountain was in effect the east peak of the mountain, if not actually creeping, might be expected to fall at a time when least expected to sail at a time when least expected. The need for relief and aid is not urgent. President Chambers of the Board of Trade made the official statement yesterday morning that not more than $3,000 would be required to defray cost of recovering as many bodies as possible, and pro-viding temporarily for those chil-dren left destitute. The business men of Frank have been energetic in meet-ing all immediate demands.

THE CATASTROPHE.

The Werst Disaster That Ever Occurred

frank, N.W.T., May 1.—This place was visited Wednesday morning by the worst disaster that has ever been witnessed in any community in western Canada. What was either a slip of land or rock of such gigantic magnitude as to be utterly inconceivable to the mind of any whose eye has not beheld it, or a slide induced by a seismic upheaval, killed seventy-five persons, destroyed the plant of the Canadian-American Coal and Coke Company, did a vast and Coke Company, did a vast amount of damage to the mine, and completely devastated about ten square miles of the finest and most picturesque section of the Crow's Nest Pass.

The happening of the catastrophe came at lifteen minutes past 4 o'clock, when residents of the town were awakened by a deafening tu-mult and a shaking of buildings, which it seemed would rattle them into complete demolition. Of all the town inhabitants, numbering nearly 1,000, no one professes to have reached the outside of his do-main in time to see any part of what took place, but when day dawned it took place, but when day dawned it was seen that the whole side of Turtle Mountain had fallen away, and that the country extending from the eastern edge of the town for two miles down the pass, and entirely across the pass, a distance of two miles or more from the mountain, lay buried beneath rock and debris of various kinds for a depth varying from 25 to 100 feet.

In its sweep the great slide, if slide it was, or upheaval, if that be the more proper characterization, de-molished and carried away the entire operating plant of the coal com-
