It Will be a Pleasure to Show NEW STYLES in Our Christy Hats

The "CHRISTY" (London) Hat embodies many good features known to "hatdom." England has long been recognized the centre of the wool trade and the largest wool markets are located there. Couple with this the fact that in the United Kingdom are found the greatest number of skilled artisans belonging to the hatters' trade and you have the two main reasons why English makers excel in the felt and hat making. "CHRISTY'S" of London, England, is a trade mark we all know. Whether you have your first Derby or your fiftieth you recognize superiority in the name "CH RISTY."

A GOOD NAME--A GOOD HAT

This is the "FITWELL" for which we have the sole selling rights in this city. This does not mean that we can sell it at any higher price than if all the dealers in town had them. But it does mean that we are able to stock up on a larger range of styles and assortments than we would be warranted in doing otherwise. This results in larger choice to our customers.

BUT WE'VE GOT OTHER HATS

It isn't always well to be "held up" to the hats from one factory, the product of one maker. We have a large number of styles of the "CHRISTIE;" London hat. The prices are as low as $2.50 and stop short at $4.50. A bright bevy of new styles of spring wear now "in their places."

Five Only $85.00 Coon Coats, Saturday at $49.50

Here is a generous price-cut for five men. A reduction that comes but once in a lifetime. We're dropping dollars off a lot of Coon Coats on Saturday. It is altogether likely that when these are gone there will not be any such offering again. The reason lies in the fact that we are not prepared to throw away good dollars as we are doing on these coats when we sell them at $49.50. On Sale 8 a.m. Saturday Morning.
