

TORTURED BY BILIOUSNESS

AND TERRIBLE SICK HEADACHES

Both Completely Cured by "Fruit-a-tives"

DANDEN, Ont. July 17th, 1910.
"I was a dreadful sufferer for many years from Sick Headaches and Biliousness or Torpid Liver. I tried many remedies and physicians, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I finally used "Fruit-a-tives" and after the first box, I was so much better that I continued using these fruit tablets and they have entirely cured me.
"I certainly can recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to anyone who suffers from Headaches, Biliousness or Stomach Trouble." Mrs. ISAAC VANSICKLE. Thousands of people have had the same experience as Mrs. VANSICKLE. They have tried doctors and taken all sorts of medicine, only to find that "Fruit-a-tives" is the one and only remedy that actually cures these troubles.
"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices, and is the greatest Liver Cure ever discovered. It acts as a laxative, cleanses the Kidneys and Skin—sweetens the stomach and purifies the blood. Price a box, 16 for 50, or trial size, 5c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Why I Favor Prohibition.

Now about the power of prohibitory laws to prohibit—the law of the state against murder does not entirely prevent murder. Nevertheless, I am opposed to licensing one murderer to ever so many thousand persons, even on petition of a majority of the property owners in the block, that we may have all the murder that is desirable in the community under wise regulation, with a little income for the municipality. I believe in the absolute prohibition of murder.

A Weak Chested Boy.

My boy Frank seemed weak-chested and took a very severe cold, writes Mrs. D. Stevens, St. John, N.S. The many medicines used did not seem to benefit him until we tried Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine and found it to be exactly what was wanted to cure him. No treatment is so thorough and effective as a cure for cough and bronchitis.

What were you and Mr. Smith talking about in the parlor?

"Oh, we were discussing our kith and kin," replied the young lady.
The mother looked dubiously at her daughter, whereupon her little brother, wishing to help his sister, said:
"Yeth they wath, mother. I heard 'em. Mr. Thimth asked her for a kith and she said, 'You kin.'"

You are probably aware that pneumonia always results from a cold, but you never heard of a cold resulting in pneumonia when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. Why take the risk when this remedy may be had for a trifle?

For sale by all dealers.

Life is a business we are all apt to mismanage, either living recklessly from day to day or suffering ourselves to be gulled out of our moments by the inmates of custom. We should despise a man who gave an little actively and forthrightly to the conduct of other business. . . . We cannot see the forest for the trees. . . . And it is only on rare provocation that we can rise to take an outlook beyond daily concerns.—R. L. Stevenson.

It is deliberately claimed by some people who appear to be sane on other subjects, that property to instruct a sober people in ways of sobriety, and to teach total abstinence the beauty and virtues of temperance you must license the selling of liquor in the town. The man who originated that idea ought to have it studied and exhibited at the Panama Exposition, and he should be leaped up beside it as a part of the exhibit.

As to prohibition in Pasadena, if any Pasadena citizen there is his money and a safe thing in running a blind pig in Pasadena, let him come here and try it. If he has any love for his liberty and pocketbook, however, he will do well to consult the fellows who have tried it. If he can find them; we can't. They are in hiding somewhere out in the desert. "Running a joint" in Pasadena is like running a power mill in a smelting furnace. It is mighty exciting while it lasts but it does not last long enough to be profitable.

If the saloon men insist in quoting me to this effect, that they may repeat it as they need it. I do not know any good thing about the saloon. It is an evil thing that has not one redeeming thing in all its history to commend it to good men. It breaks the laws of God and man. It desecrates the Sabbath; it profanes the name of religion; it defiles public order; it tramples under foot the tender feelings of humanity; it is a moral pestilence that blights the very atmosphere of town and country. It is a stain upon humanity; a blot upon purity; a blot upon progress; a check upon the progress of civilization; it is a blot upon the honor of the human race.

THE BEST REMEDY

For Women—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Belleville, Ont.—"I was so weak and worn out from a female weakness that I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took several bottles of it, and I gained strength so rapidly that it seemed to me as if I were a new woman. I can do as good a day's work as I ever did. I sincerely bless the day that I made up my mind to take your medicine for female weakness, and I am exceedingly grateful to you for your kind letters, as I certainly profited by them. I give you permission to publish this any time you wish."—Mrs. ALAN WICKER, Belleville, Ontario, Canada.

WOMEN WHERE SHOULD REMEMBER THAT THERE IS NO OTHER REMEDY KNOWN TO MEDICINE THAT WILL CURE FEMALE WEAKNESS AND SO SUCCESSFULLY CURE WOMEN THROUGH THE CHANGE OF LIFE AS LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND, MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS AND HERBS.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female weakness, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, neuralgia, headache, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

Cardinal Manning says: "I know of no cause that effects man, woman, child or home, with such universality of steady power as intoxicating drink."

A small whisky advertisement will often prevent a paper from taking a large part in temperance work.

Eczema and Sore Eyes.

My daughter suffered from eczema and eczema on her head, writes Mr. H. W. Lear, Port Huron, Mich. "The child was in a bad state and the doctor failed to help her; and on recommendation of a friend, I used Dr. Chase's Ointment, which made a complete cure. With a grateful heart I write you this letter to thank you for your medicine."

A Belfast linen merchant who had a long outstanding account due to him from a New York firm decided to put its collection in the hands of a lawyer, who undertakes that class of business on the basis of half cash. Time passed, and unable to get any reply from the lawyer, the merchant called him for information. A few days later came the reply: "Have got my half; yours hopeless."

Chapped Hands AND Cold Sores

Are your hands chapped, cracked or sore? Have you "cold cracks" which open and bleed when the skin is drawn tight? Have you a "raw" place, which sometimes makes it agony for you to go about your household duties? If so, Zam-Buk will give you relief, and will heal the most-damaged skin. Anoint the sore places at night, Zam-Buk's rich healing essences will sink into the wounds, and the smarting and heat will quickly disappear. Mrs. Yellen, of Portland, says: "My hands were so sore and cracked that I was agony to put them near water. When I did so they would smart and burn as if I had scalded them. I seemed quite unable to get relief from anything I put on them until I tried Zam-Buk. It not only healed what all else had failed. It closed the big cracks, gave me ease, soothed the inflammation, and in a very short time healed my hands."

THE STANDING ALIVE OF H. STANLEIGH STORME

Ever since his arrest, in fact, the newspapers had heaped abuse and calumny upon the police department and its officers. The comic papers took it up. Everybody—H. Stanleigh Storme included—considered the affair in the light of a huge joke. H. Stanleigh Storme was not a stranger in the place. True, he had lived there for only about three years, but he had come to town loaded with the best recommendations and letters of introduction from "large eastern cities, and what is more, he was well known with his pockets full of money. He was a man of leisure. Single as he was, and attractive as he made himself, he had been in great demand. Socially he was a lion, and he was popular with the men as he was with the women. For perhaps a year after his arrival Storme had held himself somewhat aloof—he made no attempt to force himself into any circle, the consequence being that within a short time of his arrival he was sought by the most exclusive. He made no display of his wealth, but the banks knew that he carried large balances, which never dwindled. He even kept in the two savings banks large sums which remained untouched. He paid his bills, and rarely asked for them when he did so, and he was a matter of business, and he was settled on the due date, never ruder or later. Many a mother with marriageable daughters had consulted Storme with anxiety and nervousness, but with success. But Storme avoided success.
