DALHOUSIE SUFFERS GREAT LOSS.

Restigouche Woodworking Company's Factory Totally Destroyed by Fire.

Fire broke out, last Friday night about ten o'clock, in the Restigouche Wood Working factory at Dalhousie, and the buildings and plant were soon totally destroyed, in spite of the ready and willing efforts of crowds of people to save something from the ruin. The factory hose was used, and the Campbellton fire engine was sent down, but all proved unavailing. The company's loss is estimated at $80,000. Mr. Hilyard lost a building in the rear of the factory. The company will probably rebuild in the same place.

COLONIES TO CONTROL COASTING TRADE.

At the Imperial Navigation Conference in London, last week, the government of Australia and New Zealand won in their contention for Colonial control of the coasting trade. This decision affects Canada as well, although she was not represented.

CHEAPER POSTAGE TO BRITAIN.

An arrangement has been made between Great Britain and Canada whereby British newspaper and periodicals will be allowed to come into Canada at a greatly reduced rate. Our ounce letters may now go to Britain for two cents.

DRIFTED OUT TO SEA.

Two Men Caught In The Ice In Sackville River—One Drowned and Other Rescued when Almost Exhausted.

Amherst, N. S., April 12.—Yesterday afternoon, Frank Fillmore and Murray Siddall of Westmount Point, N. B., were out gunning at Aulac and were carried out into the Bay on the ice. Murray Siddall was rescued later, and the other man, his uncle, disappeared and has not been seen since.

HANGED YESTERDAY.

Wethersfield, Conn., April 16.—Henry G. Bailey was hanged here this morning for the murder of his employer, Geo. H. Goodale, whom he killed with an axe in July last. After the tragedy, Bailey fled, and was found in Ontario.

(WILL APPEAR NEXT WEEK.)
Next week, we shall publish Mr. W. S. Loggie's speech in the Commons on the question of government aid to the Maritime province fishermen.

ST. JAMES' SERVICES.

The pulpit of St. James church was occupied last Sunday morning by Rev. J. M. MacLean of Chatham, and in the evening by Rev. John Valentine.

FIRE IN McGill UNIVERSITY.

Medical Building Destroyed, and Priceless Collections a Total Loss.

Montreal, April 16.— McGill's second scorching in two weeks came this morning when the medical building, one of the finest on the grounds, was practically destroyed by fire. The estimated loss is $500,000. It is not known how the fire originated. Dr. Shepperd's anatomical collection, the largest in North America—along with all the other magnificent collections, were destroyed.

ARRIVED IN LONDON.

Premier Laurier and his party arrived in London Monday evening, and were met at the railway station by the Earl of Elgin, secretary for the colonies, Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, Canadian high commissioner, and other officials.

WILL THEY BE FINED.

Chicago, April 16.—The Standard Oil Company tonight was found guilty on 1,483 counts of receiving rebates from the Chicago & Alton railroad on shipments of oil from Shilling (Ind.) to New Orleans (La.). There were originally 1,903 counts in the indictment, 440 counts failing on errors.

If the verdict is sustained, the oil company is liable to a maximum fine of $29,260,000.

OBITUARY.

HOWARD NORTON.

The sad death of Mr. Howard Norton, a well known young man, occurred at his mother's residence here, on Saturday night, the cause of death being heart consumption. Deceased not long ago was assisting in the management of the open air rink, and had been confined to the house only a short time. He was thirty-three years of age. His wife and child predeceased him about a year. Funeral takes place to-day in St. James church.

On Sunday, Rev. John A. Clark died at his residence in St. John. Deceased had served fifty years in the Methodist ministry, having been twice stationed in Newcastle and well and favorably known in this community. About ten years ago he retired from active service, and was placed on the supernumerary list. He had been in poor health ever since. He leaves a wife, two daughters, Fern and Gertrude at home, and one son, Percy, at Ottawa. These brothers also survive: W. Mark, chief of police, Robt. and James, all of St. John.

On Sunday, March 17th, at her residence, No. 17 Roselle street, Jersey, Channel Islands, Marie Anne Duret, widow of Capt. Francis Alexandre, died at the age of 78.

PROMINENT LUMBERMAN DEAD.

Archibald C. L. Truyle, a prominent lumberman, died of heart failure, in St. John, yesterday, aged 78.
