The [beard] movement has an advan-tage quite peculiar to it, inasmuch as the trigiuments on both sides have all the amusing elements of the ridiculous. The present custom is absurd. To foreigners who come from nations unmutilated in the face, the aspect of men staking about in public, deprived of the distinctive ornament of the muzzle, and thus reduced to stubbed and rough copies of women. is more amusing than imposing The North American Indian, who shaves his head and leaves a tuft in the centre for the convenience of his enemy in taking off the scalp, is actuated by a higher sense of honour than that which actuates Englishmen in compelling them to shave the muzzle and leave two scraps at the side for that domestic enemy the favourite child to tug at. The custom therefore is ridiculous; but the revolution is scarcely graver. The artist, who tells us that the beard is better than the shaven chia-personal comfort, which tells us that the operation of shaving is a daily torture—or common sense, which tells us that the fur upon the lips and round the throat in harsh weather is a natural

It is one that can only be taught by example, not inculcated by doctrine or ordered by statute. We have a compulsory vaccination act, but a compulsory anti-shaving act would be tolerated only in Russia—or the Bank of England. Soldiers shave or grow by regulation, but civilians might at least claim freedom of action. The police have not been required to grow a handle by which to be ended; but the authorities at the Bank, it is said, have put down certain rising moustaches; perhaps as dangerous to the safety of that institution. Such is our custom of tyranny in trifles: we grant a freedom to religious and political princi-ples which we deny to the capillary principles; we admit private judgement on the ost important questions, and deny it on the toilet question of the morning !- The Spectator.

NEWSPAPERS-THEIR BENEFIT.

Of all the amusements, says Herschell, that can possibly be imagined for a hardworking man after a day's toil, or in its intervals, there is nothing like reading an entertaining newspaper.—It relieves his home of its dullness or sameness, which, in nine cases out of ten, is what drives him to the ale-house, to his own ruin and his family's. It transports him into moes gayer and livelier and more diversified and interesting scenes; and while he enjoys himself thus, he may forget the evil of the present moment fully as much as WANTED.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

URPRISING CURE OF A CONFIRMED ASTH MA, AFTER FIVE TEARS' SUFFERING. he following testimonial has been sent to Profess Holloway, by a gentleman named Middleton, of Scotland Road, Liserpool.

of Scotland Road, Liserpool.

Sir,—Your Pills have been the means, ander Providence, of restoring me to sound health, after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period, I have suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks' duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of phlugm intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most eminent medical men of this town, but they failed to give me the slightest relief. As a last remedy, I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect care of the disease, totally eradicated the cou, h, and restored tone and vigor to the chest and digestive organs.

Square, Winchester.

To Professor Holloway,
Sir,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheamaism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried everything that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent surgeons in this town, but obtained no relief whatever; and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up. I was induced to go into our County Hespital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than I went in. I was then advised to try your Fills, and by persevering with them was perfectly cared, and enabled to resume my obcapation, and although a considerable period has elapsed, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint. a

I am, Sir, your obliged Servant,

Did space permit, we could give many hundred such names, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing that the certificates of these eminent public men is shown in this effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and retaily, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vogetable remedies, extracted by chemical process, in a state of purity and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remody than had hitherto been obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities; by this, each individual virtue only that is desired for the curraive site is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effect should prove as they have proved more purely remedial, and the Pills a sarer, more powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counder of the hard my other medicine has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by many decident that my medicine should be taken of their competity in a rewilling to certify th
