

"YOU'LL SUFFER ALL YOUR LIFE"

That's what the Doctor told him

"Fruit-a-tives Cured Him"

CHESTERVILLE, ONT., Jan. 25th 1912
"For over twenty years, I have been troubled with Kidney Disease, and the doctors told me they could do me no good, and that I would be a sufferer for the rest of my life."

I doctored with different medical men and tried many advertised remedies, but none of them suited my case.

Nearly a year ago, I tried "Fruit-a-tives". I have been using this fruit medicine nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured.

I give "Fruit-a-tives" the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible.

I am now seventy-six years old, and in first class health.

GEO. W. BARKLEY.

In all the world, there is no other remedy that has cured so many cases of so-called "incurable" kidney disease as "Fruit-a-tives".

This famous fruit medicine acts directly on the kidneys, cleansing and strengthening them—and ridding the system of the waste matter that poisons the blood.

ONTARIO TO OUTLAW TREATING

Toronto, May 27.—The World says:—The anti-treating law, which will be discussed by the next session, will be far reaching in its effect. The new legislation it is understood, will be of a drastic nature, and will thoroughly eliminate the treating system, which was criticized so severely by Sir James Whitney on the floor of the house two months ago.

The hotel keeper, the bartender, the man who buys the drink, and the man who is given the treat will be prosecuted under the new law. It is believed that by this means, the habit will be discouraged more than if action were taken against the hotel keeper's license.

The anti-treating law which, in all probability, will be incorporated in an addition to the license act, will impose heavy fines upon hotel-keepers, who violate the law for the first and second time, and on the third occasion the license will be cancelled. The bartender will be fined to the amount of $100 to $200 and the treator and "treated" will be dealt with in a similar way.

DECREASED BUDGET FOR GERMANY NAVY

Germany Will Spend $250,000 Less Next Year On Her Navy — What Is the Reason for the Decrease?

(Publishers Press News Service)
Berlin.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung publishes a summary of the imperial budget for 1912. The total expenditure is given as 2,313,300,000 marks (approximately $764,840,700), an increase of 58,007,000 marks ($18,516,750). The army expenditure is given as 1,703,340,000 marks ($549,000,000), an increase of 41,341,000 marks ($12,810,250). On the navy 557,415,000 marks ($172,350,750) is to be spent.

VON BETHMANN-HOLLEWEG, German Chancellor

he spent a total of 557,415,000 marks ($172,350,750). This is a decrease of 1,000,000 marks ($307,000) from the previous year. The decrease is due to the fact that the navy budget for 1912 is 557,415,000 marks ($172,350,750), which is 1,000,000 marks ($307,000) less than the budget for 1911.

New York.—This picture shows the top stories of the new Bank of Commerce building in New York. J. Pierpont Morgan has picked out for his new offices the forty-second floor.

immediately beneath the odd-looking pyramid on top. The pyramid will be used by Morgan and his banking house as a safety vault for the storage of millions in gold coins, stocks and bonds. If this idea of storing wealth high in the air becomes at all general it may lead to a new type of daring bank robber, operating by aeroplane.

A TREASURE HUNT IN AUCKLAND

After Four Previous Attempts to Recover Lost Gold, a New Expedition Has Started Out On the Hunt.

Auckland, N. Z.—Captain N. C. Sorenson, formerly employed as diver by the Auckland Harbor Board, purposes, in conjunction with a partner in Dunedin, to fit out an expedition, to cost about $50,000, to proceed to the Auckland Islands to endeavor to recover the bullion believed to have been lost in the General Grant, wrecked there in 1866. Four previous attempts to recover this treasure were unsuccessful. Captain Sorenson believes that the failures were through attempting the work from the seaward side. His idea is to land an expedition on the landward side and cut a road across to the wreck, and operate by means of derricks erected on the cliffs.

The General Grant was a sailing ship of about 1,300 tons. She left Melbourne for London, laden with valuable products of the Ballarat goldfields, on May 4, 1866. Just ten days later she struck hidden rocks off the Auckland Islands, and the majority of those on board were lost. The survivors experienced hunger and cold before they were discovered in the month of March, two years later, by Captain Gifford, of the brig Hemphill, who took them on to the Bluff.

A ROMANTIC IRISH MARRIAGE

Claim That Only One Witness Being Present It Was Null and Void According to the Roman Catholic Church.

(Publishers Press News Service)
Dublin.—In the Probate Court, before Mr. Justice Madden, an application for alimony pending the hearing of the case of Usher vs. Usher was heard. The petition is brought by the husband for the nullity of the marriage. The family residence is at Eastwell, Lougrea, County Galway.

Mr. Sergeant Moriarty, who appeared for the respondent, Mrs. Usher, said that the petitioner, William Arland Usher, a gentleman farmer, stated in his petition that on April 24, 1910, at 10 o'clock at night he was married to Mary Caulfield, "now falsely called Mary Usher," in a bed room in his house. They are Roman Catholics and the ceremony was performed by a Roman Catholic priest in the presence of one witness. The petitioner now said that the marriage was null and void by reason of the fact that only one witness was present and that the ceremony was not carried out according to the rites, regulations, and ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Church as required by law. The respondent denied that the marriage was null and void for any of the reasons stated by the petitioner.

In a reply affidavit the petitioner said that the contract of marriage was not witnessed by a valid religious ceremony as was required by law, that it was subject to and on the express condition that it should be according to the rites of the Roman Catholic Church and on the express condition that the Roman Catholic Church should permit of the same being valid.

INDIAN PRINCE TO BE SPANIEL

Delhi.—The Gackwar of Baroda, an Indian prince, is to be spanked, figuratively, for insulting King George V. England at the Durbar ceremonies. The Indian potentate, who has long been hostile to British rule, attended the Durbar in casual dress instead of robes of state. When the time came to pay homage to the king, he gave a perfunctory bow and turned his back on the king. He has been forced to apologize and further steps will be taken to curb him.

A GREAT PAINTER'S START IN LIFE

How a Young Girl Inspired Ziem, the Great Portrait Painter, To Get Out of Himself and Work.

Paris.—Ziem, sitting cross-legged on a table beside a window, worked as a tailor's assistant for several years. His life was thrown into a new channel by the arrival of a new channel by the arrival of a handsome, auburn-haired girl who sang as a ballad singer. The father played a hurdy-gurdy, the mother made lace and a boy performed divers gymnastic feats. The girl had a fine voice. Her father wanted a new coat and asked the elder Ziem to make it and Mme. Ziem to take in a part of the family as lodgers. She took in the boy and girl.

The latter lifted the future painter out of himself with her Venetian songs and accounts of the glorious city to which she hoped soon to return. Her name was Caterina. When she went away Ziem felt miserable. He lost spirit and could not shake off the sort of paralysis that had seized on all his faculties. At last he determined—with the help of his needle and his talent, as he thought, of portrait painter and violinist—to make his way to Venice. They answered to his hopes of going down by water to Marseilles, for he knew so geography, and thence to Rome. It would be now curious to see the portraits of Sane and Rhore captains of barges, wine and wood merchants, he did for them, in lieu of passage money. In Rome he got in with painters and tourists. The former helped him to enlarge his artistic culture, and the latter look him about as a guide. But Caterina and Venice lay on his heart, and he took the old resolution of going on foot to the city of his dreams. He so fell in love with it the first day he went on the hill that he did not break his heart when he heard that Caterina had not turned up, but had gone to Paris to serve as a model.
