The fashion of wearing "Spats" or Overgaiters with Low Cut Footwear is a sensible proposition. It enables a woman to wear her Low Cut Shoes at times when it would be impossible to wear them without the Spat protection. Spats are stylish as well as useful.

They come in Black, White, Pearl Grey and Fawn. Cut to hug the vamp and fit the shoe

The daily destruction of tonnage since the opening of the unrestricted U boat campaign has in the total amounted to enormous figures and notwithstanding the speeding up of shipbuilding the drain has not yet been met. Nor can it. A ship a day would not make good the loss. But on this point the assurance comes from the best of authority that the peril has been held. Even so it has not altogether passed, consequently there is little worder that Great Britain in contle wonder that Great Britain in conjunction with the United States has at length commandeered all Dutch shipping lying in the ports of both nations It is not certain that Great Britain would have done this of her own initiative, but with the United States in entire accord, she could do no less. The Ships Are in the Fat

Flippers now will be our chat, For we're glad to know for certain That the ships are in the fat.

Will spend little time in "bunks," For the "swiles" as thick as burgoo

And the sparks from steels are flying For they soon shall ply their trade Peeling "pelts" upon the South Side From the "harp" the "hood" and "cat," And the country is delighted

Since the ships are in the fat.

The matter of the petition of residents who reside on that section of the LeMarchant Road between Hamilton Street and St. Clare's Home, protesting against the re-naming of that section as Patrick Street, was again dealt with. The petitioners claim that under the Consolidated Statutes of 1872 permission was given to open up a street running from Freshwater Rd. to the Gas Works fire break and to be called the LeMarchant Road. Mr. F. J. Morris, K.C., the former solicitor of the Council, when holding that ofof the Council, when holding that of-fice, pointed out that the Act of 1872 was repealed by act of the Legislature in 1902 which defined the LeMarchant as running from Freshwater Road in
