George McGregor Denies Reports

Circulated About Him. Who Stole Is Given Another

Chance To Be Good.

George McGregor, a barber, was charged in today's police court with neglecting to supply his wife, Alice Mc-Gregor, with the necessaries of life. He did not plead, but his lawyer, Mr. J. F. CAIRNCROSS & LAWRENCE. Faulds, asked the magistrate for an adjournment for a week, stating that an arrangement had been made by which, if the magistrate were willing, the husband would supply her with a fixed amount of money each week, and that court asked what truth there was in street, from Dundas to the G. Libraries Becoming More Beneficial Each Day, He Says.

Dr. James Bain, chief librarian of the Poronto Public Library, in an interview yesterday, rebuked Rev. Richard castle, the members of their respective Hobbs for his remarks made at the As- suites dining separately. After the kin Street Methodist Church on Tues- dinner their majesties were present at day night, respecting public libraries. a performance of "David Garrick" in the Waterloo chamber by Sir Charles

In his interview, Dr. Bain said:

'Mr. Hobbs is not known to me, but he doesn't seem at all backward about making sweeping statements. I can- tive suites. not agree with him. Our public libraries are becoming more and more of a benefit each day. Of course, it is undoubtedly discouraging to a man of intellectuality to note the large number f novels that are read by the patrons of our libraries, but I contend that this is so merely because the distributingtent of the habit. If Mr. Hobbs could gather statistics to show just how many of the young men of the town read novels that are unobtainable at public libraries. I'm sure he would be more surprised. As for his insinuation that the men controlling the libraries for of half the community would be hurt, and they would withdraw. Mr. Hobbs, apparently, forgets that this is a demo-cratic world and a democratic com-munity, and that we must ge gentle one to another in order that we may get alone together.
