In Tacoma Now

Mr. Albert Hawthorne, the basso can-lante, who has been "mysteriously miss-ng" from his accustomed haunts for a day witwo, has turned up in Tacoma. Rumor ath it that he left his luxuriant whiskers ir of his stay here.

Two more members of the Provincial Legislature arrived in the city yesterday. They are Messrs. S. A. Rogers and Dr. Hugh Watt, both of Cariboo. They report excellent sleighing between Barkerville and Asheroft. The early winter caused fears that the cattle would not winter well, but feed is plentiful, especially on the Chilcotin side, west of the Fraser. Mr. Rogers is a guest of his nephew across James Bay, and Dr. Watt is with his son, Dr. Watt, jr.

Well pleased with the courtesies shown them during their present visit.

Of the prize winning poultry not hitherto noticed in the Colonist, the most notable bird is Mr. S. W. Lobb's B.B.R. Game Cockerel Bantam, which scored 96½ points, a remarkably good record. Mr. C. J. Ellis captured the three prizes for Black Spanish pullets, each of the three birds scoring 96, while Mr. C. W. Riley's S. C. White Leghorn pullet (96) was the first prize winner at the New York show last winter.

Of the Cat show this year little need be said.

A Large Attendance.

There were over a hundred young ladies and gentlemen present at the bon-bon social dance, given by Messrs. Bennet and Taylor in Harmony Hall last evening. Although the hall proved rather small for so many dancers, the evening's enjoyment was not in any way interfered with. Excellent in any way interfered with. Excellent music was provided by the Bantly family orchestra. This is one of a series of social dances which are proposed to be given. The next will take place on Saturday evening.

COLUMBIA'S NEW BISHOP.

ie Will Be Consecrated February 22 the Anniversary of His Predecessor's Elevation.

First Sermon to Be Delivered at the Cathedral on Easter Sunday.

The Anglican Synod will, it is under tood, hold a special meeting at 3:30 tonorrow afternoon, when two interesting etters received on Friday evening by enerable Archdeacon Scriven will be read The first is from His Grace the Archbishop f Canterbury, to whom was left the select tion of a bishop to succeed Rt. Rev. Dr. Hills; the second is from his appointee, Rev. W. W. Perrin.

In his letter, covering the official notifitation of his choice, His Grace refers to Sev. Mr. Perrin in terms of the highest steem, and explains his reasons for naming that rentleman as British Columbia's new Bishop—that Rev. Mr. Perrin is naturally well qualified to perform the high duties of his new office; that he is a good Churchman and an earnest and energetic Christian worker.

Dr. Hills' successor is still a young man, being not far past the line of forty. His photograph, which was reproduced a few day ago in the Illustrated London News, is that of a big. Ale. a that of a kindly gentleman, in whose face we found the lines of benevolence and accutive ability.

In his own letter to the Archdeacon, Rev. Min own letter to the Archdeacon, Rev. Mir. Perrin states that shortly after receiving notification of his appointment he called apon Rt. Rev. Dr. Hills, and although that sutteman is in very poor health, was granted the pleasure of an interview. Dr. Hills discussed with him the affairs of the discussed after this check. licese, and after this chat he (Rev. Mr. Perin) was more than before convinced that his lines had fallen in pleasant places, and that his reception in Victoria would be abentu one.

cording to the present arrangement arrangement will be consecrated on w Bishop will be consecrated on Febru-22, which is the 34th anniversary of the Rev. Dr. Hills' consecration. Before end of February Bishop Perrin will sail America, and it is expected that he will each his first sermon in Christ Church thedral on Easter Sunday.

at the New York show last winter.

Of the Cat show this year little need be said. It was a cat show not a show of cats, Mr. S. Jackman's "Tommy" being the only representative of his race. During yesterday morning some mischievous youngster carried a stranger kitten to the end of the gallery. It had to run the gauntlet of over 100 excited and keenly interested dogs before it could breathe freely again, and if any one takes the trouble to look it up to-day he will, no doubt, find that Miss Pussy has turned snowy white—that is if fear turns the hair as some maintain.

Among the most interested visitors yesterday were the little ones from the P. O.

Among the most interested visitors yesterday were the little ones from the P. O. Home, who inspected the pets during the morning, and whose shouts of delight blended musically with the chorus of dogs and fowl. For the last day the champion dog, "Ireland Yet," was provided with a conspicuous position at the end of the gallery, where he received the homage of his admirers, the more intimately acquainted of whom know him by his home name of Charlie. Although the receipts are not yet made up, they will probably, like the exhibits, be twice as satisfactory as those of last year.

What's in a Name—The Editor's flight of Fancy-The March of Learning -A Cautious Suicide.

(Copyright, 1892, by Char'es B. Lewis.) MR. AND MRS. BOWSER.

When Mr. Bowser came up to lunched he other day and saw a goat nibbling away at a piece of stovepipe in the back yard he caught his breath and exclaimed: "Well, of all the silly things you ever did this is the worst! Got a goat, eh? Probably paid ten or twelve dollars for im—and of all the mean and useless animals on the face of this earth a goat is the climax! If you are ever left a widow you'll run through every dollar in three months !" "Mr. Bowser," calmly replied Mrs.

Bowser as the goat left the stovepipe to nunt for fishbones, "do you remember when you bought a horse for $250?"

"What of it?" "Nothing, except that in about ten lays you sold him for $100 and was tickled to death to get rid of him. You ought him for a sound horse, but it urned out that he was wind broken, spa-key of the situation. Just then, as if to fawor him, the animal got a beef bone stuck in his throat and opened a circus performance of the funniest kind.

and further conversation was suddenly iropped. It was nearly night before Mr. skule in when yo' passed?"

"Yes; I heard the children reciting." Bowser could figure up results with any satisfaction to his side, and even as he chuckled a little he felt bound to caution himself:

"Mighty close shave, that was! I I've got to hold the reins of government with a tight hand or she'll get the better of me some day !"

THE ARIZONA KICKER.

SWEETEST OF ALL. During the last Sweetest of All.—During the last three years we have been addressed as "colonel," "major," "judge" and "mayor," and many of our letters have come addressed "honorable," but we must confess that we never knew what soft cadence and sweet rhythm signified until we were hailed as "Hello, senator!" bought him for a sound noise, turned out that he was wind broken, spavined, ringboned, nearaighted, vicious, twenty years old and"——

"It didn't turn out anything of the sort! You got afraid to ride after him and what could I do but sell him? And what has a horse to do with a goat? Of all the silly, senseless things a woman ever did this is the cap sheaf! I'll bet a ever did this is the cap sheaf! I'll bet a soft glow of satisfaction begins at the top of our ears and works clean down to the heels and even warms up our tracks in the mud. Old Jim Henderson has a voice like the cry of a buzzard, and heretofore we have felt that we would rather go a mile out of our way than to meet him, but when he stood us up and called us aftly the other day we compared his "senator" the other day we compared his voice to the sound of a harp string softly twanged by the balmy breath of a June morning. The title is not an empty one, as our readers know. We worked the caucuses. We worked the delegates. We worked the nominating convention. We worked the campaign for all there was in it, and we were elected by the campaign and the campaign for all there was in it. was in it, and we were elected by a magnificent majority. We are not only a state senator, but the most prominent figure in the body. This may seem sometide for weeks when he cum home and told me the world was round. Stuck

I suppose your next purchase will be a baby rhinoceros or a five legged giraffe! If I hadn't more sense than to"—

At that moment a neighbor's boy called to get the goat, saying he was much obliged to Mrs. Bowser for keeping it for an hour while he was making a pen. The girl also announced that luncheon was on, and further conversation was suddenly dropped. It was nearly night before Mr. Bowser could figure up results with a skule in when yo' passed?"

"Very likely. Do your children atmade my mistake in jumping onto the goat too soon! Curious woman, Mrs. Bowser is! She can remember every little thing clear back to the flood, and little thing clear back to the flood and little thing clear back to "Hain't got but one, and I'm goin up longer !"

The right is reserved of withdrawing the offer in whole or part at any time before allotment, and of allotting to any applicant any less number of shares than the number applied for.

As the dividends of the Company of payable quarterly, beginning with the first day of march next, allottees of stock will be entitled to receive a proportion of the quarterly dividend as declared, corresponding to the amount paid upon their subscription.

It is proposed to apply to the Stock Er changes of Montreal and Toronto for ofi cial quotations of the shares of the Com-nany.

The Consumers Cordage Company was organized in June, 1890, with a Capital of one million dellars, to operate several of the largest Cordage and Binder Twine Factories in Canada. It, at first, operated these under leases, but its operations having been successful, the Capital Stock was subsequently increased to Three Million Dollars, and the leased properties were purchased.

The Company has no mortgage indebtedness; and, according to the law under which it was incorporated, none can be created without the consent of twe-thirds of the shares holders, represented at a meeting called for the purpose.

The Company has placed in the hands of its Bankers:—

(a) Full statements of its affairs, certified to by Messrs. Caldwell, Taft & Wilks. Chartered Accountants.

The Consumers Cordage Company is probably the second largest Manufacturer of Cordage and Binder Twine in the world and claims the following very material advantages over its competitors:—
1st. Ample capital to conduct its business which enables it: lst. Ample capital to conduct its business which enables it:—

(a) To buy its raw material in larger quantities, and at lower prices.

(b) To use only the latest and most improved machinery, thus keeping its mills in the highest state of efficiency.

2nd. Economy in selling and distributing its manufactured product.

3rd. The business covers so wide a territory (its manufactured goods, go to almost every civilized country in the world) that it cannot be seriously injured by local troubles; and its Manufacturing establishment are so scattered that the danger of severe loss by fire is very slight.

4th. Lower cost of production.

4th. Lower cost of production.

(a) By maintaining the sharpest compectition between its several mills, it is enabled to introduce in all the best methods found in each.

(b) By spreading its commercial of the control of the to introduce in all the best incended for in each.

(b). By spreading its commercial expenses over a larger output.

(c) By placing in one hand the purchasting of the Raw Materials and Manufacturing supplies for the several Milis, thus securing lowest prices.

(d). By manufacturing for themsely?

The Company has always found it in its interest to divide the economies effected in production and distribution with the Consumer, and since its existence the Consumer, and the war previously. The Company does not claim to have any menopoly, or to earn monopoly profits in fact, it has not done so. Since its organization it has been able, owing to the advantages above referred to, to earn a net return on its present capital of not less than 10 per cent. per annum (as statements in their Bankers' hands will show) and the Directors believe that these profits will be maintained in the future, as the cost of preduction and distribution shows each year a marked decrease.

The Dividend for the year ending Slat October, 1892, was at the rate of 8% percent, per annum. The past of percent, per anners. The past recorder the Cempusy and its present position justify the Directors in believing that quarterly divideads of one and the requarters percent, can be paid fand should the Frofits for the present year he as large as the outlook promises, the final quarter's dividend might be increased.
