EXCELLENT MUSIC BY SACKVILLE CITIZEN'S BAND

(Union Advocate)

The Sackville Citizen's Band held up their reputation of being one of the best concert bands in the Maritime Provinces, on Wednesday last, when they gave an open air concert in the stand at the Public Square.

About 300 people listened to the programme. All were unanimous that it was the best heard here for a long time.

The trombone solo by Mr. Hugh Lambert was exceptionally pleasing as was also the overture, Stradella.

Following is the programme:

Buffalo Bill's Farewell, Sweeney Remick's Hits, No. 7, J. Ord Hume Trombone Solo, Air Variations, "The Old Home Down on the Farm"

..... Hugh Lambert, Jr., Overture, Stradella, Von Flotow Overture, The Idiot, H. E. Miller

March, Colonel Minor, H. E. Miller Sackville should feel proud of such a fine organization and also of Mr. E. C. Croft, the efficient leader, and Mr. E. W. McBride, the manager.

MRS. ANNIE ALEXANDER.

The death took place Thursday morning in Chatham of Mrs. Annie Alexander at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Burke.

Mrs. Alexander was eighty-six years of age and leaves four children. These are Joseph, Somerville, and Alexander, Beverley, Mass.; Mrs. John Rae, Newcastle, and Mrs. Burke, Chatham, and also one sister, Mrs. McKendrick, of Detroit, Mich.

The funeral which was largely attended took place on Saturday afternoon, interment being in St. John's church burying ground. Rev. J. M. McLean conducted the services at the house.

The late Mrs. Alexander was eleven months old at the time of the great Miramichi fire in 1825, and while of course she could remember nothing at first hand, she heard many strange stories from those who had passed through that terrible holocaust. As she retained her memory and faculties in a surprising way up to the last, Mrs. Alexander was always an interesting talker on past events.
