The Registration of Middlesex. In the foregoing article the ground is taken that the mere local view that obtains in London ought not to prevent Mr. Moffat from erecting suitable parliament buildings.

Mr. Moffat is secretary of the liquor board and the hotel men ought at his suggestion to square themselves with his rights. They were ill-advised the day they refused to Sir John for relief.

The Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association. We published yesterday a communication from J. D. Wells, agent of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association of New York denying that he had parties in this city examined by the medical officer of the association on the understanding that their certificates were not to cost anything.

Editor World: I notice in an evening paper that the chairmanships of the different committees have already been settled, at least according to that paper, and perhaps very fairly too, without regard to politics.

Committee, which is a very important one, should be given to the aid. Hastings of Ald. Hunter, both of whom have, by their strict attention to the interests of the city for the last two years, shown themselves worthy of the honor.

A Cheeky English Pickpocket. Michael Davitt's Book of Prisons. During the two last years of my detention in Dartmoor I was in daily labor competition with one of the long firm swell, and I have listened to many an account of his exploits upon what he styled the ignorance and credulity of the public.

How History Repeats Itself. The saying that history repeats itself is frequently quoted and widely misunderstood. With certain qualifications, it will do; but these are imperative. History does repeat itself in spirit and purpose, but not in details.

These cautions kept in mind, let us go back some years in the history of our own times, to find a possible parallel to the present situation. Nearly forty years ago, it was, when the party of free trade and peace as yet untried, achieved its great triumph in England.

Superstition and Agriculture. A correspondent of the Glasgow Herald, who has visited the district, writes that the fishermen are very superstitious. She adds: Farming is an avocation of at least as much consequence to the inhabitants of Fife as fishing, and in the proportion of it they are equally exact to act in obedience to the ancient, unacknowledged, but living faith.

The Cheapest and Best. On account of its purity and concentrated strength and power over disease, Barbock Blood Bitters is the cheapest and best blood cleansing tonic known for all disordered conditions of the blood, liver and kidneys.

Women Learning Billiards. I have been teaching billiards five or six years," said J. Randolph Heiser, the expert of New York, in conversation with a reporter the other evening.

THE EXTRA LIFE.

A Successful Year's Business.

The business of the Extra for the past year has been very successful. Its insurance in force has been materially increased, and its assets now closely touch $20,000,000, of which about $6,000,000 is surplus, giving it exceptional strength. Its interest income is now nearly enough to pay Death Losses and running expenses combined—a position few companies have attained.

And when daylight comes in through the looking up from the firm which was losing its sent her this message: "He will live!"

The papers sent forth were filled with the young man's story. He had been in the hospital for several months, and his life was in danger. His friends were despondent, and his doctors were pessimistic. But the Extra Life Insurance Company had taken an interest in his case, and they were determined to do all in their power to save him.

It was a year later, and the young man was in a roomy office in the city. He was smiling, and his eyes were bright. He had recovered from his illness, and he was now in the best of health. His friends were overjoyed, and his doctors were amazed. The Extra Life Insurance Company had done what no other company could do. They had saved his life.

The Registration of Middlesex. In the foregoing article the ground is taken that the mere local view that obtains in London ought not to prevent Mr. Moffat from erecting suitable parliament buildings.

Mr. Moffat is secretary of the liquor board and the hotel men ought at his suggestion to square themselves with his rights. They were ill-advised the day they refused to Sir John for relief.

The Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association. We published yesterday a communication from J. D. Wells, agent of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association of New York denying that he had parties in this city examined by the medical officer of the association on the understanding that their certificates were not to cost anything.

Editor World: I notice in an evening paper that the chairmanships of the different committees have already been settled, at least according to that paper, and perhaps very fairly too, without regard to politics.
