

THE INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

THE ORGANIZATION COMPLETED AT SYRACUSE

Toronto, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany, Troy, New Haven and Another are the Octet—the Great Curbing Match for the Thurston Prize won by Frazer's rink—Rosedale's Octet.

STRAUSE, Feb. 12.—A meeting was held here today to organize the International League of Professional Baseball Clubs.

Cornell to Toronto University? The manager of the Varsity Baseball Club yesterday received an unsolicited offer of a guarantee from Cornell for a game there about the Toronto University nine take a tour this summer.

Spalding in King. CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Spalding was today elected president of the board of baseball control.

CURLING GIANTS MEET

Frazer's Tenkors Rink Knecks Out Wells' Postage Men.

The Postage Men are the winners of the Mitchell medal of '96, and Yonkers, the champion Mitchell medal rink this year, met to fight for possession of the four pairs of curling stones presented by Mr. Mitchell of Bath, Scotland, at the Granite Rink here yesterday.

Too much attention cannot be given to the development of the body and chest, as it is essential to perfect health and gives a man a commanding appearance.

INTERNATIONAL FOOTBALL

The Team From Chicago That Will Play in Toronto, March 13, Next May

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The Chicago Cricket Club held a meeting at the Grand Pacific Hotel last evening and decided to organize a football team to play in Toronto, March 13, next May.

James S. Frazer, E. J. Wells, J. H. Wells, skip, 21. J. H. Wells, skip, 17. Majority for Yonkers, 4 shots.

Rancocas Captures the Handicap. Winners at Guttenberg yesterday were Buckton, Little, Fred, Servin, Rancocas, (handicap mile), MacAnley and Shotover.

Did's Mind Losing a Friendly Match. A friendly curling match was played at Prospect Park yesterday afternoon between Yonkers and Prospect Park with this result:

Portage Beaten by Toronto. The Portage rink of curlers played a match at the Victoria Rink yesterday afternoon and were easily beaten as follows:

Buffalo and Toronto Caledonians Play. The fourth annual match for the Davis Cup was played Thursday morning at the Granite Rink between the Caledonians of Toronto and Caledonians of Buffalo, with the following result:

Chips from the Ice. Four Richmond Hill rinks play Prospect here next Monday.

The University residence hockey men are anxious for a match with one of the Bankers' sevens.

The St. George's and Victoria Hockey Team play a match this evening, starting at 8 o'clock in Huron-street.

The proposed match between Upper Canada and Granite II hockeyists has been abandoned for the present.

The Trinity College seven did not show up last night at Minto-street, and St. George's were content with practice among themselves.

The Yonkers and our Portage rink play three rinks on each trip Prospect, Mon-

Park and Caledonians, Saturday, 8 a.m., at the Granite Rink.

The Bankers have added the following to the list of the Ontario Hockey Association: "It is the referee's opinion unnecessary violence is used in body-checking or charging an opponent when neither player has the puck, he has the street, or when one and for a second offence rule him off the ice until a goal shall have been scored." One warning only will be given for any other infringement of the rules.

The following hockeyists will play for their respective banks this afternoon at the Mutual-street rink at 4 o'clock: Commerce, Baird, Cowan, Turnbull, Carter, Brown, Jones, Boshu, Mitchell, Gillespie, Walsh, Referee, J. F. Smallis, Onwards Hall Hockey Club.

The Great Hockey Club at Ottawa. The Ottawa Hockey Club has made a record for itself this season of which it may well feel proud. Their victory Thursday made seven straight wins as follows:

Dec. 20—Ottawa College, Goals won Lost Jan. 14—Ottawa College, 1 0 Jan. 15—Ottawa College, 1 0 Jan. 21—Victoria, Montreal, 1 0 Jan. 22—Victoria, Montreal, 1 0 Feb. 9—Rideau, 1 0 Feb. 11—Dee's Rink, 1 0 Total, 7 0

Ottawa is the Ontario Hockey Association championship series.

ROSEDALE'S TOUR

The Dates for the Crank City Club's Summer Games with Uncle Sam.

A meeting of the Rosedale Cricket Club committee was held last evening in the C.P.R. Hotel, when the dates for the club's United States summer tour were arranged.

The American clubs will be written to at once and most probably accept on account of the early application.

July 1—New York Cricket League, New York City, N.Y. July 2—Philadelphia, Pa. July 3—Boston.

The club will leave Toronto on the morning of Saturday, and open their matches that afternoon at the Falk. They will spend Sunday in New York, and also play matches at the Granite Rink here, and at the C.P.R. Hotel, when the dates for the club's United States summer tour were arranged.

Too much attention cannot be given to the development of the body and chest, as it is essential to perfect health and gives a man a commanding appearance.

These can be had for $5 upon application to H. P. Davis & Co., York-street.

INTERNATIONAL FOOTBALL

The Team From Chicago That Will Play in Toronto, March 13, Next May

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The Chicago Cricket Club held a meeting at the Grand Pacific Hotel last evening and decided to organize a football team to play in Toronto, March 13, next May.

Other games will be played at Berlin and Detroit. As previously arranged, the team will be as follows: J. Balingoal, goal; A. T. Webb, captain; J. McLaughlin, F. Kelly, T. Gibson, J. B. G. Good, forwards; W. McLaughlin, W. Ramsey and J. G. Davis, backs; J. Hendry, A. McFarland, backs; W. McLaughlin, W. Ramsey and J. G. Davis, backs; J. Hendry, A. McFarland, backs; W. McLaughlin, W. Ramsey and J. G. Davis, backs.

There has been a marked change at "Head quarters" since Mr. Fred Mossey took hold of the reins. The entire establishment has been re-organized and fitted with handsome oiled wood-paneled electric-reflecting mirror bars, which are without a peer in any saloon in Canada. The best brands of liquors and cigars are always kept in stock. F. W. Mossey, 365

James Custer broke his leg in two places by kicking a football at Duck Lake, N.W.T., last week.

A full attendance of the members of the Toronto Bicycle Club gle club is requested at the rooms at the hour this evening.

The members of the Owl Gun Club will finish their annual pigeon shoot, postponed on account of the severity of the weather, at the grounds today, shooting to commence at 1 p.m. There will also be a shoot at 3 p.m.

Jack Dempsey and his wife have arrived from Portland, before Dempsey left New Orleans a benefit was arranged for him, and Fitzsimmons volunteered to box Kilrain. Dempsey refused to accept, saying that the public did not have any use for a loser.

Oh, What a Cough! Will you heed the warning! The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption. Ask your selves if you can afford, for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. Sold by Hargreaves & Co., 240 Queen-st. west, and by every druggist in the city.

Toothache cured instantly by using GILBERT'S TOOTHACHE OIL.

A Reform Party Without a Reform Program.

Editor World: The election campaign has now begun in earnest. The contributions to the literature of the day include a letter in The New York Times from Mr. Goldwin Smith, published last Saturday.

The Oxford professor informs us that the immediate issue in the contest is the question of trade relations with the United States, but he adds, "beneath this lies the broader issue between continental and insular policy." Here, at last, we have in a few words the actual truth. The language of the writer is, however, so vague that it is difficult to understand exactly what is meant.

The controversial policy in other words, the policy of the mis-named Reform party—a party without any distinct platform or any definite program. Of this party Mr. Goldwin Smith appears to be the cock-dog; he runs in front of the liberal leaders and carries "ammunition" much longer than they are prepared to present. If the gentleman who headed the Reform party were to be planned in anything but some they may make some kind of a reciprocity treaty with the United States. But beneath the surface lies an evident desire to join this country to the American union, and if a Reform party is to be elected it cannot be reasonably doubted that some fatal step in this direction will be taken.

Canada has arrived at a critical period in her career. The question is not one of reciprocity or protection; it is no longer one of Liberalism or Toryism; it is, in so many words, a question of whether we shall support the patriotic party, pledged to the maintenance of the union with Great Britain, or shall they place in power gentlemen like "the Senator from the state of Vermont with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

Prussia did it when she entered into a similar treaty with the neighboring States, Canada did it when she made with the United States the Reciprocity Treaty of 1854. But reciprocity is not a commercial matter; it is a political, independence. Of political independence nothing can rob Canada but the vote of her own people.

RECIPROCITY

Address to those in Favor of Extended Trade Relations With Great Britain.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends of the movement throughout the country. It is a triumph that will be remembered as long as the nation endures.

The leading principle of the Commercial Union Club, which is the removal of restrictions on trade with our own continent, has now been adopted as a platform by one of the two great political parties, while the other so far adapts it as to admit the necessity of extending commercial relations with the United States. Upon this triumph of the principle of reciprocity, the friends