WATFORD, SEPTEMBER 18, 1914.

To Germany

Ye have waged the tiger's kitten, ye have roused the lion's whelp, ye shall see how this Dominion, with her stalwart sons can help; For our fathers' blood is in us, and the fighting strain is pure, Strong in peace and strong in battle, strong to suffer and endure. WAR SUMMARY

Sept. 14. A dispatch from Petrograd to The Paris Matin, says: "The Austrian army has been destroyed. Over the entire front it has been beaten or surrendered."

"The first Austrian army, commanded by General Auffenberg, lost 300 officers and 28,000 men and 400 cannon, while the second army lost in prisoners alone, 500 officers and 70,000 soldiers."

By way of Rotterdam comes a Berlin dispatch that the total losses sustained by the Germans number 6,535 dead and 12,633 wounded.

A German fleet, the flagship of which carries the flag of Prince Henry of Prussia, has been seen cruising south of the Aland Islands, in the Gulf of Bothnia. The fleet includes seven dreadnoughts.

The retreat of the German armies virtually all along the line in France continues, according to French official reports, and advances from Switzerland describe the profound impression the news of the German retreat has created along the Swiss-German frontier and in various parts of Germany.

Sept. 15.—The German forces have been pushed back by the allied armies at some points for a distance of 60 miles or more, and the French have succeeded in re-occupying various towns, which they evacuated two weeks ago.

The Belgians have taken the offensive and are reported to have cut the German line of communication, forcing them to use the line through the Meuse valley and Luxembourg.

Sept. 16.—The reconquest of Amiens by the French and the preparation by the Germans on the river Aisne to make a stand against the Allies are the chief announcements contained in the latest statement issued by the French Government. Apparently, the Germans are also preparing to resist on the heights to the north and northwest of Rheims.

Petrograd reports that the Russian troops are crossing the San River and that the Russian army, in repulsing a desperate attack by the Austrians, captured many prisoners.

A Copenhagen dispatch says that the Austrian army has suffered an absolute defeat at the hands of the Russians.

Among the German prisoners, arriving in the neighborhood of Paris are a general and his entire staff.

Peking reports that 25,000 Japanese have been landed on the Shantung peninsula and that Japanese troops are passing towards Ping Tu about 40 miles north of Kiao Chow, the German protectorate in China.

A dispatch to The Central News from Rome says telegraphic advices received there from Petrograd are to the effect that the seventeen-days' battle of the Russians against the Austro-German forces ended with the following result:—

Prisoners taken..... 180,000
Field guns captured..... 450
Fortress artillery captured, pieces..... 1,000
Transport waggons taken..... 4,000
Aeroplanes captured..... 7

The Russian Embassy in Rome, says that the German Army commanded by General Von Hindenburg has been defeated near Mlaw, Russian Poland, and that the Germans are evacuating Poland with a loss of 50,000 men.

Sept. 16.—A Rome dispatch giving news from Albania says that the Montenegrin troops in conjunction with Serbians, have repulsed the Austrians on the Bosnian frontier. In the recent fighting the Austrian casualties were estimated at 4,000.

Russian official reports announce that no fighting has occurred in the last 24 hours in East Prussia and that the Russian troops, having extricated themselves from a difficult position, are awaiting further movements.

London, Sept. 17.—The German right wing is now encircled by the allies, according to an Amens dispatch to The Daily News.

The British official statement issued yesterday afternoon hints at the strategy being employed by the allies in the big battle now raging in the long line from Noyon, 55 miles east of Paris, at a point north of Verdun.

The statement says that the British are holding the center firmly while the French on the right and left have advanced slightly.

It is likely to be a semi-enveloping movement to start from both wings of the long 110-mile front but from the allies' left will probably come the real attack. Here that grand old veteran General Pauss is leading the troops. The report that he has been reinforced by great numbers of cavalry leads to the belief that he has been prepared for fast movement. Apparently he has not a great way to go to accomplish this.
