Last Sunday the service in the Anglican church was a flower service, and was a joyous one. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion and the young people brought their flowers in abundance, not only did the young people of the congre-gation present flowers but many of the friends joined in and added to the general happiness. The brightness of the service was added to by Mr. B. Evan's with his violin. Dr. and Miss Seymour of Strathroy, contributed some lovely blooms and also brought some extra fine ones given to of autos in accidents the day was a number from Warwick the names and addresses party in the accident, as brought flowers. The flowers were sent to the hospital in Sarnia. The rector spoke from the verse "Behold the lilies of the field, how they grow.'

School Days!

How we would all like to go back to the days of our Youth: the lessons that we learned at school would no doubt make a more lasting impression upon us, and we would see to it that we very early cultivated habits and virtues that would be of inestimable value to us in mature life.

Above all things, teach Thrift and encourage your children by opening a Savings Account for them in this Bank. Teach them banking principles by practical experience.
