FRAUDULENT ENTRIES.

There is no practice among self-styled turftuen more permetous or more apt to bring a truly noble sport into disrepute, than that of radang fraudulent critics, and we regret to concerned, no style of swindling is more in vogue. The very fact that this infamous trick can often be played with impanity, furnishes an additional reason why the offenders when caucht should be punished severely. A case in point was furnished by the Windsor Races on the 1st and 2nd inst. In the 2:40 class, an entry was made as follows:

" Elias Hopkins names bg Billy."

After allowing Mr. Hood's Long John to win the first heat in 2:85. Billy took the accand third, and fourth heats, in 2:841, 2:84, and 2:84. Billy having trotted under protest, the matter was afterwards investigated, when it was proved that the horse entered as Billy was in reality the horse Rarus, who, at the meeting at Prospect Park, October 28th & 29th, 1874, got a record of 2:281. The Rules of the National Association are very distinct on this point, and read as follows:

"Every horse shall be named, and the name correctly and plainly written in the entry; and after trotting in a public race such name shall not be changed, except by permission of the Board of Appeals, and upon the payment of a recording fee of $10, the fee to go to the National Association. For each violation of this requirement, a fine of of the members of the Club for courtesies $100 shall be imposed, tegether with suspen-extended and information furnished. sion or expulsion; and if the horse has ever; The first race was running, dash of a mile. tretted in a public race, the last name under | There were only two starters. Sarah G. was which he or she trotted shall be given with

"A horse having once been named, shall not again start in a race on any cour e in the United States or Canada without a name, nor under a different name, unless the foregoing requirements have been complied with.

This certainly covers the whole case, and it only remains for the National Association to give Rarus and his ewners the punishment they so richly ment. It is quite evident, that in this case the swindlers depended on the National Association ignoring Canadain the enforcement of their rules, but unless we greatly mistake the character of American turfinen, these sharpers will be just as severely dealt with as they would have been had they played the same game on any of the American tracks.

It is needless to add, that the Windsor Association very properly withheld the purse, and no one who has over had anything to do with sharps of the Rarus type will be surprised to learn, that after winning two or three hundred dollars in the pools, and after the protest was proven, they had the impudence to demand the purse, and failing to get that, they wanted their entrance back, and said a great many disobliging things of Jack the Barber, 145 lbs.

Time, 4:09].

1851 he rode Lexington in lis race against time at New Orleans, where the great hero of the turf made his four mile dash in 7.19]. And now this veteran jockey, outliving the grand old horse on which he beat the world, rest ppears at Monmouth Park, Long Branch, where, on the 8th inst, he rode Lewis & Co.'s marc Bessie Lee.

BROCKVILLE DRIVING PARK.

Last Autumn a number of prominent turfmen, and other influential citizens of Brockville formed themselves into an organization known as the Brockville Fair Grounds and Driving Park Association, with a paid up made play, and overhauled him on the capital of $5,000. Since then the capital straight run home, Lightbody, in the meanstock has been increased to $10,000, and second place, and a hot struggle took place suitable ground having been purchased, a handsome track was built, at which the inaugural meeting was held on the 1st and 2nd inst. The track is a half-mile one, and it is expected that it will be very fast and easily kept in order. The entrance to the course is very handsome, and the grand stand and judges' stard are in keeping with everything else, no expense baving been spared to make them as they should be, while needless ex. travagance has been carefully avoided. There is good stabling at the track for seventy-five horses, and there is plenty of room for more stables should they ever be required. The track is situated about three-quart rs of a mele from the town.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., RACES.

From our Reporter.

The races at Ogdensburg, N. Y., on the 5th inst., proved to be a grand success, not less than 15,000 people being present to witness them. The track was in splendid couness them. The track was in splendid con-dition and the races usually well contested. The arrangements made by the efficient com mittee of this Club were complete, carried out to the letter, and gave the most unqualifield satisfaction to all present. Blessed with exceedingly fine weather, the Club were fortunate in having everything pass of without a jar. A great deal of the credit for the gratifying result of the meeting is due to the un-tiring energy and tact of the more than efficient secretary, Mr. W. H. Daniels, who was uncoasing in his efforts to have everything connected with the races as near perfection as possible. Our thanks are due to soveral

The Hurdle Race.—The horses got away after one false start, Jack leading, Lobelia second, Austrine three or four lengths in the rear; these positions w re maintained for the first mile and a quarter, when Lobelia went to the front and led past the stand; Austrine, who was making a waiting race, was now sent to the front, easily capturing Lobelia and Jack, and won handily by three or four lengths. This mare gives promise of being quite a successful hurdler, and is another of the Doctor's recent American purchases.

There was a very fine attendance at Elli ott's track on Saturday last to witness a hurdle and a flat race. The day was beautiful and warm, and the drive out was really en-loyable. In the hurdle race Frank Ross was a strong favorite against the field; while Lady Extra had the call in the half-mile honts.

At rather a late hour the horses were called up for the hurdle race. There were muo entries, of which eight faced the starter. At the cropping of the mag Lighthody made the pace, followed by the Thunder colt and Frank Ross, the others stringing out behind; passing the Judges' stand for the first time, the little one held her lead, the son of Damel Boone running second, well in hand; on the back stretch the Thunder colt came to the fore, but swinging around the turn Ross between these two for the junior honors; Ross leading handsomely, and a dead heat for second place between Lightbody and Thunder. Upon weighing, Dedrick, who rode Ross, was found to be four pounds light, and the house was consequently discussional. disqualified and the horse was consequently from claiming a victory, which had been but little more than an exercising galop for him to win. Dr. Smith, Principal of the Ontario Veterinary College, acted as starter; and Messrs. John Mitchell and W. A. Bookless occupied the Judges' stand. The following is the summary of the first race:-

The half mile heat race was then called up.

The half-mile heat race was then called up, and of the six entries five put in an appearance, Larkspur being the absentee; and as a race as anybody would wish to see resulted.

First Heat.—A passably good start was effected; coming around the turn it was seen the heat would be between Glencora and Lady Extra, the former leading; swinging into the stretch, Lady Extra went for the leader, and being sent under the whip, ran up to her, and a very exciting contest ensued to the stand between the mares, but the Lady forged allead, and won a finely contested heat by a head. Glencora was disqualified on account of her rider having dismounted without the permission of the Judges.

Second Heat.—A bad send off, Thunder being a long way behind. 50 to 20 on Lady Extra went begging. The little mare led the party into the turn, and had a lead of over a party into the turn, and had a lead of over a a length when they were coming into the straight, Katie P. and Lightbody being lapped second and third. After rounding the turn, Katie P. was called on and responded gamely, gradually crawling on the favorite (who ridden with poor judgement in the deep sand) and at 150 yards from had collared the white legged one, and had her easily beaten 50 yards from the wire, coming home a handy winner. Lightbody was drawn, and the jockey of Lady Extra changed after this Third Heat.—Ratie P. was now a strong favorite, and she was looked upon as a sure winner, bar accidents. After several provoking false starts they got away well together, Extra, Katie, and Thunder being in the order named. Rounding the turn, the foreign-bred showed in front and from that point home had the race in hand, although the persuader was freely applied to the Extra mare, Thunder a poor third.

DEATH OF THE CELEBRATED BACEHORSE LEXINGTON.

When the New York journals of Sunday, July 1, published a telegraphic despatch announcing the death of Lexington, the "Blind old Hero of the death of Lexington, the "Blind old Hero of Woodburn," the world-renowned racehorse and sire of racers, turfmen were indisposed to credit the intelligence, because, at Monmouth Park, on the preceding Saturday, the prominent Kentucky turfmen there assembled had received no intimation of the occurrence, which was stated to have taken place at Woodburn Stud Farm, of Thursday, July 1. Another circumstance which tended to cast doubts on the truth of the rumor was that, just three years ago, a false report of the great horse's death was extensively circulated throughout the country by the Associated Press, and generally believed at the time, until authentically and officially contradicted by his owner. and generally believed at the time, until authentically and officially contradicted by his owner. But later despatches from Lexington, Ky., positively confirm the previous rumor of his decease, which occurred at 7 p. m. at Woodburn, on Thursday, July 1, as originally announced. For some time past, Lexington had been in failing health, suffering from nasal catarrh, and this, combined with other symptoms of decay, caused Mr. Alexander to fear the old here was not destined to live much longer. Now that the noble air. Alexander to tear this on held was not de-tined to live much longer. Now that the noble animal, whose name will be immortal in the annals of the American turf, no longer exists, a brief history of his career will be read with in-terest by all who feel pride in his memorable performances on the turi.

Lexington 732 bred by Dr. Warfield, of Lexington, Ky., in 1850, and was by Boston (the greatest of Timpleon's sous) out of Alice Carneal, by imp. Sarpedon, grandam Rowena, by Sumpter; great grandam Lady Gray, by Robin Gray. His first appearance on the turi was under the name of Darley, at the Lexington, Ky., Association Spring Meeting in 1853, in a rate of mile-heats for a stake for three-year-olds, ton horses out of the twenty-six nominations going to the post. The track was very heavy, and a shower of rain felliust before the start for the first heat. A false felljust before the start for the first heat. A false start took place, in which most of the horses ran the course. Lexington won the first heat, Listancing Panny Fern, Vandal, Jim Barton, and five others; indeed, all the field with the exception of Wild Irishman. He won the second heat easily, and, three days afterwards, he won the two-mile heat race at the same meeting; John Harner's filly Midway. by Boston.
