

SPECIAL NOTICES.

COLLECTORS or Dealers residing in the British, Dutch, French, German, Portuguese and United States Colonies, or in any part of Asia, Africa, South America and Oceania, are respectfully requested to send me from 1 to 10 sets of the current unused stamps of their country, from lowest value to one shilling or equivalent. I offer in exchange equal face value in current unused stamps of Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda and British West Indies. Please send in registered official envelope, and I will do the same.—Matthew R. Knight, Boiestown, New Brunswick, Canada.

GANZSACHEN.—I want one to five complete sets of current envelopes, wrappers, postal and letter cards of every country in the world, unused and entire, for which I will send Canada and Newfoundland entires to equal face value. Also Canadian, U. S. A., Newfoundland and West Indian adhesives exchanged for unused obsolete entires of all countries; bas-is, Gibbons, Scott or Senf.—Matthew R. Knight, Boiestown, New Brunswick, Can.

EVERY Stamp Collector residing in the British Colonies in any part of the world (except Canada), who sends me his name and address, on postal union reply card (complete), or in official envelope or letter card, will have his name inserted FREE in the British Colonial Philatelic Directory, and will receive a copy of the Directory (when published) GRATIS and POSTPAID. The price to all others will be 12c. (6 pence) per copy. Orders booked now. Advertisements, 25 cents per inch. Special Notices, without display, 3 words for one cent; minimum charge, 12c. Collectors sending me Society Lists or written lists of collectors in their town or neighbourhood, will have their names printed in the Directory in blacker type. Size of collection and specialty will be inserted if furnished. Current unused stamps of any country will be accepted at face value as cash. Time for reception of information and advertisements has been extended to Dec. 20. Will be published Jan. 1, 1900.—Matthew R. Knight, Boiestown, New Brunswick, Canada.
