are "Treated with Carbonate of Soda, Magnesia, Potash or Bicarbonate of Soda."

To partially supply the loss of natural flavor and color caused by this treatment, fragrant gums and dyes are used.

DR. SIDNEY RINGER, Professor of Medicine at University College, London, and Physician to the College Hospital, perhaps the greatest English authority on the action of drugs, states in his "Hand-book of Therapeutics" that "the sustained administration of alkalies and their carbonates renders the blood it is said, poorer in solids and in red corpuscles, and impairs the nutrition of the body."

For more than 100 Years the house of Walter Baker & Co. have made their Cocoa Preparations ABSOLUTELY PURE, using NO Patent Process, Alkalies or Dyes.

Sparkles.

COMES high; but we must have it—the sun.

THE Speaker of the House is in deadly peril when every member on the floor wants to get his eye.

MAMMA: My dears, you should not talk about students on Sunday; it is not right. Ella and Carrie (in chorus): But, Mamma, we're talking about theological students. Mamma: Oh!

DEAR SIR,—This fall and winter I suffered from neuralgia in my face and had the best medical advice without avail. I at last thought of trying B.B.B., and after using one bottle have not felt any symptoms of neuralgia since. I regard it as a fine family medicine. J. T. DROST, Healslip, Man.

"OH, mamma!" exclaimed little Edith, after gazing at the full-blossomed head of Paderewski; "how I should like to have seen his head when it was a bud!"

PASSENGER (to train boy): You probably did not know when you put this book in my lap that I was the author. Train boy: Did you write that book? Passenger: I did. Train boy: Then you had better keep mighty quiet about it. I just sold a copy to the man back of you.

CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.—As is well known, this troublesome complaint arises from over-eating, the use of too much rich food, neglected constipation, lack of exercise, bad air, etc. The food should be thoroughly chewed and never bolted or swallowed in haste, stimulants must be avoided and exercise taken if possible. A remedy which has rarely failed to give prompt relief and effect permanent cures, even in the most obstinate cases, is Burdock Blood Bitters. It acts by regulating and toning the digestive organs, removing costiveness and increasing the appetite and restoring health and vigour to the system. As a case in point we quote from a letter written by Miss L. A. Kuhn, of Hamilton, Ont.: "Two years ago life seemed a burden. I could not eat the simplest food without being in dreadful misery in my stomach, under my shoulders and across the back of my neck. Medical advice failed to procure relief, and seeing B.B.B. advertised, I took two bottles of it, and have been entirely free from any symptoms of my complaint since."

This gives very conclusive proof of the efficiency of this wonderful remedy.

NOTHING in it: "She makes all of her own dresses. Don't you think she would make a good wife for Alfred?" "No, indeed! I think how poor her father must be."

PERSONS on pleasure bent, often get badly doubled up.

WHEN there is anything extra going on the newsboy is always ready to meet the issue.

"I don't think I shall call on Miss Nippings again." "Why?" "She made use of the expression 'the late unpleasantness' last night." "What of that?" "She said it in a way that left me in doubt as to whether she meant me or the war."

NEEDED cheering—Husband: Smikeson's wife is away, and I'm going over there this evening to cheer him up. Wife: Why don't you bring him here? Husband: Well—er—I'm not feeling very well, and need a little cheering up myself.

PHYSICIANS, travellers, pioneers, settlers, invalids and all classes of people of every degree, testify to the medicinal and tonic virtues of Burdock Blood Bitters, the most popular and effective medicine extant. It cures all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood.

LITTLE boy (pointing to window of rubber store): What's them? Mamma: Those are diving suits made all of rubber, so that the diver won't get wet. Little boy: I wish I had one. Mamma: Why, what for, my dear? Little boy: To wear when you wash me.

LADY (meeting little boy who is crying): What is the matter, little boy? Little boy: My mother whipped me this morning 'cause I didn't keep my temper, and now my teacher just whipped me 'cause I didn't get rid of it, and I don't know what to do. Boo! hoo!
